

Hungry Hair

Perhaps your mother has thin hair! But that is no reason why you must go through life with half-starved hair. If you want long, thick, heavy hair, you must feed it. Feed it with a regular hair-food—Ayer's Hair Vigor. Watched hair stops falling out, keeps soft and smooth, and grows long and heavy. Feed your starving hair with Ayer's Hair Vigor!

"THE FREE LANCE" A BIG HIT.

Klaw & Erlanger's New Sousa Opera Company Makes Sensation.

Klaw & Erlanger's Sousa Opera company, headed by the clever comedian, Joseph Cawthorn, presented the new military comic opera, "The Free Lance," by John Philip Sousa and Harry B. Smith at the New Amsterdam theater, New York, last Monday evening and created a sensation, scoring the most pronounced and emphatic hit made in New York in many years by a production of this character. The following are opinions expressed by the metropolitan critics:

Telegraph: "The Free Lance" a distinct success last night at the New Amsterdam.

World: "The Free Lance" is an amusing opera well mounted and carefully rehearsed.

Daily News: There were stirring marches and pretty melodies, as few can write like the "March King."

Herald: "The Free Lance" is real comic opera, tuneful and humorous, without the slapstick methods too familiar to Broadway.

Times: The lines of "The Free Lance" are full of chuckles, the costumes are pretty, the music has the characteristic Sousa touch and go—and something more.

Evening Telegram: The story is more closely knit than has been the fashion of late years in stage concoctions of this sort. It is prettily sung and well acted.

Evening Globe: The lines are really funny. Harry B. Smith has not written so good a book in years, is ever, and the foolery of Cawthorn will make many merry for many moons to come.

Sun: The house was crowded and the audience, which was most friendly, was enthusiastic in its reception of the players, recalling many of them several times and insisting upon a speech by the composer himself.

Commercial: There was more in the piece than the triumvirate of comic opera virtues. The first act is one of the nearest approaches to real opera we have had this season, and the second is full of genuine fun.

Evening Mail: "The Free Lance" wins at the New Amsterdam theater. "On to Victory" is not the only effective number Sousa has introduced in this work. He displays a versatility in composition not noticed in any of his previous outputs.

Tribune: "The Free Lance" meets warm reception at the New Amsterdam theater. With a vim that almost brought the applauding audience to its feet, orchestra and singers, under the leadership of John Philip Sousa, who led both, at the close of the first act at the New Amsterdam theater last night, played and sang his new march, "On to Victory." It was the feature of the initial performance.

Press: Merry and melodious is the new Sousa opera, "The Free Lance," which made a sure-fire hit. There was no mistaking the proportions of that success, for a more enthusiastic audience than that which filled the "House Beautiful" to the limit of its generous capacity seldom has been seen in this or any other city. Never since he became a contributor to stage entertainment has America's "March King" made a more thoroughly worthy offering from a musical viewpoint than "The Free Lance," the melodious measures of which frequently reminded one of the delicious nature of some of Offenbach's strains. The company, which contains the best aggregation of singing talent heard outside of a grand opera organization in years, is particularly noteworthy for its high class chorus work.

The success which the new opera met with led Klaw & Erlanger to immediately establish the Sousa Opera company as a permanent institution and each Easter Monday, at the New Amsterdam theater, a new comic opera by Mr. Sousa and Mr. Smith will be presented. This is to be made the feature of the spring season in New York hereafter.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dread disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure new known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its own work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

A Plague Follows Disaster.

A new plague of book agents is at hand. The Ledger's advertising columns contained the announcements of seven Chicago publishing houses calling for agents to sell the only full, complete and official history of "The Awful Destruction of San Francisco," or words to that effect. And the books will sell—better no doubt than such hasty complications deserve. Human nature delights in sensations, and the more lurid word painting can be put into a story of a great disaster, the more buyers it will find. Unfortunately for the cause of truth, "paper will not refuse to receive ink."—Tacoma Ledger.

A Billion of Nickies.

More than one billion passengers were carried on the surface, elevated and subway roads of Greater New York last year. The exact number of paid fares was 1,171,151,698, an increase of 93,493,451. Of these fewer than a quart were transferred. The increase in transfers fell far below the increase in paid fares, which is somewhat accounted for by the increased evasion of the free transfer law by the transportation companies. On the basis of total car mileage there were six passengers paying a 5 cent fare for every mile that a car traveled. Increase in car mileage about kept pace with the increase in passengers, showing that the cars are now crowded to the limit of traffic.—New York World.

WOMEN'S WOES.

Salem Women Are Finding Relief at Last.

It does seem that women have more than a fair share of the aches and pains that afflict humanity; they must "keep up," must attend to duties in spite of constantly aching backs, or headaches, dizzy spells, bearing down pains; they must stoop over, when to stoop means torture. They must walk and bend and work with racking pains and many aches from kidney ills. Kidneys cause more suffering than any other organ of the body. Keep the kidneys well and health is easily maintained. Read of a remedy for kidneys only that helps and cures the kidneys and is endorsed by people you know.

Mrs. Mary Bumgardner, of 424 Water street, Salem, Oregon, says: "I have found Doan's Kidney Pills a remedy that is worthy of all confidence and am pleased to endorse them so that other sufferers from kidney complaint may know how to get relief. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Dr. Stone's drug stores and several members of our family have used them with the most gratifying results. I took them myself for a tired aching back and a dragging down feeling that comes from irregular and deranged kidneys. The results were of the best. The aching and soreness was banished and the kidneys were rendered normal. My health became better in every way."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Walter Lyon's paper has this "hop houses philosophy."

A man may laugh and still be a villain, but he generally isn't.

There is consolation in the thought that a bad egg never makes a bad chicken.

Most of us believe charity begins at home; that is why we are so lenient with ourselves.

Don't complain of the burdens you bear; but carry them so there will be less friction.

Most men fear not so much what God will think of them, as what men will think of them.

Life insurance is a good thing—for the director; the next step will be to make it a good thing for the policy holder as well.

There are two certain ways to gain recognition from fame while you are alive. The first is to possess ability, with enough wealth to purchase recognition. The second way is to possess wealth plus cheek to appropriate other people's ability. In either case, the fame is not warranted to last after death.

Was He Served?

John D. Rockefeller, the oil trust magnate who has been dodging process servers since December, 1905, has returned to his old time haunts. New York newspapers say: "Mr. Rockefeller was beaming with good humor when he arrived. He met newspaper men and photographers with a laugh, actually posed for his picture, slapped a reporter on the back and told him that John D. Rockefeller had never been nervous in his life. Mr. Rockefeller celebrated his return by sending a check for $100 to a farmer living near the Rockefeller estate, who lost a horse and cow and several tons of hay by fire."

The temptation that came to the Christ was to take the lower for the higher good, the immediate for the final victory; the material for the spiritual conquest. In that temptation all men share. The spirit of evil has no lure more tempting because none more blinding than this. Among the charms and potencies of evil there is none more deadly than that which was offered to the Christ. The chasm that lies between the lower and the higher kinds of power is so deep that in the ultimate vision they stand for principles in deadly conflict. To crave the higher and accept the lower is not only to take evil for good, but to awaken at the end in the bitter humiliation which not only acknowledges defeat but knows that it has been duped, blinded and cheated, and that the gold which shone afar is but a dust heap when the end is reached.—The Outlook.

We shall make but few mistakes if while we are working hard we trust perfectly, contending against evil and courageously letting in light everywhere, into our own souls and upon our own actions, and everywhere else we can, without hesitation, believing that light will only reveal deformity and at the same time justify conformity; and then, after we have done our part, not to become restless and nervous or anxious about the part of our heavenly father. — Pacific Christian Advocate.
