WILL SALEM CAPITAL INVEST IN SALEM ENTERPRISE.

Salem capitalists have helped a little in the past in rebuilding Salem and promoting Salem enterprises. But a very little.

In the last fifteen years funds have been raised to help the woolen mills, to help Willamette university, and a few other small matters.

Salem capitalists put up some of the money, BUT THE POORER CLASS OF BUSINESS MEN DID THE GREAT PART.

Salem business men who pay rents, Salem professional men of small incomes, and the poorer class of citizens generally have subscribed liberally.

To ever be a large city, Salem needs to become MORE OF A MANUFACTURING CENTER, MORE OF A CENTER FOR ELECTRIC MOTOR LINES.

A railroad to Dallas and Falls City means to make Salem a lumbering point of some importance. It means to double the payrolls of the city.

Next to the Dallas and Falls City connection, there should be constructed a railroad or motor line to the Santiam country, to Turner, Aumsville, Stayton, Mehama.

There would be required less than $200,000 bonds to construct both these lines. They would make Salem the center of industries, population and commerce.

BUT SALEM CAPITALISTS CANNOT BE RELIED UPON TO BACK SUCH ENTERPRISES. They never have done it. They never will do it—unless they experience a change of heart, and such changes do not take place.

Salem capital will not invest in the building of greater Salem on those lines. Enterprise that builds cities, that reaches out for business, goes beyond buying warrants.

Eastern capital will build another railroad to Portland—a line that is not as much needed as a railroad to Dallas, or up the Santiam valley.

SALEM CAPITAL IS WHAT IS TERMED CONSERVATIVE—PREFERING FARM MORTGAGES, STATE WARRANTS, OR SCHOOL BONDS.

Salem capital will not invest in strictly Salem enterprises—such as the development of industries lying near our doors.

The Oregon water company, that built the electric line up the Clackamas river, shows what can be done by investment of local capital.

A PROPERTY WORTH MILLIONS, WHOSE STOCKS AND BONDS ARE AT A PREMIUM, HAS BEEN CREATED OUT OF NATURAL RESOURCES AND OPPORTUNITIES.

The same could be done at Salem with electric lines to Dallas, to Silverton, to Mehama. Salem wealth and population could be multiplied if our big capitalists would take hold in the right way. They would bring in volumes of other capital.

Perhaps it is too much to expect of these men of wealth, who for twenty years have let slip golden opportunities, to take up progressive lines now. But the chance to make millions is as good today as ever before in our history.

IT WOULD

SURPRISE YOU

If you could only know, as we know, how some of the young people and wage earners are getting on in the world since they started a savings account with us. Some who said "I can't lay aside anything, my income will not allow it," are today our most enthusiastic patrons and are looking ahead to those things which can always be secured with a bank account.

There is everything in making a start, no matter how small, and then added regularly to it.

Form the habit and your financial future is secure.

Hair Help

So many persons have weak hair, lifeless hair, hair that falls out, splits at the ends, keeps rough and uneven. Such hair needs help. The roots need feeding with a good hair-food—Ayer's Hair Vigor. The hair becomes stronger, grows faster, stops falling out, keeps soft and smooth. Just feed your hair and you will be satisfied with it.

WHAT SHOULD BE REPUBLICAN POLICIES IN FUTURE.

If the Republican party has any future, it is evident that some well-defined policies of party management must be mapped out and adhered to.

It must be plain that GOVERNOR CHAMBERLAIN HAS DONE SOME THINGS FROM THE STANDPOINT OF DEFINITE EFFECT UPON STATE POLITICS.

He has taken action on important matters of state policy, he has attacked abuses from the standpoint of what the people thought on the subject.

He put in a state land agent not to gloss over abuses, to conceal ancient frauds, but to expose rotten practices and convict the scoundrels who were robbing the state school lands wholesale.

Put it flat: Will the new Republican state treasurer and the new Republican secretary of state adopt reform policies, take a stand for reformation of abuses and establish new standards of efficiency in the state government?

OR WILL THEY DRIFT AND FLOAT ON THE TIDE OF MERE PERFUNCTORY PARTISANSHIP and let a Democratic governor monopolize progressive and aggressive administration?

At the end of four years what will the Republican party have to its credit to go into a campaign with, in the way of actual performance?

Unless a clearly-defined policy of progress and reform is adopted and earnestly, vigorously and intelligently carried into effect by the new state administration, the party in Oregon has no future.

The people are not looking to parties for reforms so much as they are to strong men in parties.

The strong and popular man who sees the need of the hour and makes the people see it has a political future where the party has none.

Keen and progressive leaders of public thought in states like Kansas, Iowa, Missouri and Illinois are backing popular demands for progress.

They are not sitting down, satisfied to draw salaries and sucking their thumbs in official complacency and letting political power slip away from them into the hands of the opposition.

The state of Oregon is full of independent men who will not be satisfied with a brainless, colorless, do-nothing style of Republicanism.

If they cannot have at the hands of those entrusted with political power clear-cut, definite, aggressive policies of progress THAT AROUSE PARTY PRIDE AND APPEAL TO THE MASSES, THEY WILL LEAVE THE PARTY FOR OTHER LEADERS.

This is not a question of voting Mr. Bourne up or down. Mr. Bourne will take care of himself. Mr. Falton and Mr. Hawley can take care of themselves.

But without definite policies of state administration there will be no Republican voters left for those men to appeal to in future to be elected to office with. A PARTY CANNOT REMAIN IN POWER WITHOUT POLICIES.

THE DREW ENDORSEMENT.

In the course of an elaborate article on the dismissal of Prof. Drew from the faculty of Willamette university, the Telegram reporter at Salem has this to say:

"It is a fact that Professor Drew did participate in the selection of a ticket to be voted for in the Republican primary election, on which were several candidates who, strictly speaking, were not anti-saloon men. Most of the candidates for the legislature on this ticket were nominated. The ticket was printed and freely circulated. No one denied its origin."

The Drew church conference endorsement was effective for, and was appreciated by, the candidates who got it, and put them on the ticket.

Will they keep faith with the law and order league, the anti-saloon league, the balance of power league, as the Drew conference was called, or will they repudiate it?

Church manipulators who can be used to give such endorsements and at the same time turn down clean men like A. N. Moores, have something to explain.

The Drew church conference endorsement was a very nice thing to get at the time, when there was a struggle to get on the ticket.

Don't the Marion county politicians who got the endorsement of the Drew conference owe something to themselves in the way of an explanation?

To get a political endorsement of the churches one day and buy six kegs of beer for a band in a German precinct the next, is cute as a political trick, but what does it reveal?

Professor Drew was honestly endeavoring to promote prohibition principles, and delivered the Christian church vote which he had organized.

Will the candidates who got the benefit of that vote keep faith in that matter, and stand up for Professor Drew, who gave them an endorsement?

FOR COLLECTOR OF CUSTOMS.

This fat federal office at Portland becomes vacant by expiration of term August 1.

Hon. I. L. Patterson of Salem has held this office for eight years, and is not a candidate for reappointment.

P. S. Malcolm, a Portland insurance man; J. M. Shelley, a Eugene miller, and G. A. Westgate, an Albany editor, are said to be applicants for the place.

It is not known who Senator Fulton will recommend for the place.

SMILES.

Everybody's Magazine for July has a poem on "A Hot Night on the Square."

Give us good weather now for a few weeks and we will break the record for big crops.—Exchange.

A Silverton church sociable advertises a musical program by performers, "male, female and mixed."

The Albany Democrat wants the S. P. depot changed from the east to the west side of the track, so tourists can't see the town.—Independence West Side.

The American hog has been shut out of Germany more effectively than any tariff could do it by the publication in the papers there of the reports on the condition of Chicago packing houses.—Eugene Guard.

Colonel Jefferson Myers is president of Oregon's Jamestown expedition commission. That means that this state will be in the limelight down in old Virginia because the colonel has a happy faculty of making his presence known, as well as the fact that he hails from the great and glorious northwest.—Exchange. Besides he has red hair.

The Eugene merchants' protective association at its last meeting further discussed the matter of organizing a mutual fire insurance company among the business men of that city. This action is the result of the recent advance in the rates in Eugene. A committee consisting of W. G. Griffin, G. D. Linn and Alton Hampton was appointed to arrange for organizing such a company and report to the association some time next week.

State News

There are at present 2,000,000 pounds of wool stored in the Malheur Mercantile Company's warehouses at Ontario. A wool sale will be held June 26, and buyers from all over the coast are expected to attend.

At Ontario Postmaster Sproull's salary has been raised from $1600 to $1700. Ontario has been promised a new postoffice by the department, which is badly needed, as over 2000 patrons are served at present, and the quarters now occupied are inadequate.

For the first time in the history of Forest Grove, a woman was chosen to the position of school director at the election held here Monday. Mrs. Geo. R. Hancock, of this place was elected director for the three-year term.

Fred Phillips, a miner, was killed by a falling rock at the Musick mine Monday night. Phillips had gone in after a shot to pick down the loosened rock in the top. He warned the men working near him, but in getting away himself slipped and was caught by the falling rock. Phillips came to the mine a few days ago, and nothing is known of his family, except that his people live at Kirby, and have been notified.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES.

Mt. Angel College Makes Splendid Showing.

(Special to The Capital Journal.)

Mt. Angel, June 21.—The commencement exercises of Mt. Angel college were held yesterday afternoon and last evening, and were attended by a large number of people from the surrounding neighborhood, and from the various cities throughout the state. Salem and Portland were well represented. A number of Catholic clergymen of the diocese were present, including Archbishop Christie, of Portland.

Soon after the dinner, which was provided by the Order of St. Benedictine, the exercises began. The addresses were made by Archbishop Christie and Attorney John P. Kavanaugh, of Portland. Mr. Kavanaugh is an alumnus of the college.

The program in full follows: Orchestra, "Forest Echoes," A. L. Maresh.

Salutatory, William McGee. "The Oregon Grape," Eva Emery Dye, song by Albert Kropp and Junior Glee Club.

Piano solo, from Gounod's Faust, Gould Cressy. "Rose, Red Little Rose," song by Don Day.

"Sing Me a Song of the South," cornet solo, by Lester Bowman. Address, Hon. John P. Kavanaugh, of Portland.

Conferring of degrees. Valedictory, Wence Pashek, of The Dalles.

Closing address, Most Rev. Archbishop A. Christie, D. D. Orchestra, "Boys in Old Gold and White," A. L. Maresh.

Summer Session.

The Capital Business College remains open during the summer months. A number of new pupils have entered recently—some for full courses, and others for special studies. Anyone interested in such studies as shorthand, bookkeeping, penmanship, typewriting and business arithmetic, will find the summer months an excellent time to pursue these branches at this school. Is Disease a Crime?

Not very long ago, a popular magazine published an editorial article in which the writer asserted, in substance, that all disease should be regarded as criminal. Certain it is, that much of the sickness and suffering of mankind is due to the violation of certain of Nature's laws. But to say that all sickness should be regarded as criminal, must appeal to every reasonable individual as radically wrong.

It would be harsh, unsympathetic, cruel, yes criminal, to condemn the poor, weak, over-worked housewife who sinks under the heavy load of household cares and burdens, and suffers from weakness, various displacements of pelvic organs and other derangements peculiar to her sex.

Frequent bearing of children, with its exacting demands upon the system, coupled with the care, worry and labor of rearing a large family, is often the cause of these various derangements and debility which are aggravated by the many household cares, and the hard, and never-ending work which the mother is called upon to perform. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the maker of that world-famed remedy for women's peculiar weaknesses and ills—Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription—says that one of the greatest obstacles to the cure of this class of maladies is the fact that the poor, over-worked housewife can not get the needed rest from her many household cares and labor to enable her to secure from the use of his "Prescription" its full benefits. It is a matter of frequent experience, he says, in his extensive practice in these cases, to meet with those in which the treatment fails by reason of the patient's inability to abstain from hard work long enough to be cured. With those suffering from prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion of the uterus or other displacements of the uterine organs it is very necessary that, in addition to taking his "Favorite Prescription" they abstain from being very much, or for long periods, on their feet. At such times, the wearing of any kind should also be avoided. As much out-door air as possible, with moderate, light exercise is also very important. Let the patient observe these rules and the "Favorite Prescription" will do the rest.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound.
