CHERRIES

The Festival Will Come Off Just the Same Regardless of Weather

A good deal of interest is being manifested in the "Cherry Festival" which has been planned to be held ere during the month of July under the auspices of the State Horticultural society. Professor Lake of the Oregon Agricultural college at Corvallis and secretary of the State Horticultural society will be present at this gathering. The various county fruit inspectors are also expected to take part in the deliberations of the meeting, which will be held in connection with the cherry exhibit, Manager McDonald of the Oregon Nursery states that an unusual interest is being man ifested in the meeting and that every indication points to an enthusiastic gathering and a splendid exhibit,

Many of the firms which are particularly interested in fruit growing have donated cups as premiums for the exhibit.

The list of prizes offered and the donors follow: First Prize for Ten Pound Box, Com-

Did You Know This?

"Say, d'you know anything 'bout hosses, hey? D'you know they'll eat pork? Well, they will, when it's fed 'em an' they have to. The heaves stops, subsequent, though they're an all-fired sigh wuss afterwards. Belle went right onto a meat diet, hog meat an' oil-cakes. Yep, linseed oil-it'll fat a rail fence. Belle took on weight amazin'. Cur'us thing 'bout oil-cakes, though; once a hoss has been fatted on 'em, an' then grows pickid agin, there ain't nothin' in God's world'll put flesh onto him a second time. You can try as much as you're a mind to; it ain't no use."-American Magazine.
