NEIGHBORS FIGHT AT KAMELA.

Children and Sheep Said to be Responsible for Feud.

Trouble is raging at Kamela, and from the accounts plant have been rewived from there a fend is ruging hat promises to rival those of the Dark and Bloody Ground. "*

According to accounts, the trouble a the neighborhood is of long stund ing and started originally through achool children quarrels. Later it grew into family fights until almost the entire neighborhood was involved. Yesterday a general melce occurred. in which shout a dozen men, women and children took part, racks and other missiles being freely used.

This morning Mr. and Mrs. H. J Newcomb appeared before District Attorney Phelps for the purpose of making a complaint against some of their bolligerent neighbors. They declare that one of the McCoys had been driving some sheep on their land, and that when they ordered him off a general fight followed. Their appearornsy.

However, as the affair was a neighborhood quarrel and one in which he held all to be partly at fault, the district attorney did not issue any warrants. Instead, he has written severe letters to the various parties involved. telling them that should further trouble result he will prosecute all offenders. Also, he broadly hinted that the county finances would be improved hould he be required to do so. grown so bitter that should it continue bloodshed may result .- East Ore and is gonian.
