Samples can be seen at the Asylum, and goods must be in accordance therewith. Where samples are required and not furnished by bidders, the articles must be equal to samples to be seen at the Asylum, and bids will be assumed to have been made on basis of samples.

Lists STATIONERY, DRUGS, PLUMBING, HARDWARE, TINNING, LEATHER and FINDINGS, FURNITURE, MILL FEED and FLOUR, MEATS and FISH, SHOES, CROCKERY and GLASSWARE, will be furnished by the clerk upon application.

All goods must be in strict accordance with sample in original packages when possible, and delivered at the State Insane Asylum within twenty days after the contract is awarded, and bids must be on blank forms, which will be furnished, together with instructions to bidders, by the clerk upon application. Each bid on flour or meat must be accompanied by a certified check of $300.00, and each bid on fish by a certified check of $75.00, and all other bids by certified checks equal to 10 per cent of the amount bid; checks of unsuccessful bidders to be returned immediately, and those of accepted bidders when the contract is completed. Bids must be enclosed in sealed envelopes and directed to the board, care of the clerk, and plainly marked "Bids for Asylum Supplies," and the class of goods bid on should also be inscribed on the envelope. Prices, fitness and quality being equal, preference will be given to articles manufactured, grown or produced in this state. When a particular article is specifically called for, bids for other kind or manufacture or brand, equally good, will be entertained, but to insure recognition of such bids, samples of the articles it is proposed to supply must accompany them.

The board reserves the right to reject any or all bids, or to accept or reject any part of a bid. Bids will be opened at the Capitol at Salem, at 10 a. m., Tuesday, June 26, 1906.
By order of the Board of Trustees of the Oregon State Insane Asylum,
W. N. GATENS, Clerk.

Cure Old Sores.

Westmoreland, Kan., May 5, 1902: Ballard Snow Liniment Co., Your Snow Liniment cured an old sore on the side of my chin that was supposed to be a cancer. The sore was stubborn and would not yield to treatment, until I tried Snow Liniment, which did the work in short order. My sister, Mrs. Sophia J. Carson, Allensville, Mifflin County, Pa., has a sore and mistrusts that it is a cancer. Please send her a 50c bottle. For sale by D. J. Fry.

Cuddle Time.
(Los Angeles Express.)
As the evening shadows gather,
Then 'tis cuddle time, I know,
When my baby, dressed for Dreamland,
Comes a-romping to me so;
Comes and begs of me to hold him
On my knees and "rock-a-bye,"
As the purpling sun sinks lower
In the gleaming western sea.

And he cuddle to me near,
As the firelight soft glows,
And across the dusky portals
Ghostly flickering shadows throws;
And two dimpled arms about me
Are clasped tighter for a kiss—
Ah, was richer, rarer necklace
Placed about one's neck than this!

And I clasp and hold him closer,
Little tousled head of gold,
And he begs for a "tory"
Which a hundred times I've told;
Begs to have me "tell it over"—
Of the quaint Red Riding Hood,
Of the boars—that happy family
Living in the deep, dark wood.

Soon the drooping, drooping lashes
Cover up two eyes of brown,
And the tousled head so golden
On my breast sinks lower down;
Lower yet, till, deep in slumber,
Cuddled close to me he lies,
With the glory of the sunset
In his sleeping, dreaming eyes.

In his eyes, in whose rare luster
Shines the beauty of the dawn,
Till I know that into Dreamland
My wee golden head has gone.
Ah, the sweetness of the pleasure,
Making life one golden rhyme,
With a dimpled babe to fondle
When it comes to Cuddle Time!

Mott is Manager.

William Mott has been chosen manager of the high school football team for next year. Mott is popular among his classmates and will undoubtedly make an energetic, businesslike manager and put out one of the most formidable aggregations ever mustered out by the Salem high school.

SALEM GETTING READY

Nation's Birthday Will be Celebrated in the Capital City With Great Eclat

Salem will celebrate the nation's birthday with all the enthusiasm her citizens can put forth, and means that this year's celebration have the old fashioned ring to the committees are actively engaged in their special work and all agree that the plans will be carried out to their entirety.

The business men and citizens have responded nobly and liberally to the call with their moral support and "the coin." There will be plenty of soul stirring music, since more than $300 has been appropriated for the purpose. Hal Patton has charge of the comic parade and the market has placed Old Glory over every house in the county is said to be some surprises on hand that will light the little folks and challenge admiration of their fond parents.

The pyrotechnic display, too, will be a blaze of glory, more than $2000 having been given the committee to the best the market affords.

The committee on amusements arranged all kinds of street races, prizes will be awarded to the winners. The literary program has not yet been entirely arranged. But the city's gifted elocutionists will read the Declaration of Independence and there will be plenty of oratory to stir the heart of the citizenry. It will be a glorious Fourth, and the American eagle will scream and soar louder than it ever did before. Salem will do herself proud.

The Destruction of San Francisco

BY EARTHQUAKE AND FIRE

By Charles Eugene Banks and Opie Read

Special :-: Memorial :-: Volume

This edition will be eagerly sought after by millions of Americans who have demonstrated their sympathy in a substantial manner by cheerfully answering the call of the stricken, and giving money, food and clothing with a generosity truly American. Every city, town and village throughout the land is stretching forth its hands to help those in distress. Human hearts are beating today in every hamlet in the world for friends and relatives dead or dying in the ruins.

There never was a time in the history of the world when all eyes were turned to one city, as now they are toward the once great city of San Francisco.

Interest is at fever heat and there is a demand for this book, by all people, that makes it a duty and an honor to be the means of bringing it to them.

This book tells, by pen and picture, the detailed story as gathered by writers on the grounds, of the awful calamity that befell San Francisco and the smaller cities of the Pacific coast, leaving hundreds of thousands homeless and at the mercy of their fellow men; of the loss of life and the destruction of property; the story of the disaster as told by the survivors; fighting fire with dynamite; murder and pillage by ghoul; food and water famine; army guarding survivors under martial law; the ride and noose the fate of ghoul; burial alive in tombs of fire; a city turned into an inferno of furnaces; hundreds insane; sympathy of nations; relief work of our people; contributions for the suffering from individuals, cities and congress; a nation's sympathy aroused.

The Whole Story of the Disaster
