THEATER COMPANY

They Captured the Audience
Last Night, and if You Go
You Will Stay the Week

The opening play at the Grand Opera House last evening by the Lyceum Theatre Company was "Wife for Wife," and the large number of Salem people present saw something that was "good." Miss Jane Kelton, as leading lady, took the part of "Edith Walton," and was a favorite throughout the evening. Her superb form and stage presence, together with her realistic acting, was thoroughly appreciated. She is supported by an excellent cast. H. B. Carpenter, as Edith's wife, was good. Arthur H. Ashby and Lawrence Williams, as "Richard Singleton, and "George," the mulatto, were the villains, and were excellent. The comedy role was furnished by Zillah Covington and with his "greatest play that was ever written," and his attempts at reading it, made a great deal of merriment. Miss Rose Wilbur, as "Grace Courtwright," Barney's sweetheart, was also good. Daniel Gilfeather, as "Dr. Vernon," the Frenchman, was good, as was also Miss May Fleming, as "Aunt Euphemia," whose vain attempts to win the doctor caused much amusement.

During the four acts several specialties were introduced, which were well—entertaining. Miss May Fleming sang "My Yankee Irish Girl" and "Making Eyes" in a charming way, and made quite a hit. The three Kelsey Sisters also pleased their audience with their act, which was new and light-footed as spring. They are graceful and sing delightfully.

The company will be here all this week, and it is safe to say they will play to full houses, as everyone will go again and bring their friends.

SHARPLES' TUBULAR
CREAM SEPARATOR
$20 CUT IN PRICE

Now is the proper time to buy a separator to get the best use of it.

Many of the farmers who have been debating the question for several years have usually reached a conclusion, and bought a Sharpless.

The new prices are doing the work. Drop in and note the advantages of the low supply can that requires no ladder or box to reach.

The long, smooth bowl that keeps the milk in it rotating at a high speed long enough so that there are no complicated parts needed inside, and the washing trouble is thus eliminated.

The enclosed gears are running in oil, and this is far better than the oil cup that is required on other machines, that the operator often forgets to turn on or off.

If you can't come send for catalogue and other matter.

A PROMINENT EDUCATOR

Declares Vinol is the Best Cod Liver Oil Preparation.

There has been a good deal of discussion in Salem regarding the merits of cod liver oil preparations, and as to whether or not cod liver oil and emulsions that upset the stomach have any medicinal virtue; therefore, the following letter from M. A. Casady, superintendent of schools, Lexington, Ky., will be read with interest:

"I am pleased to state that after having used and tested the different cod liver oil preparations on the market, I find Vinol to be far superior to them all. It is palatable and pleasant to the taste, in fact, the oily, fishy taste of cod liver oil is done away with entirely, and the curative and strengthening properties of Vinol are truly remarkable.

Vinol built up my system, strengthened my nerves and made a new man of me, and I heartily endorse it as the most efficacious and agreeable cod liver oil preparation on the market."

Our local druggists, G. W. Putnam Co., when asked their opinion in regard to Vinol, replied, "We firmly believe Vinol to be the best preparation of cod liver, therefore, the greatest strength creator and health restorer known to medicine today. We have never sold anything in our store equal to Vinol to build up the system, strengthen the nerves, cure indigestion, chronic coughs, colds, bronchitis and incipient consumption, or to make growing children robust and give strength and vigor to the aged, and to make the weak strong and the sick well."

It is for this reason that we offer to give back the money in every case where it fails. G. W. Putnam Co.
