By heaven, it is a shameful thing
That, in this age of deepening night,
There live so few whose souls dare cling
Forever to the right!

ENTERPRISE OF COOS BAY.
The great development convention on Coos Bay May 23-24 is a fine tribute to the enterprise of the people of that section.

The Salem Commercial Club has appointed ten of the prominent business men of this city to go as delegates to that convention.

It is to be a Farmers' and Shippers' Congress, Development Convention and Coos County Farmers' Institute combined in one.

Portland commercial bodies and all the counties of Western Oregon will send delegates, and the newspapers of the whole state are giving Coos Bay prominence.

Five thousand beautiful veneered polished wood invitations have been sent out to the commercial clubs and mayors and newspaper men all over the state, and as far east as Boston.

Such people cannot be kept down. They are the most enterprising people between Seattle and San Francisco, and, with the railroads crossing the state to meet them, have a great future.

The Development Convention May 23-24 will be attended by many of the most prominent public men of the state and hundreds of delegates.

DON'T WANT PEOPLE TO VOTE.

About everything is done in Oregon to keep people from voting.

It costs about five dollars to get out naturalization papers.

The registration law is troublesome and expensive.

The election day comes at a busy time when the fewest will vote.

If a few more such laws were enacted no one but the ministers, editors, lawyers and bosses would go to the polls.

A STORY WITH A MORAL.

There is a Bible story about the nobleman, who, on leaving his possessions for an extended trip, delivered into the hands of his ten servants ten talents, evenly distributed, instructing them to use the amount to the best advantage in trading, and how, on his return, he found one man had increased his talents to ten, another to five, etc., but one had, through fear, wrapped his talent in a handkerchief and allowed it to remain idle. You remember, too, how the successful

That Tired Feeling

That comes to you every spring is a sign that your blood is wanting in vitality, just as pimples and other eruptions are signs that your blood is impure.

One of the great facts of experience and observation is that Hood's Sarsaparilla always removes That Tired Feeling, gives new life, new courage, strength and animation; cleanses the blood, clears the complexion, builds up the whole system.

This is one of the reasons why Hood's Sarsaparilla is the Best Spring Medicine. Accept no substitute for

Thin Blood

Experience count anything with you? Then what do you think of 60 years' experience with Ayer's Sarsaparilla? Sixty years of curing thin blood, weak nerves, general debility! We wish you would ask your own doctor about this. Ask him to tell you honestly what he thinks it will do for your case. We have no secrets! We publish the formulas of all our medicines. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

servants were awarded and the unsuccessful one disgraced. This little story is just as true today as it was then. Look about you. There are successful people on every side. They have made money while others have not, and they have made it by working for and earning dollars, and then by putting their dollars to work. You are cheating yourself and yours by not putting your earnings to work. Money saving is O. K., but the man who only saves is at best a plodder. Do you belong to the army of handkerchief wrappers? Think it over.—News, Apache, O. T.

THE CAMPAIGN OPENED.

(Daily Astorian.)
The address of Dr. Jas. Withycombe, Republican candidate for the governorship of Oregon, at Corvallis on Tuesday night, was a strong and patent expression of Republican principles and purposes, and challenges the earnest consideration of every citizen, without regard to political affiliation, in the state. The real merit of the plea made by Dr. Withycombe is that it emanates from a man absolutely true to the first, last and least conclusion he offered. He will be the first to urge the enforcement of every declaration he has made in the interest of good and healthful government, and this assurance is of inestimable value to the party. There is nothing cheap in James Withycombe in any sense, and especially in the moment of his highest and best aspiration. He will make an ideal governor and he will be elected. His one invocation to the party spirit, in his demand that "Republicans shall vote the Republican ticket," is a cardinal precept of the great speech and will meet with an answer that will put the Republican majority in Oregon beyond all chance of diminution in the future. He offers a clean and wholesome program to the men of his party and to every honest citizen in the commonwealth; one in which the pride of party, of state, of society, and industrial success are all hermetically interwoven with the honor of Oregon; and the man who fails to respond to this summons for the exercise of the highest and most compensatory expression of his citizenship, is indeed, past all appeal and immune from the effects that are acceptable and grateful to the universal run of mankind. But do not forget that James Withycombe will be elected governor of Oregon and by Republican votes at that.

STRIKING HORSE STATISTICS

(Albany Herald.)
The horse is always about to be, but never is, put out of business. On the appearance of every new agency of transportation the announcement is solemnly made that the horse, after passing through an era of decreasing prices, will cease and determine. It was so when railroads began to gain headway; when bicycles came into use, when the electric cars commenced to buzz along the highways, when the auto developed into something more than a curiosity, and yet here the horse is still with us, and more valuable than ever. Statistics submitted to the house of representatives in connection with the agricultural appropriation bill show that there has been a notable increase both in number and value of horses in the United States in the last nine years. The aggregate of horses January 1, 1906, stood at 18,718,578, against 14,364,667 at the corresponding date of 1897. Their total value increased from $452,049,396 in 1897 to $1,510,888,906.

The startling rate of increase in value is no more marked than that of mules, according to the same government authorities. There were 2,215,654 mules in 1897 and 3,404,061 in 1906, and the values were respectively $92,302,000 and $334,680,520. If these figures are trustworthy there must have been some improvement in quality as well as noteworthy increase in numbers in the nine years to account for all the difference. Accuracy in numbers is more easily attainable than accuracy in valuation. An enumeration is not a difficult task, whether it deals with human beings or valuable animals, but the ascertainment of individual wealth, or the valuation of property is a process fraught with difficulties.

Hope They Will Settle It.
Next Friday evening the Websterian and Philodorian societies of the University meet in joint debate. The ship subsidy question will be discussed. Considerable rivalry has already been worked up between the two organizations and a lively meeting is expected.

DELEGATES FOR COOS COUNTY

Commercial Club Appoints Committee on Railroad Building

With President Frank Derby in the chair and Secretary Turner as recording angel, the Salem Commercial Club held a spirited meeting Friday evening at the city council room, and transacted the following business:

On motion of E. Hofer the club endorsed the candidacy of Dr. J. T. McCormac, of Marshfield, for the presidency of the Oregon Development League, to succeed Hon. E. L. Smith, resigned.

The chair on motion appointed T. C. Smith, Jr., J. A. Simpson, T. B. Kay G. Stolz and Secretary F. A. Turner delegates to the state development league to be held in Portland during the "Made in Oregon" carnival.

The chair also appointed the following delegates to attend the meeting of the Farmers' and Shippers' Congress at North Bend, Coos county, on May 23-24: E. Hofer, Judge J. H. Scott, Col. L. K. Page, R. J. Hendricks, M. McDonald, J. L. Stockton, M. L. Jones, J. P. Rogers, President F. N. Derby and C. B. Moores.

On motion President Derby appointed J. M. Lawrence, Walter T. Stolz, D. A. Dinsmoor, W. H. Daney and Frank W. Durbin a committee to confer with a similar committee of the Business Men's League in regard to the celebration of the Fourth of July this year, and Mr. Lawrence was appointed to report this action to the league, which was in session.

Later, the league appointed its committee, consisting of Edward C. Dick, J. M. Lawrence, Zadoc J. Riggs, E. T. Barnes and D. H. James, and those gentlemen will seek to ascertain the feeling of the community on the subject.

On motion of R. J. Hendricks the president was authorized to appoint a committee of five on securing railroad extensions from Salem, and the committee will be announced later.

The Commercial Club endorsed the work of the committee who are raising funds for the government mile of good road to be built on the Silverton road from the fair grounds east. The committee is composed of H. G. Fletcher, Geo. O. Savage and John Jefferson who are raising $400 to pay for hauling the crushed rock from the pit south of the city to the fair grounds. They have raised about $300, and are deservingly of generous support in their undertaking.

Judge Scott made an argument for the support of the enterprise, and stated that he was arranging to put up a rock bunker that would hold a thousand cubic yards at the fair grounds, and was asking a rate from the Southern Pacific that would result in distributing broken rock to all points on the railroad. The farmers are then to distribute the same.

Judge Scott said he was endeavoring, with a good show of success, to secure from the Southern Pacific Company a rate of 25 cents per yard for carrying crushed rock from the bunkers to any station in Marion county. This rate, with the cheap cost of crushing the rock, which the county is able to accomplish at 50 cents a yard, and with the 25 cents for transferring it to the bunkers would lay it down at $1 a yard, and the farmers of any neighborhood could easily haul it three or four miles in any direction, which would make the building of good rock roads possible in all parts of the county.

The first meeting of the Commercial Club under its new officers was a very successful one.

Wool Held for Sales Days.

Although the wool hauling has but fairly commenced, over 300,000 pounds have already been brought to the furnish warehouse, and more is arriving daily. While some growers now have their entire clips in the warehouse, many are not yet through, while others have not commenced hauling.

The following is a list of the wool now in the warehouse: Robert Stanfield, 130 sacks; Cunningham Sheep & Land Company, 68 sacks; Charles Johnson, 68 sacks; Mollahan & Bryan, 57 sacks; Pat Doherty, 82 sacks; Pedro Bros., 139 sacks; Rugg Bros., 85 sacks; Charles McBee, 35 sacks; Joe Connelly, 50 sacks; A. Perard, 42 sacks; Dave Johnson, 75 sacks; Donald Ross, 61 sacks. Aside from these several others have small amounts now on hand.

Waiting for Sales Days.

According to Foreman Sutherland all of the wool now on hand is being held for the sales days, the first of which will be held on May 22d. Practically none of the growers have sold thus far, and from indications there will be little doing until the sales days arrive.

Mr. Sutherland states that the baling of wool will not commence until about June 1st, when most of the wool will have been sold.

Last year the warehouse handled a total of 4,500,000 pounds of wool. But of this amount considerable was shipped here for baling, and was from points outside of Umatilla county.—East Oregonian.
