FIRE SWEEPS MORMON CITY

OGDEN UTAH HAS DISASTROUS CONFLAGRATION

Fifteen Business Houses Destroyed With a Loss of More Than $300,000-Salt Lake Fire Department to the Rescue

Ogden, May 22.—At 1:15 this morning a fire broke out in the warehouse of the Burton Implement Co. building, between 23d and 24th streets and Washington and Adams avenues. For a time it looked as if the entire business section would be swept away. The Burton Company, George A. Lowe Hardware Company, H. L. White's store and adjoining store and 14 other business houses were destroyed, including the Elite Cleaning Co., Burrop Grocery Company and the Summerall Store Co. The loss is about half a million. The high wind prevented the small fire department combating the flames successfully, and the water supply was inadequate. Two or three people were slightly injured by flying bullets from stored cartridges in Lowe's hardware store. The wind changed during the fire, saving the First National Bank and other large buildings, and indeed saving the business district.

Ogden, Utah, May 22.—The city is burning, and a dozen business houses have already been destroyed. The fire broke out early this morning in the Burton Implement Company building on Washington avenue. Everything is gone to 23d street, half a block north, and the fire is still raging, and is within 100 feet of 24th street. The First National Bank appears doomed. The hardware store of George A. Lowe, adjoining the Burton Company, is gutted. Thousands of cartridges exploding are endangering the firemen. A. M. Emmett, a fireman, was caught under a falling wall and badly hurt. The Salt Lake fire department has been sent for. The loss will be the greatest in the city's history, and may reach half a million.

The fire was subdued after it had destroyed 14 business places, mostly small, with the exception of the Lowe and Burton concerns. The loss is about $300,000, of which Lowe's loss is $175,000. Several horses were burned.

Wm. Aaber a prominent young business man of Cheyenne, Wyo., while watching the fire last night, went suddenly violently insane.

ORDER OUT OF CHAOS

San Francisco Is Emerging From its Troubles and Getting Down to Business

San Francisco, May 22.—The action of the board of supervisors, granting the United railroads the privilege of using overhead trolleys on all its lines, on the representation of the cable company that the cable lines can't be rehabilitated, meets with general approval, since it means the speedy restoration of transportation facilities. The company agreed to spend a large sum and employ thousands of men in improving its system.

Many San Francisco merchants who established themselves across the bay are now making haste to secure quarters in the city, realizing that they must get on the ground or lose their San Francisco business. Owing to the fact that liquor is reaching the city from Oakland, together with many drunks, the finance committee offers to contribute $50,000 to the Oakland relief fund, providing the city council closes the saloons there for 30 days.

When the commercial banks open their doors at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning several savings institutions will also resume business, instead of waiting until May 28th, the official date fixed by the savings bank association. These banks carry commercial accounts, and feel it will be unfair to pay commercial depositors, and refuse to pay savings depositors.

TO MAKE FOREST RESERVES

Oregon Is Getting Pretty well Tied up as to its Public Lands

Washington, May 21.—Senator Fulton was today notified that the forest service contemplates recommending the creation of two new forest reserves in Southern Oregon, at an early day, to be known as the Fremont and Goose Lake reserves. They will embrace land withdrawn several years ago under the name of the Warner Mountain withdrawal. The aggregate area, according to the present plans, will be nearly 3,000,000 acres, about two-thirds of the area being in the Fremont reserve. This reserve will lie in the northern part of Klamath and Lake counties and the southwest corner of Crook county. The Goose Lake reserve will embrace the southeast portion of Klamath and the southwest part of Lake counties.

Plans showing the outline of the proposed reserves have been submitted to Mr. Fulton, with a request that he make any suggestions which he may deem proper. The senator will consult residents of Klamath, Lake and Crook counties, and promptly lay their views before the department. If good reasons are produced showing why any land included within the proposed reserves should not be reserved it is probable that such land will be eliminated.

The irregularity of the outline of these two reserves, following in many instances quarter section lines, indicates the care which has been exercised to include only such land as is believed to be adapted to forestry purposes. Large areas of agricultural land have been eliminated, and it is the opinion of the department that what remains is chiefly important for its timber, or because it serves to protect the water supply of Southern Oregon. The construction of the Klamath irrigation project makes it highly important that the water supply of that region should be protected. The reserve is to be created at this time partially on that account.

EXPLOSION IN GLUCOSE FACTORY

Building Is Wrecked and Many Employees Are Killed or Hurt

Shadyside, N. J., May 22.—An explosion, followed by fire, at the New York Glucose Company's plant, this morning caught the employees in the ruins. It is reported that many were killed or injured.

The explosion wrecked the four-story building. Michael Russell is dead, crushed by the walls, five men are missing and 40 injured, some seriously. The explosion lifted the roof, blew down a side wall, and the three upper floors collapsed. Fire prevents a search of the buildings. There were about 75 persons in the building when the accident occurred. The warships sent blue-jackets to aid in the rescue of the burned.

Carnegie Must Answer

(Four O'clock Edition.)
Boston, May 22.—Andrew Carnegie will have to tell under oath whether or not the representations made by Mrs. Cassie Chadwick to the effect that she held a note of his for $500,000, and that he had $5,000,000 in trust for her under agreement were true or false. An interrogatory in which many questions are propounded to Mr. Carnegie as to his financial relations with Mrs. Chadwick has been granted today by Judge Colt, of the United States circuit court, upon application of Herbert D. Newton, of Brooklyn.

Mr. Newton gave Mrs. Chadwick a note for $10,000 upon her representation that Mr. Carnegie held a note in trust for her of $5,000,000. This note is now in the possession of the receiver of the Citizens National Bank of Oberlin, O., and the receiver has brought suit against Mr. Newton for the amount of it.

Mr. Carnegie and his family sailed on Friday for Europe for the summer, and Mr. Carnegie will not have a chance to answer the questions until he returns.

Guards finally overpowered Myers, and put him in a straightjacket.

BRUTAL PRINEVILLE MURDER

Old Man's Spinal Column Broken at Hauls of Bartender.

Bend, Or., May 22.—William Pugh, 69 years of age, died at Prineville last Tuesday of injuries inflicted by John P. Dell last Friday. About 2 o'clock last Friday, Pugh, who had been drinking, entered the Opera saloon, and, stepping behind the bar, asked for a cigar. Dell threw him jodily out of the door. Pugh fell on his back. Dell followed him, caught him by the legs and dashed his head and shoulders on the sidewalk several times, finally ponding his body so far that Pugh's head was thrust against his chest.

At an autopsy it was shown that the spinal column had been wrecked apart between the sixth and seventh vertebrae, so that the spinal cord was plainly visible. The verdict of the coroner's jury was that Pugh had met his death at the hands of John T. Dell, and recommended that Dell be bound over to the grand jury without bail.
