Will Avoid Amputation.
Mrs. R. Lowell Rutherford, of Portland, formerly Miss Ethelene Osborn, of this city, is now recovering from a severe operation caused by an abscess of the knee. Mrs. Rutherford is rapidly improving, and the leg will not have to be amputated, as was at first feared would be necessary. Her many friends will be glad to learn of her safe recovery. Mrs. Rutherford was formerly a compositor on The Journal staff.

ENSIGN STOREY HERE

The last time Ensign Storey was here the people wanted him to stay, but other duties called him away. However, Salem is again to be favored with a visit from the ensign. This time he is going to conduct a campaign for four days with the Salvation Army of this city, beginning Thursday evening.

The ensign is the young people's secretary of all the work west of Chicago, and is meeting with good success everywhere. Make it a point to hear him, beginning Thursday evening at 7:30 p. m.

A Treat

The students of the high school and University, who are to present the "Pirates of Penzance" at the opera house Friday, February 9th rehearsed again last evening. The opera promises to be one of the best entertainments ever presented by local talent. Some ten years ago "Pinafore" was presented, and this is the first opera attempted since. It certainly deserves encouragement and your patronage. The cause for which it is given is a public one, so let every citizen assist to make it a success. Thirty-two voices in the chorus, ten pieces in the orchestra. With M. Evelyn Hurley, Emma Mueller, Lida Fleury, Myrtle DuRette, Frank Snyder, Ralph Rader, Horace Sykes and Harry Moyer as soloists. Don't miss it.

Marriage Licenses to Be Issued.

Rumor has reported that the county clerk will be doing a thriving business soon, when about 40 of our popular young society people will procure permits to enter the happy state of matrimony. The young ladies are the well-known daughters of Major General Stanley.

Be sure to witness this betrothal at the opera house Friday evening February 9th in the "Pirates of Penzance." Benefit for high school and University.

Will Celebrate Lincoln Day.

Feasts in commemoration of Lincoln's birthday will be given in Salem and Portland next Monday night—in the Capital City by the Young Men's Republican Club, Hal D. Patton, president, and J. G. Graham, secretary, and in Portland by the Young Men's and the Republican Clubs. Charles E. Lockwood is president of the first named club in Portland, and F. E. Beach of the latter. Frank C. Baker, chairman of the state central committee of Oregon, has been invited to both feasts, and has accepted the invitation received first, namely that from Salem.

"I regret that I cannot attend both banquets at once," said Mr. Baker yesterday, and, inasmuch, as I received the invitation from Salem first, I feel constrained to go to that city." He telegraphed his acceptance to Chairman Graham last night.

City Attorney Dismisses Suit.

The case of the City of Salem against Bill Anderson, which has been pending for some time, was dismissed yesterday on motion of the city attorney, A. O. Coddit. This is the case in which Anderson was accused of having sold liquor to Indian minors.

Grave Trouble Foreseen.

It needs but little foresight to tell that when your stomach and liver are badly affected grave trouble is ahead, unless you take the proper medicine for your disease, as Mrs. John A. Young of Clay, N. Y., did. She says: "I had neuralgia of the liver and stomach, my heart was weakened, and I could not eat. I was very bad for a long time, but in Electric Bitters I found just what I needed, for they quickly relieved and cured me." Best medicine for weak women. Sold under guarantee by J. C. Perry, Salem, Or.

X-RAYS

Smoot will die of old age, or his time will expire while his peers in the senate monkey with him.

Opera literally means work, and grand opera simply explains the extent to which the public is worked.

Grand opera to be successful must come high. Many alleged music lovers can only discover its quality by its price.

The greater number of Portland's fashionables who went dippy over Tannhauser, and the balance of the Savage presentations, couldn't tell high C from an Apache G string.

It is hard to say what the harvest will be, but the marriage licenses issued today show that two Schlieves are to be bound together, hardly enough to make a shock.

United States Attorney Bristol can console himself with the philosophy of the old epitaph on an infant that lived but a few hours:

"If so soon I'm cut and done for, What in h—l was I begun for?"

Croup

Begins with the symptoms of a common cold; there is a chilliness, sneezing, sore throat, hot skin, quick pulse, hoarseness and impeded respiration. Give frequent small doses of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, (the child will cry for it) and at the first sign of a croupy cough, apply frequently Ballard's Snow Linctament to the throat.

Mrs. A. Villet, New Castle, Colo., writes, March 18, 1902: "I think Ballard's Horehound Syrup a wonderful remedy and so pleasant to take. For sale by D. J. Fry, Salem, Oregon."

A Treat for the Ladies.

Paul Riger, the noted California perfume manufacturer, has sent 30,000 sweet pea seeds to the Red Cross pharmacy for free distribution. One package of the seeds, containing also a perfumed blotter and a coupon, good for ten cents, will be given to each lady calling at the store. None will be given to children.

Finest pork sausage—3 pounds for 25 cents—at Farrington's market.

Marriage Licenses.

Three marriage permits were issued by the county clerk this afternoon. They are Laura Koerner and August G. Carl, Dora McGee and Ulysses S. Gesner and Adolphina Schieve and Adolph Schieve.

Health

Means the ability to do a good day's work, without undue fatigue and to find life worth living. You cannot have indigestion or constipation without its upsetting the liver and polluting the blood. Such a condition may be best and quickest relieved by Herbine, the best liver regulator that the world has ever known. Mrs. D. W. Smith writes, April 3, '02: "I use Herbine, and find it the best medicine for constipation and regulating the liver I ever used." 50c. For sale by

Wonderful Psychic Gifts

Many of the leading people of the city, including some of the prominent physicians and prominent men, have tested the power of Madame Zazell since her arrival in the city. The unanimous verdict has been that she has been accurate in her delineations of the past and her revelations of the future. Her great psychic power. It was Madame Zazell who foretold the great fire and the fire of the city. She is one of the few women who have been able to see the future. She is one of the few women who have been able to see the future. She is one of the few women who have been able to see the future.
