North School Forfeits Initial Game.
 The first of the series of baseball games played between the teams of the Grammar School league was scheduled to be pulled off on the Woolen Mills diamond at 4:15 yesterday afternoon. When the time came to call the game the aggregation from the North school, for some unknown reason, was conspicuous by its absence, while the Yew Park team was eager and ready for the fray. According to the rules governing the league, Umpire "Jack" Gambie announced that the North school had forfeited the game by failing to appear on the diamond at the agreed time.

SMITH COMES SOUTH

We Don't Really Need Him, But the Sheriff Would Like to See Him

Oregon City, April 27.—Outlaw Frank Smith is working southward. Officers believe the murderer of Night Watchman George J. Hanlon is nearing the Marion county line, and a close watch is being kept in the southern part of Clackamas county. The bandit is well armed and desperate, and it is known that he will not yield to arrest without a fight. Those who know Smith declare he is nifty, and would not hesitate to commit a dozen murders to escape.

The price on the bandit's head was increased to $500 this morning, the county duplicating the reward of $250 offered by the city.

As yet there is no organized posse in the field, but every clew has been quickly run down as soon as reported. The officers are now planning to form a posse and get on the murderer's trail with all dispatch. They expect that Smith will be driven by hunger soon to commit robbery, and when such an occurrence is reported deputies will be rushed to the scene.

Has Friends in Salem.
 It is believed that Smith has friends in Salem, and that if he once reaches that vicinity he will be in comparative safety, as he can be kept in hiding until the excitement blows over.

Smith must experience much more difficulty in taking care of himself in the open than did Harry Tracy, because the weather is now damp and disagreeable, while it was early in the summer when Tracy escaped. Tracy found berries and vegetables in every garden, while Smith must steal from houses or stores every bite of food he obtains.

Sheriff Culver, Deputy Minto and D. W. Gibson did not locate Smith, the murderer, at Gervais yesterday afternoon. The suspect proved to be a recent arrival from San Francisco, and did not answer the description of the man wanted. The individual had been as far as Portland in search of work, but not finding it there he decided to return south with the expectation of finding employment in the hop fields. The man did not carry a gun, as first reported.

It is generally believed that Smith is traveling to the south. The local police are watching every train and taking precautions to not have the assassin escape, if once identified. Late last evening Sheriff Culver received word that Smith had been reported to have been seen near Mt. Angel. Mr. Culver left on the morning train for Mt. Angel, where he will be assisted in the man hunt by Sheriff Shaver, of Oregon City. Before going Sheriff Culver had several men stationed to keep a sharp lookout on the roads leading in and out of Mt. Angel, that the wanderings of the murderer might be traced to a finish. At Woodburn the city officials are going through every train, and making a thorough search for the murderer.

Rose to the Occasion.

An editor who went on a vacation left a minister in charge of his paper. A day or two later a letter came from a subscriber which read: "You know I don't well I paid for my subscription the last time I was in your town, and if I get any more letters from you I'll come down and maul it out of you." The preacher answered: "I have been trying to maul that thing out of the editor for years, and if you really come down and maul it out of him, then, my dear sir, I have 20 members of my church you can operate on."

Woman Who Crossed Africa.

London, April 27.—Miss Mary Hall, who has just arrived here, is the only woman who has ever made the complete journey from one end of Africa to the other. She started at Chinde, on the coast of Portuguese East Africa in June of last year and reached Cairo about six weeks ago. She had previously journeyed from the cape to Victoria Falls. During the whole of the nine months' journey she had a guard of only 30 negroes.

For weeks at a time she saw no white men, and had to subsist on jam, rice, cornflour, porridge and cocoa. She crossed districts where no white woman and only two white men had ever travelled. She was carried in hammocks by reliefs of four and for several weeks travelled up rivers in rowboats, camping out on the banks at night.

Often on pitching camp she heard lions and hippopotami all around her and she made her guards build fires all around her tent. Only once, when near the borders of German West Africa, did she have trouble with the natives, and that only on account of the high-handed action of two German soldiers, who had been detailed as her escort.

Treat for the Firemen.

The firemen enjoyed a splendid treat given them by Sherman W. Thompson at one of the local restaurants last evening. The affair was in recognition of the splendid work done by the fire department at the recent Meador fire on Court street, which might have proved exceedingly dangerous to the neighborhood.

It has caused more laughs and dried more tears, wiped away diseases and driven away more fears than any other medicine in the world. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents, tea or tablets. Dr. Stone's drug store.

Cut His Thumb.

M. P. Dennis, of East State street, while engaged in the laudable but strenuous and excusable job of chopping wood yesterday, cut a gash in his thumb that required mending with a needle and thread, and doctors, when they act, or tailors, come high.

Filed His Bond.

Postmaster-elect Squire Farrar has sent his bond to Washington, D. C., for approval. He has appointed his nephew, John H. Farrar, who has been in the postal service for some years, as deputy.

Marriage Licenses.

Frank A. Zimmerman and Amelia Sitter, both of Sublimity, and Chester J. Daniel and Lizzie Timm, both of Salem, were granted licenses to wed yesterday.

Bill Nye's Idea.

Bill Nye says: "A man may use the wart on the back of his neck for a collar button; ride on the back coach of a train to save interest on his money until the conductor comes around; stop his watch at night to save wear; leave his 'i' or 't' without a dot or cross to save ink; pasture his mother's grave to save corn; but a man of this kind is a gentleman and a scholar compared to a man who will take a newspaper and when asked to pay for it, puts it back in the postoffice and has it marked 'refused.'"

Supt. Geo. W. Jones wouldn't make a bad chairman to manage the coming congressional campaign.

Never were the crop prospects so good in Oregon—for farmers and politicians alike.

A Pleasant Way to Travel.

The above is the usual verdict of the traveler using the Missouri Pacific railway between the Pacific coast and the east, and we believe that the service and accommodations given merit this statement. From Denver, Colorado Springs and Denver there are two through trains daily to Kansas City and St. Louis, carrying Pullman's latest standard electric-lighted sleeping cars, chair cars and up-to-date dining cars. The same excellent service is operated from Kansas City and St. Louis to Memphis, Little Rock and Hot Springs. If you are going east or south, write for particulars and full information.

Fishermen Come Home

Paul Hauser, one of Salem's expert fishermen, returned late several days with a fishing party, though it was cold and unseasonable for the fishermen, it was much more for the fish, as hundreds of the beauties were captured. The largest caught was a salmon trout 18 inches length.

If health is wealth and money, for so the proverb runs, a fortune you may plainly see. In taking Rocky Mountain Tea—Dr. Stone's drug store.

Baseball Today.

This afternoon the Chemawa team will cross bats with the Willamette University nine on the diamond at the Indian school. Dame rumor has it that the Chemawas are going to do things to their friends of the "Old Methodist U." The Willamettes are also confident of victory, and a great contest is thus expected when the players meet. A goodly number from this city have signified their intention to witness the game.
