X-RAYS

A Valentine.

Mary, Emma, Angeline,
 Which will be your valentine?
 Laughing Bess, with eyes of blue, Jolly Kate, or roguish Sue, Alice, saintly, angel-faced, Lena, with her willow waist, Edyth, Grayes or laughing Mayme, Each with bad spell to her name Sure you can but only guess, Jeanette, Anna, Joyce or Jess.

Which your valentine, would you Choose the modest, bashful Phee?
 Trix, with sentimental sighs, Clara with the goo-goo eyes, May, the daisiest on the list, Rose, lips pouting to be kissed—Florence, dream of long ago—Marion, with the throat of snow, Nellie, Eva, Edwiline—
 Which shall be your valentine?

Bare, dear boy, it matters not,
 Who or which, or why or what,
 Which ever daughter of her mother You get, you'll wish you had some other.

Hearts are seldom made in tune, Kisses end with bousymoon, Goo-goo eyes will make you tired, Sentiment not be desired, So, dear boy, do not repine, If you get no valentine.

State News

The O. A. C. Athletic Union held their annual election last Friday evening, at which Bert Pilkington, '35, was elected general manager.

The government has taken steps to discontinue the stage mail route between Albany and Corvallis and Philomath. The splendid mail service on the C. & E. rendered the stage route impracticable.

The O. A. C. girls' basketball team was defeated by the Chemawa girls Friday night to the tune of 19 to 11.
 The Corvallis Gazette, in speaking of the game, says it was quite an extraordinary one, as every time one of the Chemawa girls would "jar" a Corvallis girl, she would stop and apologize, and, as this happened quite often, it was very laughable. The paper also says the Chemawa girls played like demons.

Editor Dodd Whipped.

Early Tuesday morning a personal encounter occurred between E. P.
 Dodd, editor the Pendleton Tribune, and W. S. Brown, foreman, growing out of troubles existing the last few days. The fight occurred in the Tribute office and was favorable to the foreman. Dodd receiving two black eyes. The affairs in the Tribune are still in a turmoil, but the employe stockholders still have control, and may continue to operate the paper for a year.

Itch—Ringworm.

E. T. Lucas, Wingo, Ky., writes: April 25, 1932: "For 10 to 12 years I had been afflicted with a malady known as the Itch. The itching was most unbearable; I had tried for years to find relief, having tried all remedies I could hear of, besides a number of doctors. I wish to state that one single application of Ballard's Snow Liniment cured me completely and permanently. Since then I have used the liniment on two separate occasions for ringworm and it cured completely. 25c, 50c and $1.00. For sale

MALLEY ASKS SHRIEVALTY.

Will Oppose Tom Word for Democratic Nomination.

M. Joseph Malley has announced himself as a candidate for Sheriff of Multnomah county, and will enter the primaries against Tom Word. He reached this decision definitely Monday afternoon, and forthwith had his declaration prepared and made ready to circulate his position.

Friends of Sheriff Word do not take Malley's candidacy seriously. He is ostensibly the candidate of the anti-Word element in the party, whose grievance lies in the fact that the sheriff appointed several Republicans as deputies in his office.

It is not believed by the Word forces that Malley will stand any chance of nomination, and it is known that an effort was made by several of Malley's friends to induce him to remain out of the race.

Mr. Malley's reason for launching his campaign is that the people want him, he says.

Smiles

Leadership is going into the hands of the people.

It is now or never for Woodburn to get a congressman.

Portland ministers seem to want the job of running that town.

Will the old Silverton band play at the farmers' and shippers' congress this week?

Eugene is talking about having a $20,000 Y. M. C. A. home. Nothing too good for Eugene.

Perne Cochran as a candidate for congress would be impossible outside of the Democratic party.

Now they say a Bryan banquet speech at Hong Kong caused the Chinese boycott. Politics and business don't mix.

We have direct legislation, direct nomination, statement No. 1, and we will go the whole hog and have woman suffrage, too.

Independence needs a laundry so that its leading citizens can have a change of linen occasionally. They never change their politics.

To judge from the dovelike remarks at the Lincoln banquet there is a perfect cloudburst of harmony hovering over Multnomah Republicans.

Oregon Oration: Progressive Vale sets the pace. The Baker City Herald says, "Vale time an hour fast.
 Ten o'clock in Baker City marks 11 in Vale."

A Woodburn man intimates that a man is a cabbage head if he doesn't support Walter Toole.—Albany Democrat.

If he is a Woodburn man he certainly has water on the brain.

What has become of the Albany?— But then, no matter. A number of these campaign papers have been started that will not last the primary campaign.

The Ashland Tribune says: We note that the Tidings favors Prof.
 Hawley's candidacy for a seat in congress. Hawley deserves better support than that; he is really a very good man.

A man who is a state candidate could not attend a Lincoln banquet because he had an appointment to meet a friend at Portland. As Ike Hingham would say, draw your own conclusions.

The Salem Republican clubs have been invited to give a joint audience to the orators of the woman suffrage movement. They propose to hire the opera house and instruct the local politicians.

John F. Kelly has brought out the Yoncalla Independent. That beautiful valley grows the prettiest red cheeked apples and Appozates. The paper was needed to give it all the comforts of civilization.

It is a cold, raw day when a twenty or thirty million dollar proposition to construct a new railroad system is not trotted out in the Oregon newspapers. But then some of the propositions are raw, too.

Roseburg Review: It is easier to catch a titled foreigner apparently than to get rid of him afterward.
 Count Castellane, husband of Anna Gould, has spurned the offer of $40,000 a year to allow his wife to get a divorce.

A Portland preacher expresses the positive opinion that the hugging accompanyment is responsible for the dance, and stripped of that the world wouldn't want it. And he is very sceptical as to the pleasure men take in dancing with their own wives.—

MOTHER AND CHILD.

Let the mother take Scott's Emulsion for the two; it never fails to benefit them both. One can eat for two, but nourishing two is a different thing. It calls for a degree of internal strength that the average woman lacks. People of luxury are not very strong by habit; overworked people are weak in some functions from exhaustion or their surroundings. Scott's Emulsion can be depended upon to overcome such conditions. It is a wonderful food for a mother and child.

Yoncalla Independent: With the late Senator Mitchell gone to "that bourne from whence no traveler returns," and Hon. Binger Hermann not a candidate, the Oregonian and Simon people face the June election with many thousands of Republicans on the fence.

Dr. James Withycombe and Frank Miller drove down from Albany to attend the Young Men's Republican club banquet. They showed great appreciation of the occasion. Hon. A. C.
 Jennings and Justice Bean of Eugene missed coming on account of the delayed train.

Toledo Reporter: When the coast railroad is completed and all these beautiful bays and rivers are connected; when the factories and mills and creameries are turning Lincoln county products into gold, then the old timer who lost faith and moved over into the Willamette valley will say "damnation!"

Fraud Exposed.

A few counterfeiters have lately been making and trying to sell imitations of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, and other medicines thereby defrauding the public. This is to warn you to beware of such people, who seek to profit, through stealing the reputation of remedies which have been successfully curing disease for over 35 years. A sure protection to you is our name on all Dr. King's or Bucklen's remedies, as all others are mere imitations. H. E.

This is a Keystone Joint

Every time a stay wire in the Ke-stone fencing crosses a main wire, it is the way they are twisted together.
 There's no slip there. The fence solidly woven from end to end. The top and bottom wires being cables, the mesh forms a keystone, hence the name. The weave takes care of expansion and contraction, without the of other provision.
