AmusementsBasketball Tonight.

There will be a swift and interesting game of basketball tonight at the University gymnasium, when the teams representing the Y. M. C. A. and the University come together for the purpose of settling a question which has been in dispute for some time. The members of each side say their team is the stronger. The Y. M. C. A. has never been able to beat the varsity, but this year they have a stronger team than usual, while the collegians are not supposed to have the strongest aggregation of players that has ever represented the cardinal and old gold. Therefore, the association men have figured out a victory for themselves.

The game will be called at 8:30, so as to give those who work Saturday evenings, a chance to witness the contest.

New Edison Last Night.

The Nonpareil Comedy Co. returned and played to two packed houses last evening. The show was a continuous laugh. The evening performance began with Meadows and Lassave, termed the "Comedy Boomers," who made good, as their act went with a big laugh. Miss Edna Wilma sang beautifully. This prima donna has dies operatic selections as though they were simple lullabies. She sang "Suwanee River" as it should be sung. Pearl and Cassidy gave their comedy skit, "The Decoy Letter." Mable Pearl is a clever woman, and in this sketch they both do work that was surely appreciated, as the audience was laughing all the time. The last of the bill was a farce comedy, "The Secret Panel." This good bill tonight and Sunday night. The management thinks the company will be held here for the entire coming week, so watch for two big shows next week.

STRONG'S RESTAURANT OPENED

This Well-Known Eating Place Will Cater to the Epicurean Tastes.

As announced in another column of The Journal, Strong's restaurant, at 179 Commercial street, was today reopened to the public, under new management. The new manager of the restaurant, H. W. Hardwing, has thoroughly renovated the place, and customers will find that everything served will be of the best.

One of the features of the restaurant under the new management will be after-theatre luncheons and small evening supper parties. This will be a welcome addition to the facilities of Salem.

Many lonely bachelors will be glad of a "home-cooked" late supper, and the young men and their sweethearts will find comfortable, cozy corners for a quiet te-a-tete over a well-served lunch.
