Ordinance No. —

For an ordinance to require all persons in the city of Salem, Oregon, to refrain from using water from the mains of the Salem Water Company for the purpose of irrigation during the continuance of fires.

It is ordained by the Common Council of the City of Salem, Oregon:

Section 1. It shall be unlawful for any person, in the City of Salem, Oregon, to use any water from the pipes or mains of the Salem Water Co., for the purpose of irrigation during the continuance of any fire to which the fire department of the City of Salem, Oregon, may be called by a general alarm, and immediately upon the sounding of such general alarm such irrigation shall cease until such time as such fire is extinguished.

Section 2. Any person violating the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before the City Recorder, shall be punished by a fine of $2.50 for the first offense and $5.00 for each subsequent offense.

Passed by the Council Friday, June 1, 1906.

HOLDING ANNUAL MEETING

Trustees and Alumni Association of Willamette University Held Meetings Yesterday

The annual meeting of the board of trustees of Willamette University adjourned last evening after a very interesting session. The Journal's short report yesterday with an intimation that Prof. Drew would be dropped from the faculty proved correct, Wm. E. Kirk, of Nebraska, being elected in his stead as professor of Greek and Latin.

Philip Buehner, of the Eastern & Western Lumber Company, of Portland, was elected president of the board; T. S. McDaniel, of the Western Trust and Investment Company, vice-president, and A. A. Lee, of this city, is the new secretary.

The election of the faculty was taken up, and resulted as follows: John Hamlin Coleman, D. D., was retained as president of the University.

College of Liberal Arts.

James Thomas Matthews, A. M., dean and professor of mathematics.

Willis C. Hawley, A. M., LL. B., professor of history, economics and constitutional law.

Mary Emma Reynolds, B. S., professor of pedagogy.

Wm. E. Kirk, professor of Latin and Greek.

William H. McCall, A. M., professor of modern languages.

Florence Kauffman, professor of English language and literature.

Sara Brown-Savage, O. M., professor of oratory and dramatic expression.

Charles Oliver Boyer, A. B., professor of physics and geology, and principal of the normal school.

William H. Mahaffie, Ph. D., professor of chemistry and biology.

Mrs. W. H. Mahaffie, matron of the young women's hall.

Day D. Fisher, librarian and instructor.

Roy Heater, physical director.

School of Art.

Marie Craig, principal.

College of Law.

J. W. Reynolds, A. M., LL. B., dean. Present faculty confirmed.

College of Medicine.

W. H. Byrd, M. D., dean. Present faculty confirmed.

College of Theology.

H. D. Kimball, of Spokane, dean.

Robert Washburn, professor of Greek, Hebrew and historical theology.

Trustees Elected by Board.

A. N. Bush, J. O. Goltra in place of Dr. J. Reynolds, and T. S. McDaniel in place of J. D. Lee.

A friend offered $7500 to pay the debts of the University, provided the trustees raise $3000 for the same purpose by September 10th. This offer was accepted. When this is raised the University will not owe a dollar.

The optional matriculation fee of $3 was made compulsory hereafter.

Alumni Association Meeting.

The business meeting of the Willamette University Alumni Association met yesterday afternoon, and chose the following officers for the ensuing year:

President I. H. Van Winkle, class of 1898; vice-presidents, Burgess Ford, class of 1905, Portland; Miss Lila V. Swafford, class of 1905, Salem; Miss Bertha Moores, class of 1877; Hubbard Bryant, class of 1872, Albany; secretary, Miss Sophia Townsend, class of 1903, Salem; treasurer, Miss Hetta Field, class of 1897, University Park.

The term of George B. Gray, '78, of Seattle, Wash., having expired as trustee, I. H. Van Winkle, '98, was elected to fill the office.

Mrs. C. B. Moores, Judge Hewitt and A. N. Moores were appointed as a committee to draw up a memorial for the late Wiley B. Allen, '76, of San Francisco.

The executive committee will consist of the new officers and of the former members of the board, not removed by the result of this year's election.

Alumni Association Banquet.

The annual banquet of the Willamette Alumni association was held at the M. E. church last evening and was a decided success. The "old grads" lived their college days over again and all testified of their loyalty to their alma mater. The room was prettily decorated and undergraduates waited on the tables, which were arranged in the form of a "U." The toastmaster was Hon. A. N. Moores and toasts were given as follows:

P. H. D'Arcy—"Conducting the campaign for Withycombe."

Hubbard Bryant—"Milk and Water."

T. T. Geer—"My early Willamette days."

Claud Gatch—"The boys of the sixties."

Miss May Boise—"The old bachelors of the Old Willamette."

Rev. McDougal—"The future of Willamette."

Dean J. T. Matthews—"Watch Willamette grow."

Prof. W. C. Hawley—"What I shall accomplish for Willamette in the 60th congress."

Mrs. Margaret Paget—"Sunday school endowment fund."

Judge Hewitt—"Courtship at Willamette in olden days."

Hon. Lloyd T. Reynolds—"The bills I shall introduce for Willamette in the next legislature."

Rev. G. W. Grannis of Pittsburg made the closing remarks.

Exercises in the Evening.

After the banquet the members of the alumni repaired to the college chapel to give their annual exercises. The hall was comfortably filled, and the following program was rendered:

Piano solo—Miss Evelene Calbreath. Invocation.

Introduction of class of 1906—Mrs. Lee Paget, Portland.

Philodorian quartet—Misses Winans, Parsons, Ketchum and Field.

Oration—Hon. W. C. Hawley, A. M., (class of '88).

Vocal solo—Miss Lota Fleury.

Poem—By Mr. Miller G. Royal, A. M., (Class of '75), read by Miss Sophia Townsend, A. B., (Class of '03).

Recitation—Miss Bertha Hewitt.

Philodorian quartet—Misses Winans, Parsons, Ketchum and Field.

Benediction—Rev. L. F. Belknap, Forest Grove.

Class Exercises This Morning.

The campus exercises of the class of 1906 of the University were held this morning under the maple trees near the north entrance to the main building. A goodly number of students and friends gathered to listen to the program.

Rev. W. C. Evans, of Hood River, gave the invocation, and, after introductory remarks by President Frank Grannis, the program was rendered thus:

Class song—Miss Randall, Miss Field, Mr. Grannis.

Class history—Miss Jones.

Oration—Ronald Glover.

At the close of the oration the audience joined the seniors in singing "All Hail Willamette."

Acute Rheumatism.

Deep tearing or wrenching pains, occasioned by getting wet through; worse when at rest, or on first moving the limbs and in cold or damp weather, is cured quickly by Ballard's Snow Liniment. Oscar Oleson, Gibson City, Ill., writes, Feb. 16, 1902:

"A year ago I was troubled with a pain in my back. It soon got so bad I could not bend over. One bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment cured me."

BOYS' CLUB ADJOURNS.

Will Reassemble in September—Camping Trip Begins Next Saturday.

The Y. M. C. A. Boys' Club adjourned last night until September 1st. The club has had a very prosperous season, and if the boys now enrolled continue their membership next fall, there will be 50 members to begin work at that time. About 25 members of the club start next Saturday for a ten days' camping trip, and are looking forward to a pleasant outing. Included in the program is an athletic field meet, when a wrestling and swimming tournament will be added to the usual events.

Have You a Cough?

A dose of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will relieve it. Have you a cold?

Try it for whooping cough, for asthma, consumption, for bronchitis. Mrs. Joe McGrath, 327 E. 1st street, Hutchinson, Kan., writes: "I have used Ballard's Horehound Syrup in my family for five years, and find it the most palatable medicine I ever used. For sale by D. J. Fry."

Seniors Graduate

The graduating exercises of the Salem high school take place tomorrow evening, and an interesting program will be rendered. The high school orchestra and quartet will render several selections, and the whole will be well worth hearing. The public is invited to attend. The program will begin promptly at 8:15.

Bill Nye's
Comic History of the United States
With 140 Illustrations by Fred Oppen

Bill Nye, the great American humorist, has written the story of our country in his own way. He treats fully and accurately on the progress of civilization in North America, from the discovery by Columbus to the last decade. All the main facts are respected, but Bill treats them in a humorous manner, with just enough satire to make it irresistibly funny, yet all in good taste. Every reader, old or young, can get a deal of fun out of this book while adding to his knowledge.

There is a solid education in this book, and it has the advantage of being sugar-coated with fun.

F. Oppen, the celebrated humorous artist, has added untold value to the work by 140 illustrations (one of which, much reduced in size, is reproduced here) that will cause many a hearty laugh.

350 pages of Rollicking Mirth, Roaring Laughs and Invigorating Amusement!

Printed on good paper, size 6 1/2 x 8 1/2 inches. Bound in Library Cloth, with attractive stamping and colors. Regular price, $2.00.
