SOLDIERS COME HOME.

Our Passenger Coaches, One Car of Horses and a Baggage Car.
Another special train of soldiers from San Francisco passed through here at 1 o'clock this morning. The train consisted of a baggage car, a car of horses and four passenger coaches. The soldiers are members of the Eleventh Infantry, stationed at Vancouver, Washington. Representatives from the hospital corps and Companies A, B and G were on board.
The men are glad to get back home, after an absence of two months in the Golden City, which is gradually rebuilding. Most of the debris is being hauled away to fill the swamps surrounding San Francisco. As yet there has been but little building in the new San Francisco. The structures which are being erected now are of a temporary nature, and it will require more time than at first anticipated to rebuild the city of the Golden Gate.
The large steel-ribbed structures which stood the shock are being repaired and renovated.
Many of the soldiers had with them souvenirs of the earthquake, such as articles from Chinatown and other bric-a-brac.

Bankers Win From Printers.

The best game thus far played under the auspices of the Capital Amateur League was the one played Saturday afternoon between the Bankers and the Printers. When the smoke of the battle rolled away the Bankers were declared the victors by a run made by Robinson during the last inning.
Those who witnessed the game call it the finest ever seen here, played among amateur teams. Both pitchers did good work.

The Bohemians at the Edison.

Commencing tonight and all week at the Edison theatre, the Brigham-Cooper Stock Company will present the largest dramatic production ever seen in Salem at the very low admission price of 10 and 20 cents. This great play is entitled "The Bohemians," and is very different to any of the plays ever seen at the Edison. The climaxes are strong, the situations interesting and there is an abundance of comedy. Every member of the company is cast to advantage, and there is not a dull moment during the entire play. Those wishing to see a good play, conveying an excellent and impressive moral, should see "The Bohemians."

THE STORY OF CLASSIFIED TOWN

CHAPTER IX
This is the woman with smile circumspect; She runs a boarding house, large and select. Failure don't worry her—there is a reason; She has a "house full," no matter the season.
Says she, I'm compelled, almost every day, To politely turn people who want board away. I couldn't keep house were it not for one thing; That's Journal want ads, for they always bring
The best class of people; when asked they will say: "Your ad in the Journal I noticed today." A word we will add in concluding this rhyme: A Journal want ad hits the mark every time. (To be continued tomorrow.)

LODGS WILL PARTICIPATE.

Nearly All the Secret Orders in Salem Will Have Floats in the Fourth of July Parade.
The lodge committee of the Fourth of July celebration report that nearly all the lodges, secret orders and such organizations in the city will have floats in the parade on the Fourth. The United Artisans, Modern Woodmen of America, Printers' Union, Carpenters' Union and Rural Mail Carriers have already begun preparations, and will enter the parade with handsome and gorgeous floats, and it is believed the other orders will soon fall in line.

Singers Wanted.

Every one who sings is requested to join the Fourth of July chorus. The chorus will meet at Tioga hall this evening, and it is the wish of the committee on vocal music that at least 200 singers be present. Dr. C. H. Epley, the chairman of the vocal music committee, will direct the chorus.

All Committees Meet Tonight.

All the various committees on the Fourth of July celebration will meet tonight in the city hall. These meetings are of the utmost importance, and all the members of each committee are urged to attend.

Artisans Will Have a Float.

The Artisans have decided to take part in the Fourth of July parade, and will fit up a float that promises to be particularly attractive.

"Doc's" First Visit.

Accompanying T. J. Marcum to Salem the other night, Doc Hemple, the deputy sheriff, for the first time since he has served in that official capacity, was permitted to accompany a prisoner to the penitentiary. Those who saw him say that he was about as much pleased as a small boy with a new toy.—Baker City Democrat.

Taking New Pictures.

Roseburg is visited today by the Southern Pacific photographic car, bearing Julius Padilla and family and Hon. John Paul Jones, who needs no introduction to the Roseburg public. The car will remain here until tomorrow morning. In the meantime Mr. Padilla will take views of Roseburg and the immediate vicinity. The Southern Pacific's splendid collection of scenic views along its system was destroyed in the San Francisco disaster, making it necessary to have the photographic work done over again.—Roseburg Review.

A Greasy Mess.

In the case of the State of Oregon against George Pendrick, the defendant was fined $25 and costs for selling adulterated lard to the officials of the state prison. The case was passed upon this morning by Justice of the Peace Turner.
Webster Holmes, one of the attorneys for the defendant, filed a notice of appeal.

WRONGFULLY WITHHOLD PROPERTY

A. Bush Cited to Appear in Gilbert Receivership—Important Step in Big Suit

Roseau C. Thomas, substituted executor of the will of William Cooper, against P. N. Gilbert, has filed a petition in department No. 2 of the circuit court, for the accounting and discovery of certain property. The petitioners, who are claimants under the receivership of Gilbert Bros, ask for an accounting from Ladd & Bush, who are also declared creditors of the estate.
The petitioners claim that 65 per cent of their claims are still due from Claud Gateb, receiver. The original claim is said to have been $12,500.17, and that they hold a large amount of notes as collateral security. The petition also alleges that $4000 worth of shares in the First National Bank of Moscow, Idaho, was further assigned to Ladd & Bush as security. It is further asserted that in November, 1905, Claud Gateb paid to Ladd & Bush all the balances due them from Gilbert Bros, without taking into account any of the dividends received before by the bank, and that the bank did not return to the receiver any of the stock, but kept the same as their own, which retention they allege was acquiesced in by the said receiver, Claud Gateb.
The petition asks that Ladd & Bush be cited to appear and answer these allegations and to return to the receiver the stock in question, and that their claims be adjudged a first lien on the stock.
The petitioners' attorneys are Tillman Ford, W. M. Kaiser and W. T. Slater.
Judge Galloway has ordered that A. Bush, as the firm of Ladd & Bush, appear in court in answer to the allegations of the petitioners.
