FIGHTING TELEGRAPH COMPANIES

Admitted They Collected Money For Messages and Sent Them by Mail

San Francisco, June 15.—The grand jury has adopted the report of the subcommittee appointed to investigate the charge that the telegraph companies accepted money for messages and sent them by mail on the days immediately following the fire.

The inquiry was conducted more especially into the action of the Western Union, though the committee found the Al Company also violated the law. The report says in part:

It is estimated by your committee that at least $1,000,000 was collected from all parts of the United States and Europe by the telegraph companies for messages which were not transmitted by telegraph. And your committee has not been able to find that telegraph companies contributed toward the relief fund.

Your committee believes that the Western Union Telegraph Company received large sums of money by false representation, and would recommend the indictment of these officials but for the fact that the law which requires the collection of false obtaining of a sum of $50 to make a felony. We believe that the company committed the crime of fraud in maintaining a sign purporting to be doing telegraphic business, when, in reality, it was taking the money, and sending the messages by mail.

The report expresses the opinion that interstate commerce law was violated and advised that the evidence be sent to President Roosevelt, and laid before the federal grand jury.

FRENCH CABINET POLICY

Will Rigorously Enforce Law Separately Church and State

Paris, June 15.—The cabinet's declaration of policy was read in the senate and chamber of deputies today. It elaborates numerous social and economic reforms, including an income tax, workmen's pension and a reduction of the hours of labor, and says the government proposes to carry out the policy with firmness, but without reprisals, the law providing for the separation of church and state, and to introduce a general amnesty measure covering strikes and religious offenders.

Concerning the movement to be undertaken at The Hague peace conference to reduce the navies of the powers, the declaration of the cabinet says: "While continuing its entire confidence in the army and navy, France hopes that the nations will gradually recognize right as a basis for the solution of international differences, until universal opinion permits the nations to decrease the weight of their military expense."

Dreyfus Case Reopened.

GREELY FIRES MEDICOS

Sanitation Work in San Francisco Given Into Hands of City Physicians

San Francisco, Cal., June 15.—There are signs of trouble in this city, although the disturbance is not destined to attract much attention outside the army service. It all came about through the decision of General Greely, who is in command of the military situation there, to put the general sanitary work in charge of civilians instead of army officers. He has accordingly relieved from this important duty the army surgeon who established and who has been maintaining the sanitary regulations which have resulted, it is said by medical officers, in preserving the health of a community living under conditions which were at all times menacing and at any time likely to get beyond the control of the physicians.

The army surgeons worked hard in the establishment of field hospitals, free dispensaries and other aids to the public health; they feel that they should still have charge of the general sanitary situation in San Francisco. The fact that this responsibility has been transferred to civilian physicians has occasioned some little feeling among the army surgeons, especially as there has been no occasion for complaint, and, on the contrary, the work of the army medical corps in San Francisco from the day of the earthquake has elicited the warmest praise on every side. The heartiest commendation has come from San Francisco physicians, who appreciated the value of the gratuitous work of the army medical officers. Under the circumstances, General Greely's action is regarded by the army medical officers as unfortunate in that it may create the impression that the army medical department failed to do its full duty.

TEDDY FIGHTS HOUSE

Disapproves of the Wadsworth Amendment to the Meat Inspection Bill

(Four O'clock Edition.)
Washington, June 15.—A contest between the house and the President is likely. The President has sent a letter of disapproval of the Wadsworth amendment to the inspection bill. The President's friends tried to tell the President his disapproval was the result of misapprehensions. Even Cannon this morning called at the White House and told the executive he was in error. Following Cannon's visit the President issued another statement, reiterating his disapproval of the bill as the house committee now approves it. It is said the question as to who shall bear the cost of inspection is the least of the President's objections.

This May Be Teddy's Report.
Washington, June 15.—Bowie, of Alabama, submitted to the house today a minority report on the meat inspection bill, protesting against the proposed appropriation of $2,000,000 annually to pay for the inspection. The report denounces the court review provision as a "new departure in legislation, unjustified by a single fact." It also opposes the repeal of the civil service law in so far as inspectors of meat are concerned. It declares the provision to be unsound, dangerous and pernicious, and recommends that the Beveridge bill is "far better to accomplish the purpose, and more satisfactory" than the bill the committee favors.

WASHINGTON INSURANCE RATES
California Board Cannot Control, But
Local Agents Will Raise Them.
(Four O'clock Edition.)
Oakland, Cal., June 15.—The 80 insurance companies reported on the board of fire underwriters of the Pacific coast have taken action to recoup themselves from the San Francisco losses by raising rates approximately 25 per cent in California, Nevada, Oregon, Idaho, Montana, Utah and Arizona. The state of Washington is the only coast state outside of the jurisdiction of the board. Several years ago this state enacted a law known as the anti-compact law, prohibiting insurance companies from making to fix rates or in any way controlling insurance affairs. President Haven said today: "The law does not permit us to fix rates in Washington, but we are changing them just the same." This is clear evidence that the board members have received reports from its agents in Washington that they will enact the raised rates there, as in other states.

NO MORE EARTHQUAKES.
San Francisco Need Fear Nothing
From Further Violent Quakes.
(Four O'clock Edition.)

It simply proves the earth is gradually settling, and it may be scientifically regarded as an absolute proof that there will not be another violent quake.

MAY YOHE RILKS CARRY.
Fined $3 for Failing to Pay After Keeping a Hack Twelve Hours.
New York, June 15.—The Sun's London cable says: May Yohe, formerly Lady Hope, and later Mrs. Putnam Bradlee Strong, has been sued in the police court here for bilking a cabman. The plaintiff testified that he drove her around for twelve hours, and finally took her to a railway station, where she boarded a train without paying him. The cabman consequently was unable to pay for the day's hire of his cab and lost his place. He had been idle for a week. The defendant did not appear and she was fined $3.

FIGHTING RENEWED IN RUSSIA.
Outbreaks Occur in Many Provinces, and Serious Damages Resulted.
St. Petersburg, June 15.—Bryan attended the Douma, and had his picture taken with a number of deputies today. He goes to Stockholm tonight. The session of the Douma today was a lively one. Questions were addressed to the government in regard to the fighting at Bialystok.

Advices received today show that many outrages have been committed in other provinces. It is reported that the Smirnov mills and corn stores at Tula have been burning for three days. There is trouble at Sebastopol, and the Sebastopol express was six hours late. When it arrived it was attacked by 20,000 peasants. The passengers escaped injury.
