

One Hundred $1.50 Pastels at 59 Cents Each

These pictures are fine reproductions and come in beautiful oval frames finished in gold, and, under ordinary circumstances, would be considered rare values at $1.50. We placed them on sale this Monday morning at 59c, that we may, in a measure, do something toward entertaining the crowds that will come to Salem this week. None to dealers. No deliveries. Sale closes July 4th.

The Telegram should send some of the cubs to the kindergarten. After saying last night the temperature at 3 o'clock was 100, and that the highest temperature in the city was 100, the green in 1891, it is simply remarks that "the more degrees will be the record."

Jonathan Bourne at least has the credit of making the Portland postal free a first-class office, and second in rank on the road. It is claimed by those who pretend to know that his clerical and postal work earned the calling of $14,000 worth of stamps. At a standpoint, and a put stunder, Jonathan is in the first class himself.

Baseball Players and Foot Racers:

Leslie J. Kruger, ex-champion long-distance foot racer of Germany and Holland, writes, October 27, 1931:

"During my training of eight weeks' foot races at Salt Lake City, in April last, I used Ballist's Bone Liniment to my greatest satisfaction. Therefore, I highly recommend this Liniment to all who are troubled with sprains, bruises or rheumatism." 30c, 50c and $1. Sold by D. J. Fry.

WE WANT YOU

To call this "your bank" is to have you feel interested in its growth and worth in the community.

An account with your home bank will give you greater business standing in the community and a prestige that you may never have enjoyed before.

If your name is not on our books, we will be pleased to see it there before the close of 1936.

Salem to Be Illuminated

The illumination for the celebration will be the best ever seen in Salem. The work has been under the management of Hollis K. Page, of the Citizens' Light & Traction Company, and thousands of incandescent lights have been strung on State and Commercial streets that will make that section of the city as light as day. This, together with the splendid pyrotechnic display, will give Salem the appearance of a metropolitan city. A large number of flags will also be unfurled to the breeze along the line of march taken by the parade. Many of the
