COLONEL HILL IS IN TOWN

Commander of the Grand Army of the Republic

Colonel Hill, of Ashland, commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, division of Oregon, is in the city, and will meet with Sedgwick Post this evening at Turner hall. There will be an old-fashioned campfire, with an informal program, and the old veterans and their ladies will be out in full force to welcome the commander.

Colonel Hill is traveling over the state, meeting the posts, and making preparations for the annual encampment at Grants Pass, beginning June 20th, and lasting several days. He has secured a one-fare rate for the encampment, and there will be a large attendance. The commander is an enthusiastic Grand Army organizer, and has done a great deal for the noble, patriotic order of which he is the head.

Excursions Every Hour.

In order to give the people of Salem an opportunity to see the beautiful country south of Salem, and to see the development being made by the company, the Citizens' Light & Traction Company will run excursion cars to the rock quarry, south of Odd Fellows' cemetery, leaving the Willamette hotel on even hours. Enjoy a pleasant ride, and see for yourself.

Eastern People Coming.

George M. Smith, of Bayley, Iowa, was out West the past summer attending the fair, and looking at the country, with a view to locating here. He was in the merchandise business for a number of years in Iowa, and thought the change of climate would benefit his health. He was so much pleased with it here that he returned home, settled up his business, and will be located here by April 1st.

Mr. and Mrs. John King, of La Grange, Iowa, who have been in California for the last two months, arrived in this city Friday, and will locate. Mrs. King is the mother of Mr. Smith, and a sister of W. C. Reynolds, of North High street. Mrs. King's daughter and her husband, of Denver, Colo., who have been spending the winter in New York City, are expected soon, and they will settle here or at Portland.

A party of friends and neighbors of George Smith, near Bayley, Iowa, who are touring the West, are also expected in a few days, and they intend to locate here.

All of these people are well-to-do and are welcome additions to the Capital City.

X-RAYS

A dispatch from Seattle says Mt. Rainier is throwing out large volumes of smoke. It is probably only the smoke of the Seattle city election.

Captain Samuel Kuhns, aged 101 years, and Mrs. Sarah Jackson, aged 100, of Lorain county, Ohio, were married a few days ago, and yet they are old enough to know better.

Darah Madson, the actress, has brought suit for $50,000 against Millionaire Peter Daryen, of Kentucky. She "needs the mon'" as a salve to blighted affections, and a "busted" gizzard. A man who can damage an actress' heart $50,000 worth is a sure enough masher.

Strikes Hidden Rocks.

When your ship of health strikes the hidden rocks of Consumption, Pneumonia, etc., you are lost, if you don't get help from Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. J. W. McKinnon, of Talladega Springs, Ala., writes: "I had been ill with pneumonia, under the care of two doctors, but was getting no better when I began to take Dr. King's New Discovery. The first dose gave relief and one bottle cured me." Sure cure for throat bronchitis, coughs and colds. Guaranteed at J. C. Perry's drug store. Price, 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

May Hold Annual Shoot Here.

W. E. Finzer, adjutant-general of the Oregon National Guard, was in Salem Tuesday on official business. The state annual shoot may be held here. The local range is one of the best in the state, and if those in authority conclude to hold the tournament here, the event will prove an innovation to the citizens of Salem, which will be much appreciated.

Good Roads Meeting.

A meeting is advertised for Liberty this evening to discuss the Tuttle act, and try to start a movement to get up petitions for a road from Liberty to Jefferson on that plan. Public speakers are advertised to be present and participate.

In Honor of St. Patrick.

The ladies of the First Unitarian church are planning a St. Patrick's day social, which will be a pleasant affair.

A Big Temperance Meeting.

The evangelistic institute, which met in the W. C. T. U. hall Tuesday was quite well attended, about 50 of the prominent workers in the cause of temperance being in attendance from Salem and neighboring towns.

The morning session was opened by devotionals by Mrs. D. J. Goodie, of Salem, president of the union. She was followed by an interesting paper on "How to Study the Bible," read by Mrs. D. Errett, of Salem. Mrs. R. M. Vandervort, of this city, spoke on "Our High Calling—to What?" "The Bible in the Home" was the subject of a paper well treated by Mrs. Burdick, Rev. Davis Errett of the Christian church, made a short address on "The Bible and Government." The prayer service was led by Mrs. R. M. Steele, of Turner, who chose for her theme "Tested Promises."

At the noon hour an excellent luncheon was served by the members of the local union. The meeting is in progress this afternoon, with an increased attendance.

Incredible Brutality.

It would have been incredible brutality if Chas. F. Lemberger, of Syracuse, N. Y., had not done the best he could for his suffering son. "My boy," he says, "out a fearful gash over his eye, so I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which quickly healed it and saved his eye." Good for burns and ulcers, too. Only 25c at J. C. Perry Drug store.

Would Be Committeeman.

G. P. Terrell, of Mehama, and George C. Will, 5th ward, Salem, are candidates for precinct committeeman in their respective localities, and filed their notice of candidacy Tuesday morning.

Fourth Ward Meeting.

The fourth ward Republicans meet this evening at the city hall to choose a member of the county central committee for their precinct. It is reported that A. W. Prescott is slated for the place.

A BROKEN HEART TONIGHT

"Dora," as given by the New York Empire Theatrical Company, last night, was a decided success. The audience was a goodly one, and showed their approval of both play and setting. Miss Elsie Gresham, who took the part of "Dora," showed a depth of feeling and a naturalness that made one feel she was Dora herself. Mr. Brooks, as "William Allen," made a typical choleric old country gentleman, and the balance of the cast was all well put on. The company will remain for the week, and those who like a good play, well-played, who appreciate a touch of sentiment and pathos will do well to see the Empire Company. Tonight the play is "A Broken Heart," a play full of pathos and sentiment, but with flashes of wit to enliven it. Between acts the specialties of Miss Ruth Williams and Alfred Allen are good, and serve to make it interesting while you wait.

The entire field of science, nowhere has there been such progress as in the science of the Optics and the fitting of Glasses. Our success in this line is due in a measure to the fact that we embrace every meritorious idea. We constantly seek to originate new methods of excellence that will in any way aid us in the practice of fitting glasses.
