BANQUET TREMENDOUS SUCCESS

Young Men's Republican Club Acknowledged a Factor in State Politics

At 7:30 the informal reception at the Hotel Willamette was on hundreds of loyal Republicans and a sprinkling of Democrats participated.

At this hour the Military band struck up and led the grand march to the beautifully decorated armory, where hundreds of flags fluttered from the ceilings and adorned the lapsels of the stalwarts in attendance.

At 9:15 the banquetting closed and the cigars and claret were circulated freely preparatory to speaking. After patriotic airs galore President Patton introduced Judge L. T. Harris of Eugene, who was warmly applauded, and all his remarks were punctuated with applause.

Hon. F. C. Baker was received with cheers and applause when he was introduced as state chairman. He spoke very appropriately and feelingly for the grand organization that was here so splendidly represented by this energetic Young Men's Republican club.

Hon. S. B. Houston said this was an auspicious occasion for the Republican party, but added that Marion county had plenty of talent to fill all the offices in the state. He announced that a newspaper in Portland would print a letter pledging his support to the nominees.

Pause and Consider

What will be your financial condition ten years from today?

You may not have saved anything in the last ten years, but if you will begin now and save only twenty cents a day and deposit it monthly in our Savings Bank Department, you will have to your credit in ten years the handsome sum of $434.46.

ington and Abraham Lincoln. He thought the great issue was whether the American people would rule the corporations or be ruled by them, and Roosevelt was the man of the hour, who was fighting the battles of the people against their oppressors.

The next speaker was Walter Toozee of Woodburn. He eulogized Lincoln as the defender of humanity and the champion of the common people. Not a word had been uttered in behalf of the great principle of protection, which was the foundation of our permanent prosperity.

Ex-Governor Geer next was introduced amid applause. He reviewed the past history of the Republican party and sounded the praises of General Prosperity and was repeatedly applauded for his sentiments. Heartless, haughty and greedy financiers had been developed under this abnormal state of prosperity.

C. A. Johns of Baker county was next received as a gubernatorial possibility. His first speech at Salem in many years was greeted with applause. He eulogized the public schools, declared Lincoln was the greatest American who was ever born (applause). Lincoln was great but he never was a candidate for office under the Oregon primary law (great laughter and applause).

Dr. James Witherspoon was very cordially received when he arose to speak. He told a good story that put all at their ease and said the hope of the nation was with its young men (applause). The principles maintained by the Republican party from Lincoln to the present day had produced prosperity and could be trusted to continue to do so.

Wm. J. Clarke for state printer, Let L. Farris for secretary of state, F. T. Wrightman for the same office, made short speeches that were well received. Letters of regret were read from several candidates who could be present only in thought and written word.

Judge Ryan grew witty at the expense of the absentees. Willis Bennet was for state printer, J. R. Whitney for the same, J. H. Ackerman for state superintendent, J. W. Crawford for attorney general.

Short addresses were made by Labor Commissioner Hoff, and some of the local candidates for the legislature.

Hon. J. G. Graham, chairman of the city general committee made the closing speech, thanking all who were present for their assistance in making the banquet so much of a success. He especially thanked those who came from out of town, and more especially to Hon. L. T. Harris, who had to come by special train from Eugene, making the run in 82 minutes from Eugene to Salem, and gave him a rising vote of thanks for his attendance.

He also reminded those present that the S. P. Co. had placed the special at Mr. Harris' disposition, and a rising vote of thanks was extended the S. P. Co. for its courtesy. Mr. Graham pledged the Young Men's Republican Club to aid in the election of all the ticket after the primary, and the banquet adjourned.

It was the largest gathering of the kind ever held in the city and shows that the Young Men's Republican Club has become a working factor in Oregon politics of state-wide reputation and influence. They were highly complimented by several of the speakers, and their political methods commended to the other politicians. The celebration of Lincoln's birthday promises to become an annual event that will be kept with increasing interest and enthusiasm.

W. R. C. of Massachusetts.

Boston, Mass., Feb. 12.—The 27th annual convention of the Women's Relief Corps of the Department of Massachusetts opened here this morning at the People's Temple. The session was opened by Mrs. Harriett A. Ralph, the department president, who delivered her annual address. The attendance was very large and the hall was filled in every part.

The membership of the convention is composed of corps presidents, all regularly elected delegates, alternates serving in the place of delegates, and the last past president. Miss Fannie E. Palmer, of S. C. Lawrence Corps No. 5, of Medford, is acting as chief conductor; Mrs. Mary A. Beat, of Hartford Corps No. 137, Rockland, as chief guard.

After the opening session luncheon was served at church by the Ladies' Society of the Church. There will be another session in the afternoon. The 27th anniversary of the order will be celebrated tomorrow evening at a meeting in the People's Temple. There will be an interesting program with addresses by prominent speakers. Comrades of the Grand Army of the Republic, Army Nurses, the Sons of Veterans, Daughters of Veterans and members of many other patriotic organizations will be present.

Among the prominent women who are here to attend the convention is Miss Clara Barton, the only honorary member of the Women's Relief Corps and a past national captain. During her stay in this city she will be the guest of Miss Reed, the past national secretary. Miss Barton, who is 84 years old, is a remarkable woman for her age. She is almost as strong and vigorous as ever. Miss Barton's present home is at Oxford, her native town, where she is planning the work of her latest endeavor, the First Aid Society of America.

They Stand Alone.

Standing out in bold relief, all alone, and as a conspicuous example of open, frank and honest dealing with the sick and afflicted, are Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak, over-worked, debilitated, nervous, "run-down," pain-racked women, and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous remedy for weak stomach, indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, or biliousness, all catarrhal affections, whether of the stomach, bowels, kidneys, bladder, nasal passages, throat, bronchia, or other mucous passages, also as an effective remedy for all diseases arising from thin, watery or impure blood, as scrofulous and skin affections.

Each bottle of the above medicines bears upon its wrapper a badge of honor, and in the full list of ingredients composing it—printed in plain English. This frank and open publicity places these medicines in a class all by themselves, and is the best guaranty of their merits. They cannot be classed as patent nor secret medicines for they are neither—being of known composition.

Dr. Pierce feels that he can afford to take the afflicted into his full confidence and lay all the ingredients of his medicines freely before them because these ingredients are such as are endorsed and most strongly praised by scores of the most eminent medical writers as cures for the diseases for which these medicines are recommended. Therefore, the afflicted do not have to rely alone upon Dr. Pierce's recommendation as to the curative value of his medicines for certain easily recognized diseases.

A glance at the printed formula on each bottle will show that no alcohol and no harmful or habit-forming drugs enter into Dr. Pierce's medicines, they being wholly compounded of glyceric extracts of the roots of native American forest plants. These are best and safest for the cure of most lingering, chronic diseases. Dr. R. V. Pierce can be consulted free, by addressing him at Buffalo, N. Y., and all communications are regarded as sacredly confidential.

It is as easy to be well as ill—and much more comfortable. Constipation is the cause of many forms of illness. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, two a mild cathartic. All dealers in medicines sell them.

Boston, Mass., Feb. 12.—The 46th annual encampment of the Massachusetts Department of the Grand Army of the Republic opened here today at Faneuil Hall with a large attendance. Commander James H. Wolf occupied the chair at the opening meeting.

At the same time the Massachusetts Division of the Sons of Veterans is holding its 15th annual convention in Gilbert Hall, and the Massachusetts Department of the Daughters of Veterans is holding its 16th annual convention in Chipman Hall, Tremont Temple. Under the auspices of the latter organization a reception will be held in Chipman Hall this evening, to which all members of the G. A. R., the Women's Relief Corps, the Army Nurse Association, the Ladies of the G. A. R., the Sons of Veterans, and other patriotic organizations have been invited.

Health Means the ability to do a good day's work, without undue fatigue and to find life worth living. You cannot have indigestion or constipation without its upsetting the liver and polluting the blood. Such a condition may be best and quickest relieved by Herbine, the best liver regulator that the world has ever known. Mrs. D. W. Smith writes, April 3, '92: "I use Herbine, and find it the best medicine for constipation and regulating the liver I ever used." 50c. For sale by

How Much Is A Hen Worth?

Some hens make $200 a year for you—some don't. It depends on how you feed the hen. A Salom man has eight hens. He got five eggs per day. He fed them COULSON'S EGG FOOD. Every morning he missed it three mornings. He got two eggs per day. Started up again, and back to five eggs. Go then and do likewise.
