

A New Magazine for You

I am bringing out another new magazine that you will come pretty close to liking. I wouldn't be surprised if it hit you harder than anything in the shape of a magazine you have ever seen. There isn't much style to it, but it has the stuff in it that you and everybody else will want to read. It is called

Something New in Magazine Making

THE SCRAP BOOK is the most elastic thing that ever happened in the way of a magazine—elastic enough to carry anything from a tin whistle to a battleship. Everything that appeals to the human brain and human heart comes within its compass—fiction, which is the backbone of periodical circulation; biography, review, philosophy, science, art, poetry, wit, humor, pathos, satire, the weird, the mystical—everything that can be classified and everything that cannot be classified. A paragraph, a little bit, a saying, an editorial, a joke, a maxim, an epigram.

Nothing Like It in the World

There isn't anything in the world just like THE SCRAP BOOK. It is an idea on which we have been working for several years, and for which we have been gathering materials. We have bought hundreds and hundreds of scrap books from all over the country, some of them a century old, and are still buying them. From these books we are gathering and classifying an enormous number of gems, and facts and figures, and historical and personal bits that are of rare value. Furthermore, we have a corps of people ransacking libraries, reading all the current publications, the leading daily papers, and digging out curious and quaint facts and useful facts and figures from reference book, cyclopedia, etc., etc.

Don't fail to get a copy of this first issue of THE SCRAP BOOK. It sells at the price at which all our other magazines sell—Ten Cents a Copy and One Dollar by the Year.

FRANK A. MUNSEY, 175 Fifth Avenue, New York

Walter Lyon on Hon. J. M. Shelly.

Walter Lyon, of the Independence Enterprise, has it in for Hon. J. M. Shelly of this city. This is what he says:

There are too many sent to the Oregon legislature who get the political inspiration from the metropolis. From fifth story bricks, at wine dinners, poker tables or belted up to the bar, they look at their home county through the big end of a telescope and decide to become candidates. The suffrage of the people in the county which they condescend to honor with their presence occasionally is but a plaything for them. The votes of the horny handed toilers of the cow counties of eastern Oregon or the old hoppers of the Willamette valley counties, when steamed up with punches, cocktails, whiskey and benne, are their personal property. The political trust at Portland is notified they will be in the next legislature. Their respective counties they carry in their vest pocket. The formality of election will be attended to when they get back home and the real politicians will be with the Portland bunch in the legislature. The "new counties" have had enough of such legislators.

Lyon must have been out when he wrote the above. It is unjust. The insinuation that Mr. Shelly is a poker player or a whiskey man is wrong. He is an ardent "probi."

Lyon should not get too far away from home for his political comments.—Eugene Guard.

Itch—Ringworm.

E. T. Lucas, Wingo, Ky., writes: April 25, 1902: "For 10 to 12 years I had been afflicted with a malady known as the itch. The itching was most unbearable; I had tried for years to find relief, having tried all remedies I could hear of, besides a number of doctors. I wish to state that one single application of Ballard's Snow Lintiment cured me completely and permanently. Since then I have used the lintiment on two separate occasions for ringworm and it cured completely. 25c, 50c and $1.00. For sale D. J. Fry, Salem, Oregon."

Washington's Birthday.

Rome, Feb. 22.—In all large cities throughout Italy Washington's birthday was celebrated today, although the day had not been appointed a legal holiday by the government. A movement had been started by the Milan Peace Society, supported by the Peace Societies of other Italian cities, to induce the government to set aside Washington's birthday as a public holiday for manifestations in favor of universal peace. While the matter was pending the various peace societies succeeded in interesting the teachers in the schools of the kingdom for the plan and although the expected proclamation of the government was not issued, exercises in favor of universal peace were held in the schools throughout the kingdom. An effort will be made by the Italian peace societies to secure the co-operation of the peace societies all over the world in a concerted effort to have Washington's birthday made a universal holiday in all civilized countries and to devote the day every year to demonstrations in favor of universal peace.

New York, Feb. 22.—Washington's birthday was celebrated here today more generally than ever before. Flags were displayed on every public and on thousands of business houses and private residences. All clubs, schools, armories and similar buildings were thus decorated and all business in the city was practically suspended.

The Washington Continentals and a number of specially invited guests had their annual luncheon in the long room of Fraunce's Tavern at Beaver and Broad streets. As usual on that occasion, the officers appeared in Continental uniforms. Several interesting addresses were made.

There was another patriotic celebration at Washington's old headquarters in the present home of Mrs. Earl, on Washington Heights. It was in charge of the Washington Headquarters Association of New York and the Sons and Daughters of the Revolution participated. The large banquet hall, which seated about 200, was handsomely decorated with roses and American flags.

As usual the Letter Carrier's Association and the Exempt Firemen's Association celebrated the day together by a beef and beans dinner.

Several hundred invited guests attended the celebration arranged at the Catholic Rectory in Westchester, for which an interesting program had been arranged.

In the evening there will be a large number of banquets and memorial meetings by various patriotic and other societies all over the city.

In Brooklyn the day was also celebrated in appropriate manner. One of the features of the day was the annual parade of the Volunteer Firemen of old Brooklyn and the county towns. The marchers were reviewed by the borough officers.

Washington, Feb. 22.—In honor of Washington's birthday all public and many other buildings in this city displayed the stars and stripes, and all business was practically suspended. Thousands visited Mt. Vernon, and deposited flowers at the tomb of the Father of the Country. There were parades of veterans in the morning, a large number of memorial luncheons by patriotic organizations in all parts of the city, and in the evening there will be a number of banquets in honor of the day.

The National Association of the Veterans of the War with Mexico opened their annual reunion at the Arlington Hotel today. Only between 50 and 60 of the veterans were in attendance at the opening meeting. There are only about 3000 of these veterans now living, out of the 100,000 soldiers and sailors who were engaged in that war. They are all near 80 years old or over. Many states are represented at this reunion, especially from the West and South.

The reunion will last two days. This evening the veterans will celebrate Washington's birthday with a banquet at the Arlington Hotel. Tomorrow they will visit the president and congress to urge the passage of the bill now before congress for an increase of pensions to enable them to live for the few remaining years in comparative comfort and have enough left to pay for their funeral expenses when they die.

Baltimore, Md., Feb. 22.—The patriotic societies of this city are celebrating Washington's birthday today in a more elaborate manner than for many years.

The principal celebration will be held by the Baltimore Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution this evening.

Charleston, S. C., Feb. 22.—Washington's birthday is celebrated here today in the usual manner. The principal spectacular feature of the celebration was the military parade which will be followed this afternoon by a grand barbecue. The officers of the coast squadron and the men of the ships in the harbor have been invited to take part in the celebration, but the squadron was ordered south before it was expected. In the evening there will be several banquets by patriotic societies.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Feb. 22.—Never before in the history of this city has Washington's birthday been celebrated here in as elaborate a manner as today. This morning there was a big military parade and this evening there will be a meeting and banquet than HAYNER, no matter how much you pay or where you get it. We have been distilling whiskey for 39 years. We have one of the most modern and best equipped distilleries in the world. We know of nothing that would improve our product. Perfection in the distiller's art has been reached in HAYNER WHISKEY, which goes direct from our distillery to YOU, with all of its original purity, strength, richness and flavor. It doesn't pass through the hands of any dealer or middleman to adulterate. You thus save the dealers' big profits. You buy at the distiller's price, at first cost. Don't you see the economy in buying HAYNER WHISKEY, as well as the certainty of getting absolutely pure whiskey?

"I have used HAYNER WHISKEY for medicinal purposes in my family and have found it very satisfactory. I believe it to be a number-one medicinal whiskey."
Thomas S. Martin, U. S. Senator from Virginia.

Philadelphia, Pa., Feb. 22.—The faculty and students of the University of Pennsylvania celebrated Washington's birthday in the usual manner today. They met on the campus this morning and marched to the Academy of Music, where the exercises were held. The Rev. Dr. Henry Van Dyke, the distinguished New York preacher, and English scholar, delivered the principal oration.

Boston, Mass., Feb. 22.—Washington's birthday was generally observed in this city today. This morning the members of the Massachusetts Society, Sons of the American Revolution met in the Hall of Flags at the state house, where they were received by Governor Guild and staff. After the reception they went to the American House, where the annual meeting was held. This evening there will be a big banquet in honor of the day.

Group
Begins with the symptoms of a common cold; there is a chilliness, sneezing, sore throat, hot skin, quick pulse, hoarseness and impeded respiration. Give frequent small doses of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, (the child will cry for it) and at the first sign of a croupy cough, apply frequently Ballard's Snow Lintiment to the throat.
Mrs. A. Vliet, New Castle, Colo., writes, March 18, 1902: I think Ballard's Horehound Syrup a wonderful remedy and so pleasant to take. For sale by D. J. Fry, Salem, Oregon.

Gov. Higgins to Attend Ball.
Jamestown, N. Y., Feb. 22.—The Thirtieth Separate Company, N. Y. N. G., will give its annual ball this evening, which promises to be an unusually brilliant affair, as Governor Higgins and nearly all the members of his staff will be present in full uniform. Among other invited guests are Brigadier General L. W. Petti-bone, of the Fourth Brigade, and the officers of the 65th and 74th regiments of Buffalo.

Excursions Every Hour.
In order to give the people of Salem an opportunity to see the beautiful country south of Salem, and to see the development being made by the company, the Citizens' Light & Traction Company will run excursion cars to the rock quarry, south of Odd Fellows' cemetery, leaving the Willamette hotel on even hours. Enjoy a pleasant ride, and see for yourself.

To Raise Funds for Building.
Washington, D. C., Feb. 22.—All through the country wherever there are chapters of the Daughters of the Daughters of American Revolution entertainments will be given today for the purpose of raising funds for the memorial building which the Daughters of the American Revolution intend to erect at the Jamestown Exposition. It is expected that a considerable sum will be realized.

Fraud Exposed.
A few counterfeiters have lately been making and trying to sell imitations of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, and other medicines thereby defrauding the public. This is to warn you to beware of such people, who seek to profit, through stealing the reputation of remedies which have been successfully curing disease for over 35 years. A sure protection to you is our name on all Dr. King's or Bucklen's remedies, as all others are mere imitations. H. E. BUCKLEN & CO., Chicago, Ill., and Windsor, Canada.
