MAY BE ONLY ASLEEP

Springfield, Mo., April 17.—Springfield this morning is a sleeping volcano. On the surface things are quiet but 3000 negroes are residing here in five settlements, and officials expect rioting to break out. Officers are out with 35 bench warrants, charging first degree murder against alleged members of the mob.

"Not Over Young to Marry."

Wants Law Passed.

(From Four O'Clock Edition.)
Washington, April 17.—The President this afternoon sent a message to congress advocating the passage of an insurance law for the District of Columbia, recently introduced, embodying the recommendations by the insurance commissioners in conference in Chicago in February. He urges the bill be enacted at the earliest possible date, with such changes as congress might deem necessary.

SILVERTON FLAG RAISING

Silverton, April 17.—There was a large crowd here yesterday to witness the public school flag raising. The exercises were in charge of Prof. Washburn, principal of the high school, and he had appropriate songs and exercises for the occasion. The Silverton public schools have ten grades, and another will be added next year. A new $12,000 high school building of brick will be erected this coming year. Prof. Washburn is regarded as one of the best school men in the state, and has the loyal support of the community and the love of the children for him is strongly manifested. The drum corps, being one man short, Hal D. Patton, took the part of the bass drummer, and the children marched out to stirring music and took pliers on the school ground, while a fine new white painted flag staff soon bore aloft the national colors. There was a literary program of patriotic songs, a presentation speech by Mr. Patton, who donated the flag to the district, and a speech of acceptance on behalf of the school by Prof. Washburn. Then Mr. Patton, as

WHAT TEDDY MAY DO

Washington, April 17.—President Roosevelt will probably be a candidate to succeed his successor in 1912. There is no doubt in the minds of his friends that he intends to stick to his determination to retire at the end of his present term. No consideration will prevail upon him to be a candidate in 1908. He has confided in some of his friends his belief that he has so many enemies that he will be an easy man to beat. He says the public good demands the administering of certain affairs with little sympathy for opponents. His friends believe he will go to the senate in 1908 from New York, and then reach after the presidency again. The enemies he is making now may be his friends hereafter.

Idaho Cases.

Washington, April 16.—The supreme court today took under advisement the request for an appeal by Pettibone, Mayer and Haywood, now in jail in Idaho, charged in connection with the assassination of Steunenberg, that the case be advanced for hearing.

TILLMAN AFTER THE BANKS

Washington, April 17.—Tillman, in a remarkable speech in the senate today, inveighed against the alleged corruption of national banks, and urged the adoption of a dragnet resolution which directs the senate committee on finance to investigate and report whether criminal or civil prosecution should follow the discovery, if such discovery is made of the national banks contributing to campaign funds, or have been guilty of irregularities in the recent failures in Chicago, or have been paying the Ohio county treasurers commissions for depositing public funds.

ABOUT ELECTION LAWS

Portland Man Pours His Troubles into Patrick Power's Ears

A Portland paper, Sunday, got gay with politics and said:
Late yesterday afternoon the Cynic met his old friend, Pat Powers, at the cigar stand on Fourth street and related his experience with considerable bitterness.

"There's a heap of trouble in this getting ready to exercise the proud prerogatives of an American king," said the Cynic. "I'm just through the ordeal. I signed my name to nearly all the books Clerk Field has in his office and then I told them my age, my birthplace, my residence, my occupation, religion, number of horns on my right foot, name of my landlady, amount of rent due, my politics, did my first wife die, or did I leave her; my ideas on the ship subsidy; my beliefs on race suicide and infant damnation; names of my butcher and laundry man, how much due each; did I ever vote for William Jennings Bryan or have I been reading his trip to the Philippines; my personal belief in Charlie Fulton, do I sympathize with the Idaho dynamiters, was it me who killed Governor Steunenberg, do I beat my wife when I go home nights; do I go home nights at all; where, when, how and for what reason was my mother married to my father; do I believe that Jonathan Bourne has a lock-in; what is my opinion of 'Hood River' Smith, do I like Tom Ward, how often do I wash my socks, do I endorse Harry Lane, when last was I north of Burnside street, am I a patron of Richard's, have I recently been doing detective work with Paul Rader and H. L. McCabe, did I preside at the White Temple when Kay charmed the audience with his eloquence."
Made Him Shivery.

"I'll tell you, Pat, I got shivery. A Dago man at my left quit cold in the middle of the category and said he didn't give a damn whether he ever voted again in this old state or not. Life was too short. But I staid it out. The lad with a wad in his jaw finally recognized me as a waiter in line and I passed through in triumph. After he graded me as a Republican so that everybody could know, he gave me a little pamphlet with '12' marked on the front of it.

"That's your precinct number," he said, shifting his chew to the other cheek."

There is more, but it is not ours.

State News

County Treasurer Robert Eastland, of Eugene, has just announced that the city is out of debt. This is the first time in a good many years.

A Junction City Store, belonging to C. P. Houston, was robbed Friday night, and $200 worth of jewelry was taken. It is believed that it is the work of local talent, as several days before Mr. Houston had received a letter which contained a drawing of a coffin, and several skulls and a small bundle of shavings.

Geo. B. Hart, a former resident of Albany, died at the Presidio hospital, at San Francisco Monday. He said his wife had but recently returned from the Philippines, and on the way over he contracted pneumonia, from which he never recovered. He was a member of the Albany militia when the war broke out with Spain, and served during that campaign, after which he joined the regular army. The funeral will be at Albany.

WARNING TO THE PEOPLE

MARKED SAMPLE BALLOTS ARE BEING SENT OUT WITH FIVE IMPORTANT STATE OFFICIALS FROM MARION COUNTY TO VOTE FOR. THESE OFFICIAL SAMPLE BALLOTS ARE ALSO MARKED FOR TWO STATE SENATORS, AND THEY ARE ILLEGALLY TAKEN OUT OF THE SAMPLE BALLOTS PRINTED AT PUBLIC EXPENSE TO BE USED ONLY AT THE POLLING PLACES. THESE OFFICIAL SAMPLE BALLOTS ARE BY LAW PRINTED TO BE SENT OUT WITH THE BALLOT BOXES, LOCKED AND SEALED, AND CANDIDATES OR THE AGENTS OF CANDIDATES HAVE NO LEGAL OR MORAL RIGHT TO USE OR CIRCULATE THEM BEFORE APRIL 20, TO INFLUENCE THE VOTERS. THESE MARKED SAMPLE BALLOTS MEAN A REVIVAL OF THE OLD SLATE SYSTEM, THAT THE DIRECT PRIMARY LAW AIMS TO DO AWAY WITH. THE CAPITAL JOURNAL PRINTS AN UNMARKED FAC SIMILE OF THE OFFICIAL BALLOT FOR THE USE OF THE VOTERS, BUT IT IS IN NO WAY MARKED OR USED TO SLATE ANYONE. THE SENDING OUT OF THE OFFICIAL SAMPLE BALLOT IS AN OUTRAGE ON THE BALLOT LAWS, AND SHOULD NOT BE COUNTENANCED BY FAIR-MINDED VOTERS. A SQUARE DEAL AND FAIR PLAY FOR ALL ASPIRANTS FOR NOMINATION SHOULD BE THE WATCHWORD DOWN WITH SLATES AND SLATE MAKERS. LET EVERY AMERICAN CITIZEN BE HIS OWN SLATE-MAKER, AND LET THE PRIMARY LAW BE FAIRLY TRIED AND FAITHFULLY EXECUTED.

assisted by Dr. Brooks, of the board of education, hoisted the Stars and Stripes and when its beautiful folds broke in the breeze, there were cheers from the immense multitude. Nearly all of the county candidates of both parties were present, and Jas. W. McCown, one of the legislative candidates, who served two years in the Philippines, delivered a very eloquent and patriotic address. He will receive a large vote in the eastern end of the county, and wherever he is known. All the other candidates were given an opportunity to address the voters at the opera house, except Walter L. Toos, who made a patriotic and educational address to the school children. He was loudly cheered by the audience at the conclusion.
