A Chemically Pure Cream

Is what we serve you. After a very critical chemical analysis we found the cream we are using to be entirely free from any adulterations. The cream comes direct from one of the most modern dairy farms in Oregon, where every thing is clean and wholesome, and there it is prepared and frozen by a man of years of experience.

Jubilee Singers Tonight.
With reference to Williams' original Dixie Jubilee Singers, who appear at the Grand Opera House this evening, M. C. M. Manson, secretary Freedman's Aid Society, says: "I cheerfully recommend Williams' Original Dixie Jubilee Singers. I am personally acquainted with most of the members of the company, as the majority of them are products of our school of the South.
Williams, the manager, is from one of our Freedman's Aid Schools. Their singing is most excellent, and in representing the music of the old Southern form they approach nearest the old Fisk Jubilee Singers of a decade ago, than any company I have ever heard.
They are worthy of the confidence of our people everywhere." A pleasant entertainment is anticipated, and the prices are right, 50, 35 and 25 cents.

Baseball This Afternoon.
This afternoon, on the Chemawa school diamond, the Indian boys will cross bats with the high school. The game is expected to be a particularly interesting contest. The batteries are:
H. S. Keens, pitcher, and Jones, catcher; Chemawa, Poland will twirl the sphere and Teabo will catch. The high school team has also been strengthened by the addition of Audin Roberts, of Oregon City, who has established a reputation of more than ordinary ability.

Central Howell.
The graduating exercises of the Central Howell public school will be held on Saturday evening, April 28th, at the Central Howell hall. The Silverton high school orchestra will furnish the music. A splendid time is anticipated.
Ice cream at 10c a dish will be served after the exercises are over.

DIED.
YOUNG.—At the home of her father H. S. Belle, April 20, 1906, at midnight, Mrs. Blanche Belle-Young, aged 27, of consumption.
Mrs. Young leaves a husband and one daughter, aged three years, besides her father and mother, one brother, Claude, and two sisters, Leila and Eugenie Belle.
Blanche Belle-Young is well-known throughout the city, having lived here from childhood. She was a graduate of the Salem schools, and has a wide circle of friends who mourn her death.
The funeral will be Sunday at 4 o'clock from the residence on Church street, and interment will be in the Odd Fellows' cemetery.

Evangelical Church.
The Evangelical church of this city will entertain the members of the Oregon Evangelical Association, which assembles here May 10th. Bishop Horn, of Cleveland, O., will start next week for the coast, and will spend a week at the state conference at Latah, Wash., and after a short tour of the Washington churches, will come to Oregon. He will be in Salem for two Sundays. The Chemeketa street Evangelical church will be the place at which the sessions of the conference will be held.
Rev. C. C. Poling, of Dallas, and Rev.
H. A. Deck, of Salem, have been chosen as fraternal delegates. One of the most important questions to be considered by the conference will be the feasibility of forming a union of the Evangelical association churches, and those of the United Evangelical denomination.

Another New Home.
Thomas Ash yesterday purchased a piece of the old G. W. Gray home block, 90x165 feet, facing Thirteenth street, paying $1200 therefor. He will build and make his home here.

TOLSTOI'S "FEDOR" IN BERLIN Mansfield May Add the Play to His Repertoire.
Berlin, April 11.—Great success has attended the presentation of "Tear Feodor Ivanovitch," by a Russian company at the Berlin theater this season.
This is the second play in Count Alexis Tolstoi's famous trilogy of stage masterpieces. "Ivan the Terrible" and

GERMAN
A GOOD
GUESSER

Mrs. R. P. C. Carver, of Tacoma, has a prophecy made by a German hermit 51 years ago, which was published at that time in a Bavarian paper and has since been published in the various newspapers of the Old World and the United States, in which he predicts earthquakes and catastrophes in the opening years of the twentieth century.
Mrs. Carver today turned the document over to the newspapers for inspection. The hermit, whose name is not given, declares that all of Southern California will be devastated by earthquakes, as well as Florida.
Havana, Cuba, will be wiped off the map and the island of Cuba broken in twain by an earth-rending seismic shock, leaving a great gap through which the ocean currents will pour.
The shock that produces this will be so great that New York City will be racked off its foundations and destroyed by collapsing buildings and fire.
Millions of lives will be snuffed out and billions of dollars worth of property destroyed.
The prophecy foretold successfully many of the political convulsions that have shook the nation in the last 40 years. It tells of the Franco-Prussian, the Austrian-Russian and the Turkey-Russian wars, now facts of history, and also that two presidents of the United States would be assassinated. A disruption of the federal government is predicted with six republics springing up to take its place, their capitals being Washington, Boston, San Francisco, New Orleans, St. Louis and Denver.
This country, the prophecy declares, will have but 25 presidents, following which will be periods of anarchy, out of which will grow six governments.
Ireland, the prophecy predicts, will secure its freedom, but civil war will immediately afterwards divide it into two kingdoms, one of which will be Roman Catholic and the other Protestant.
England is to become a republic with the first male ruler of the 20th century as its first president. The hermit, according to the Bavarian paper, refused to give his name, and nothing is known of who he was. Mrs. Carver has had the paper 11 years, having treasured it on account of the nearness of the time when the events predicted were to take place.
Charles Frank.
Charles Frank, of The Dalles, died at the hospital there Friday. He owned a saloon in The Dalles which has become almost of national reputation on account of the splendid collection of deer and other horns, and heads. Outside of being an enthusiastic collector, "Charley" Frank was one of the most genial and lovable of men.
Free Exhibition.
On Sunday morning, April 23, Mr.
W. H. Hillis, representing the Peters Cartridge Co., will give an exhibition of fancy rifle shooting at the grounds of the Salem Gun Club, near the fair grounds; also trap shooting.

"Boris Godunoff" being the first and third plays of the series.
Richard Mansfield has made "Ivan," translated into English by Madame de Meisner, well known to playgoers in the United States. Madame de Meisner now has translated "Tear Feodor" the chief interest in which centers about the attempts of Godunoff, representing the reactionary element, to concentrate all power in the hands of the weak, though well meaning Tsar. The liberal element is embodied in the character of Prince Shuiski, who stands for the opposition to the growing power of the autocracy. It is understood here that Mr. Mansfield is considering the production of the play in the United States next winter.
Emperor William and the empress and other members of the royal family were present at a recent performance of "Tear Feodor," after which the emperor expressed great satisfaction at having had an opportunity to see the play. Owing to the large number of Russians now residing in Berlin, the Russian players have had large audiences throughout the season.

The Good of Medicine.
People insisting that medicine does no good, have one stubborn fact to contend with, that is, the people who do believe are greatly in the majority. We have been so fortunate during the past 20 years as to convince thousands of sufferers with weak, watery blood, who had all the symptoms of a general breaking down of the system that one medicine, at least, does good. Nervous and unsteady people, weak, fleshless people, pimply, pale or sallow people, can have strong, steady nerves and solid healthy flesh by the use of Dr. Gunn's Blood and Nerve Tonic. A tablet to take at meal time, it turns the food you eat into rich, red blood, making solid flesh at the rate of 1 to 3 lbs. per week. Sold by all druggists for 75c per box, or 3 boxes for $2. This medicine saves doctor bills and insures health, giving the very best treatment possible.
