SUPREME COURT DECISIONS

Russel Catlin and J. E. Linn, doing business under the name of Catlin & Company, vs. S. W. Jones, an appeal from Marion county. Geo. H. Burnett, judge. In an opinion by Judge Bean the lower court is reversed, and a new trial ordered. This was an action to recover damages for the breach of a hop contract. Jones agreed to sell and deliver to Catlin & Linn 15,000 pounds of hops for 14 1/2 cents per pound, but on the day of delivery, the hops being worth 30 cents per pound, he failed to deliver. Plaintiffs brought this action to recover damages. They failed to recover in the lower court, but the supreme court holds that the lower court erred in not instructing the jury that the defendant violated the contract in not being at the place of delivery at the appointed time for delivery, either in person or by agent.

George Summers, appellant vs. T. T. Geer, L. B. Geer and W. H. Odell, respondents, on motion to dismiss appeal, appeal from Marion county. Hon. Geo. H. Burnett, judge. Motion denied in an opinion per curiam.

H. H. W. Jackson vs. C. W. Baker, appeal from Josephine county; H. K. Hanna, judge, reversed, and the complaint ordered dismissed in opinion by Chief Justice Moore.

Henry Jennings & Sons vs. Ernest Miller, appeal from Multnomah county; Hon. Alfred P. Sears, judge. Affirmed in an opinion by Chief Justice Bean.

T. A. Livesley and John Roberts, of the firm of T. A. Livesley & Co., vs. A. Heise, Rachel E. Heise and W. C. Heise, appeal from Polk county; William Galloway, judge. Judgment of lower court is modified by Judge Moore. This is a suit brought by T. A. Livesley & Co. to compel the specific performance of a contract and enjoin the disposal of certain hops, but, the hops having been sold, while an appeal was pending, a supplemental complaint was filed for the recovery of damages for the breach of contract. The court held that W. C. Heise be held in for $325.61, instead of $2764.80, the difference arising from the fact that hops were worth 24 cents at the time of the sale, instead of 22 cents.

Leonard Kabat vs. Maurice Moore, appeal from Douglas county; Hon. Wm. Galloway, judge. Affirmed by opinion by Judge Bean.

Aimee Austin vs. Oscar Vanderbilt, appeal from Multnomah county; M. C. George, judge. Affirmed by Justice Moore.

Some Divorce Proceedings.

Judge Galloway passed on the following cases yesterday:

Minnie Ryan vs. Charles Ryan, a divorce case, decree granted. The custody of the two minor children is given to the mother, and plaintiff also secured judgment for $400, to be used for her support and that of the children.

Christie Traglio was granted a divorce from Arthur J. Traglio, and was given the custody of the 1-year-old child of the marriage.

A divorce was also granted to Luis Kibele from Cora M. Kibele, in which the defendant was charged with desertion.

Another Feature of the Racycle

Is in having bi-plane or flanged sprockets, instead of leaving a flange or shoulder on each side of the teeth to carry the side plates of the chain. This flange or bi-plane prevents the chain from wedging between the teeth on the sprocket; it distributes the wear on the chain and instead of being all on the chain block, the side plate of the chain takes part of the wear, thus prolonging the life of the chain. A chain run on flanged or bi-plane sprockets will last three times as long as on the ordinary straight sprockets.

THE MOUNTAINS.

I saw the mountain stand
Silent, wonderful and grand,
Looking out across the land
When the golden light was falling
On distant dome and spire,
And I heard a low voice calling:
"Come up higher, come up higher,
From the lowlands and the mire,
From the mist of earth desire,
From the vain pursuit of self,
From the attitude of self;
Come up higher, come up higher—
Think not that we are cold,
Though eternal snows have crowned us;
Underneath our breasts of snow
Silver fountains sing and flow,
And restore the hungry lands."
