

IMMENSE TIME AT JEFFERSON

Odd Fellows Picnic Saturday Will Bring Out Great Crowd

The annual Odd Fellows' picnic will bring out a great crowd here Saturday. The rainy weather all spring has not allowed the people as many opportunities for outdoor gatherings as Oregon people like, and this makes everything in the line of picnics welcomed by thousands. Hon. J. K. Weatherford will be the orator of the day, and this alone will insure a great crowd.

The address of welcome, by the Hon. Tip Humphrey, will be an oratorical surprise. Let Salem people turn out. Jefferson always responds to the calls of the Capital City, and will attend the Elks' Skidoo and Fourth of July celebration en masse.

Have You a Cough?

A dose of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will relieve it. Have you a cold?

Try it for whooping cough, for asthma, consumption, for bronchitis. Mrs. Joe McGrath, 327 E. 1st street, Hutchinson, Kan., writes: "I have used Ballard's Horehound Syrup in my family for five years, and find it the most palatable medicine I ever used. For sale by D. J. Fry."

A Slight Error.

The Journal yesterday, in mentioning the University muddle, stated that Mr. Robinson was chairman of the Ministerial Association. This morning he telephoned that the honor does not belong to him, the position being held by Rev. Cliffe.

ABOUT THE BIG PARADE

Great is the Fourth of July, and great will be the celebration to be commemorated in this city. Every committee is working hard to make the event the greatest ever seen in the Capital City. Chairman Hal D. Patton, who has charge of the comic parade, reports that this part of the parade will be matchless in its gorgeousness. It will be unique, new and distinctly original. Some prizes have been offered, as follows, for the comic program, which will be rendered at Marion square:

Best comic group with float—1st prize, $15; second prize, $5.
Most comical character—1st prize, $7.50; 2d prize, $2.50.
Best clown, $3.
Best monkey, $3.
Most comic recitation, oration or stump speech, $5.
Most comical song, two or more voices, $5.

Following the program the baby show will take place, and the committee decided last night to award first and second prizes for:

Prettiest boy baby.
Prettiest girl baby.
Fattest boy or girl baby.
Baby with longest hair.
After which the general committee will award prizes for the fattest man, leanest man, best looking girl, newest married couple, etc.

The committee wishes it to be understood that the entries for this parade are not limited to the residents of Salem, but that it is opened to all residents of Marion county. Shaw, Pratum, Liberty and the other neighboring towns should participate in this parade and strive to capture several prizes. It can be done, and the young people in those neighborhoods will be glad to avail themselves of the opportunities to bring their respective sections of the county to the front. Let the country people unite heartily in this celebration. Any who wish to participate in the comic parade are requested to send in their names to the committee, that prominent places may be reserved for them in the parade.

"It is going to be a success, the boys mean to work hard and accomplish things, and the parade will be the best thing of the sort ever seen in the old town," said Hal Patton, with a broad grin of enthusiasm all over his face.

Never follows an injury dressed with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Its antiseptic and healing properties prevent blood poisoning. Chas. Oswald, merchant, of Rensselaersville, N. Linn County Meeting.

The Linn county W. C. T. U. held a county meeting during the Brownsville pioneer picnic Thursday afternoon on the banks of the Callpools, and arranged for a county gold medal contest at the county convention in September.

REGULAR ANNUAL REUNION

The annual reunion and picnic of the Linn County Pioneers' Association began yesterday at Brownsville, and the town is filled with visitors from all parts of the Willamette valley, to enjoy the annual merrymaking. Pioneers of the early days of Linn county are there in large numbers, and the meetings of old friends and neighbors are very pleasant. Sons and daughters of old pioneers are also there, attracted to the old home, and all enjoy the hospitality of the city and its warm-hearted citizens. For many of the people visiting there it is "home-coming" week in the truest sense of the word; former residents of Brownsville and neighborhood, who have strayed away from home and established themselves elsewhere, are there in large numbers, drawn back to the old home.

The pioneers' picnic began yesterday morning with a parade and this was followed by a program and a day of rare enjoyment. At the park music was rendered during the day, and the Brownsville band done much toward making the affair a success; songs and other musical numbers were enjoyed; the crowds were welcomed in a set address and a response was delivered by Peter Hume; historical addresses and reminiscences were enjoyed, and was concluded with a program of sports that was enjoyed by a large concourse of people.

The indications are that today will bring even larger crowds to Brownsville than the one here now, and visitors are coming in from all directions to help swell the attendance. The reunion promises to be the largest held in years, and if the weather continues good the pioneers' picnic will be an unqualified success.

Took the Grocers In.

The Capitols waxed it to the Grocers last evening to the tune of 7 to 1. A goodly crowd was present to witness the contest, and some good ball was played. The Capitols led off briskly, and kept their lead up to the finish. Kozer, for the Capitols, and Daue, for the Grocers, did the work that made the grand stand root and cheer.

The lineup was:

Capitols.	Grocers.
Bashor	c	West
Southwick	p	Daue
Bishop	1b	Rasmussen
Kazer	2b	Arnold
McHugh	3b	Tracy
Cary	ss	Mohr
Benson	rf	Braer
West	lf	Burdick
Josse	cf	Roth

Umpire—Hon T. B. Kay. Struck out by Southwick 3, by Daue 6.

Vote Is Now All Received.

The official vote of Curry county was received by the secretary of state this morning by registered mail. This was the only county not heard from and the full official vote is now in the hands of Secretary of State Dunbar. It will require some time to add up and tabulate the entire vote and it will probably be Monday before this work is completed.

In the cases of state officers, the official vote will be approximately the same as that which has been printed from time to time. The majority of Governor Chamberlain is 2499, which is three more votes than he has been credited with.

The vote for governor is: Chamberlain, 46,002; Withycombe, 43,503; Chamberlain plurality, 2499.

Want Slagle Pardoned.

An application for the pardon of Charles Slagle was received at the governor's office this morning, signed by a large number of citizens from Josephine and Jackson counties. Slagle was sent up for life from Josephine county 13 years ago for the murder of Antoine Joseph. No reasons are given for asking his pardon at this time except that he was a mere boy at the time of the killing and that he has been an exemplary prisoner.

The application will be considered by the governor on his return from Eastern Oregon.

Arrival of First Motor Barge.

Woolwich, Eng., June 21.—At a time when the future of the British canals is occupying the attention of the royal commission, the arrival of the first motor barge, the Wasp, off Woolwich, may be considered an event of more than ordinary interest. In Holland, where this new craft has been built, motor barges are a familiar sight on the canals, and it is expected that in the course of time they will be similarly utilized in this country. The Wasp, which has been imported for service between Portsmouth and the Isle of Wight, is fifty-five feet six inches long, with a twelve-foot four-inch beam, and three feet six inch draught. A 24-horsepower Kromhout motor is installed, the fuel used being ordinary Russian petroleum. The speed of this motor barge is given approximately at seven and a half knots. She crossed from Flushing in a somewhat rough sea, and is said to have behaved splendidly throughout the voyage.
