FIFTY SEVEN CLOSED

Four Counties in Western Oregon Shut Down Nearly Five Dozen Saloons

As a result of the recent election fifty-seven regularly licensed saloons went out of business in Linn county, and with them three jug or gallon houses.

In Lane county twelve saloons closed in Eugene, six in Cottage Grove, four in Springfield, two in Blue River City and one at Waterville—twenty-five in all.

In Lincoln about a half-dozen went out of business, and in Yamhill fourteen. In Benton county there was no change, as it was already dry.

In eastern Oregon, Wallowa and Sherman counties went dry, while Malheur and Wasco went partially dry, Hood River being the main prohi camp. The saloon keepers of Ontario and Vale, in Malheur, will contest the law in the courts.

Fifty-seven saloons in all went out of business in western Oregon, with a loss of revenue of about $30,000.

Whetstone-Dulley.

A coast paper says: On June 27, at the residence of Mrs. G. A. Brown, Justice J. H. Cecil joined in marriage Mr. Charles Whetstone and Miss Nettie M. Dulley. The happy couple have the congratulations of many friends. More than that, the horse editor

Nature's Way Is Best.

The function strengthening and tissue building plan of treating chronic, lingering and obstinate cases of disease as pursued by Dr. Pierce, is following after Nature's plan of restoring health.

He uses natural remedies, that is extracts from native medicinal roots, prepared by processes wrought out by the expenditure of much time and money, without the use of alcohol, and by skillful combination in just the right proportions.

Used as ingredients of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, Black Cherry-bark, Queen's root, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot and Stone root, specially exert their influence in cases of lung, bronchial and throat troubles, and this "Discovery" is, therefore, a sovereign remedy for bronchitis, laryngitis, chronic coughs, catarrh and kindred ailments.

The above native roots also have the strongest possible endorsement from the leading medical writers, of all the several schools of practice, for the cure not only of the diseases named above but also for indigestion, torpor of liver, or biliousness, obstinate constipation, kidney and bladder troubles and catarrh, no matter where located.

You don't have to take Dr. Pierce's say-so alone as to this; what he claims for his "Discovery" is backed up by the writings of the most eminent men in the medical profession. A request by postal card or letter, addressed to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for a little book of extracts from eminent medical authorities endorsing the ingredients of his medicines, will bring a little book free that is worthy of your attention if needing a good, safe, reliable remedy of known composition for the cure of almost any old chronic, or lingering malady.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic.

The most valuable book for both men and women is Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Advisor. A splendid 1008-page volume, with engravings and colored plates. A copy, paper-covered, will be sent to anyone sending 21 cents in one-cent stamps, to pay the cost of mailing only, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. Cloth-bound, 31 stamps.

rears up on his hind legs to extend his best wishes. The names naturally suggest matrimony, as Whetstone would naturally sharpen the dullest as well as the Dulley. And then, too, she becomes a Whetstone and ought to now be able to get along without that dull find that makes married life so often a failure. This marriage was according to the eternal fitness of things, and the horse editor promises at any future time when called upon to purchase a rubber ring, also a rubber thimble with a hole in the end of it, just to show his appreciation of the combination.

Only 82 Years Old.

"I am only 82 years old and don't expect even when I get to be real old to feel that way as long as I can get Electric Bitters," says Mrs. E. H. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. Surely there's nothing else keeps the old as young and makes the weak as strong as this grand tonic medicine. Dyspepsia, torpid liver, inflamed kidneys or chronic constipation are unknown after taking Electric Bitters a reasonable time. Guaranteed by J. C. Perry, druggist. Price 50c.
