MARION COUNTY PIONEERS

Hold Their Annual Reunion at the John Hunt Homestead

The annual reunion of the Marion county pioneers, or that part of them belonging to what may be termed the Waldo Hills, was held at the beautiful grove at the home of John Hunt, himself a pioneer of 1847. The grounds had been cleared up by Capt. M. W. Hunt and Jeptha Hunt, assisting their uncle, and commodious seats were arranged for about a thousand people, and more than half that number were in attendance from the hill country all the way from Silverton to Stayton north and south, and from Salem to Silver Creek Falls east and west. The rainy weather never cleared until Saturday morning or there would have been twice as many. But the crowd was a very fine one, as one sees only when the pioneers and their descendants assemble to do honor to the days that are past and gone. Hon.

Sole in Salem by S. C. Stone.

John Hunt presided and added his part to the speaking program, in addition to singing a pioneer song and a verse of an Indian song in the Chinook jargon.

In the forenoon there were able addresses by Rev. P. S. Knight and Hon. John Minto of Salem, and in the afternoon Hon. Geo. S. Downing, Capt. M. W. Hunt and Mrs. E. T. Judd were on the program. A splendid dinner was served and the pioneers' table was graced by many of the men and women who braved the dangers of the trip across the plains in the '40s and the '50s. Benton Patten was chief boiler of coffee and his brew was just about right. The Victor Point band furnished music and some of the young people sang songs and the day was passed in a most charming manner. Mrs. John Hunt and Miss Hunt were hostesses in general and made it very pleasant for the ladies, who went out from different parts of the county. The meeting was such a great success that it was the unanimous sentiment to hold these reunions each year without fail.

Croup

Is a violent inflammation of the mucous membrane of the wind pipe, which sometimes extend to the larynx and bronchial tubes; and is one of the most dangerous diseases of children. It almost always comes on in the night. Give frequent small doses of Ballard's Horehound Syrup and apply Ballard's Snow Liment externally to the throat. 25c, 50c and $1. For sale by D. J. Fry.

County Clerk Roland Appreciated.

The Marion County Bar Association Saturday passed resolutions expressing the appreciation of the bar and court for the efficiency services and courteous administration of the county clerk's office during the past four years. The term of office of County Clerk John W. Roland expired Saturday evening. The committee from the bar was composed of Attorney M. E. Pogue, W. M. Kaiser, John A. Carson, George G. Bingham and Frank Holmes, and said:

We believe we express the sentiment of the bench and bar and public generally when we assert that such office has been conducted second to none in the state of Oregon, and we therefore take this method of expressing the appreciation of the court and bar of such services by the said John W. Roland, retiring clerk of this court.

Therefore, be it resolved that a copy of this report be spread upon the journal of this court, and that a certified copy thereof be furnished to the said John W. Roland by the incoming clerk.

Only 82 Years Old.

"I am only 82 years old and don't expect even when I get to be real old to feel that way as long as I can get Electric Bitters," says Mrs. E. H. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. Surely there's nothing else keeps the old as young and makes the weak as strong as this grand tonic medicine. Dyspepsia, torpid liver, inflamed kidneys or chronic constipation are unknown after taking Electric Bitters a reasonable time. Guaranteed by J. C. Perry, druggist. Price 50c.

Summer Vacation.

Off for the coast will be the cry from now until September. The vacation season has fairly opened, and hundreds will go to the mountains and to the seaside to enjoy refreshing breezes and to pass away the summer months. Probably the most popular resort for Salem people is Newport by the sea, but others will leave for the sylvan retreats of the coast mountains and the Tillamook beaches. Many prefer the mountains with their opportunities for fishing and hunting among the wilds than the experiences by the sounding sea, and these will hide themselves to the coast mountains by private conveyances to enjoy the pleasure of camp life, as did the nomadic tribes of ancient days.

Contests the Election.

County Treasurer P. W. Todd, of Tillamook county, who, on the face of the returns, was beaten seven votes by his Republican competitor, has begun a contest and demanded a recount of the ballots of the entire county. He alleges that, owing to mistakes and errors in counting and checking the vote, that he lost many votes which were counted for his opponent, and that a recount will give him at least 33 majority.
