McCormick
Binders

The man who has used the McCormick the longest time is the most enthusiastic over its merits.

The man who hasn't used the Mc-Cormick should, in justice to himself, before he buys a machine, make a few comparisons. You know a prejudiced man is his own worst enemy.

COMPARE
 Our extra heavy square steel tube frame with lighter ones.

 Our extra high, extra wide main reel with lower, narrower ones.

 The extra solid bang of our two lever McCormick reel with reels found on other binders.

The open elevator and the extra deck roller, all of which will handle the heaviest grain without choking, with less efficient elevators on other machines.

COMPARE
 The canvass tighteners on both platform and elevator, with makeshift devices often shown.

 The McCormick roller tension with the common inefficient pinch tension shown elsewhere.

 The whole machine with anything else, and you can't fail to reach a just conclusion, viz: that the McCormick leads them all.

PLYMOUTH BINDER TWINE
 Twine sales already rolling up in fine figures. We made a lot of new friends last year when they HAD TO use Plymouth or go without, being unable temperarily to get other kinds.

Men whom we had vainly endeavored for years to induce to TRY A BALL of Plymouth, after using it now are getting their entire needs in Plymouth.

OUR GUARANTEE
 Take a sack of Plymouth, use a ball, not satisfied, come and get your money back.

We've done that in scores of instances, and have honestly never been asked to refund a cent.

The W. O. W. Hall at Silverton.
 "On to Silverton!" is the battle-cry of the local Woodmen, who will go down to the Liberal city tomorrow to take part in the dedication of the new commodious W. O. W. hall at that place. The final plans will be perfected at a meeting this evening. Silverton Circle No. 43, of this city, will arrive tomorrow morning in a tallyho, and will take part in the exercises.
 The Uniform Rank, No. 118, will go in body under the captaincy of Jasper Sawyer, and will assist in the initiation exercises. It will be a big day for Silverton, and a goodly number of Woodmen from here besides these two ranks will attend.

Offered by a Reporter to Put the Cap-Sheaf on Peek-a-Boo Weather

"Go, my son, and shut the shutter!" This I heard a mother utter.
 "Shutter's shut," the boy did mutter;
 "I can't shut it any shutter."

A lad stood on a ladder tall, Painting of a sign;
 The ladder slipped—the lad did fall.
 He died and left no sign.

She's the only girl I love; Got a face like a horse and buggy; I found her leaning on the lake—Oh, fireman; save my child.

But the old hen, never fitting, still is sitting, still is sitting On that nest egg made of china, just behind the hen house door.
 And she looks as sweetly catching As if she were gently hatching From that nest egg made of china, chicks galore.
 But that door knob, she shall hatch, no nevermore.

Cannery Force Reduced.
 The force of employes at the Mutual Cannery has been reduced from about 150 to about 40 this week. This reduction was made necessary on account of the end of the cherry season having been reached. The attention of the management is now devoted wholly to the canning of raspberries and Logan berries. When the berry season is over the cannery will probably close temporarily until the early pears and apples are ripe.

In a number of ways the work done by the Salem Mutual Cannery is an experiment. It has long been asserted by the fruit growers that the canneries do not pay a sufficiently large price for fruit, and that the canners' profits are greater than those of the growers.
 The growers own and control the Mutual plant, and the work this year will in a measure decide the question of prices in Marion county.

Chink Gets Free.
 Lee Wah, the Chinaman accused by Conrad Krebs of obtaining money under false pretenses, in mortgaging a horse which belonged to a brother "chink," was acquitted yesterday by Justice Webster, who ruled that he had no jurisdiction in the case, since the transaction had taken place in Multnomah county. The judge dismissed the case, and gave the Chin-man his freedom.

A Small Blaze.
 The new barn of T. A. Powell, located near Nineteenth and Trade streets, was practically destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon about 6:30.
 Before assistance could be obtained the fire had spread and caught the barn of H. L. Rockhill, which was also destroyed.

The water pressure was poor and the hydrant to which the hose was attached gave a weak stream. Engineer Clark Churchill failed to locate the fire at once, and lost several minutes in reaching the scene. But when the engine was put to pumping water from the Mill race it was but an instant until the conflagration was under control, but too late to save anything.

At the time the alarm sounded the hose wagon driver was at supper and Fire Chief Savage mounted the wagon and made a rapid run to the scene.

It is said that the low pressure was directly due to the lawn sprinklers being in action. Lawn sprinklers should be turned off during a fire, for there is an ordinance to that effect.

Mr. Powell's loss is about $200, and that of Mr. Rockhill $150. Neither covered by insurance.

"The World Against Him." Last night at the Edison theatre a large and appreciative audience greeted the Brigham-Cooper Company in their new play entitled "The World Against Him." The play is one of sterling merit, and there was not a dull moment during the entire performance last night. Mr. Percy Brigham, as "Jim Blackburn," the hard-hearted man of the world, won hisses from the audience, which signify that he played his part well. Mr. Charles Caulkins has a most difficult role this week, one which requires much study.
 His pathos were well-toned and his comedy caused many a laugh. Miss Iva Shepard has a part this week that seems to be well suited to her. She gave a neat performance of it last night, and deserves praise for her hard work. Taken on the whole, this is one of the most pleasing plays yet presented by the popular Brigham-ham-Cooper Company. The company had made preparations to play the first three nights of each week in Eugene, but, owing to the fact that the Eugene theatre is to be remodeled for the fall and winter season it will be impossible to carry out that plan, so instead the company will stay in Salem and present two plays each week instead of one as before. On next Monday night the English pastoral drama, "The Farmer's daughter," will be the attraction. This play will be presented for three nights, and on Thursday they will change to the ever-popular "East Lynn," thus making a change of play on Mondays and Thursdays.

Back from Yearly Meeting.
 Quite a large party went from Salem, Rosedale, Scotts Mills and Marion to attend the yearly meeting of the Oregon Friends' church, held at Newberg all the past week, ending Thursday. Compared to other years the attendance was very good, and among prominent men present were such men as Allen Jay and wife, from Indiana; Charles Replogel and wife, from Everett, Wash., both prominent in this church. A returning missionary from China, two on their way to South America and one for the North Arctic circle. The latter two were ladies.
 The Friends' church shows general growth in this state, and its missions are well looked after. The delegation from this city included Rev. Kenworthy and wife, D. D. Keeler and wife, Arthur McMillan and family, John Pemberton and wife, Rosedale; W. J. Hadley, John Roan and wife, of Marion; Crozier brothers and their families, of Rosedale.

 half pints in size. Ring up No. 67, or

Two Small Judgments.
 Two cases of minor importance were tried by juries in the circuit court yesterday. In the case of Albert Upton against M. Christenson and Bergithe Christenson, a verdict of $90 was returned in favor of the plaintiff and $25 for attorney's fees.

In the case of John O. Estes against D. M. Ratchie, et ux., a verdict of $12.00 was brought in for the plaintiff.

An action for money entitled the Krebs Hop Company against T. A.
 Livesley & Co. is being tried in the circuit court today. A jury was selected this morning and the taking of testimony began.

French Have Athletic Games.
 New York, July 13.—Although Bastille Day will not be until tomorrow, a French fête in honor of the anniversary of the destruction of the Bastille has been arranged today at Coney Island. The principal feature of the day will be the athletic games which will take place this afternoon at Dreamland.
 The prizes, gold, silver and bronze medals, will be reproductions of the designs of awards made to the victorious athletes at the Olympic games at Athens. The program includes six events, a 50-yard dash, handicap; quarter mile run, handicap; running high jump, handicap; putting the 12-pound shot, handicap; and a two mile run, handicap. The number of entries is very large and fine sport and possibly some record breaking is expected. In addition to the athletic games there will be a parade of French societies, an amateur circus performance, and a grand ball in the evening.

South Dakota Holiness Association.
 Mitchell, S. D., July 13.—The camp of the South Dakota Holiness Association near this city will be opened this evening with a large meeting and the Rev. J. L. Glascock as evangelist. He is considered one of the most able and successful of the evangelists of the national association, which is made up of ministers of all the leading denominations in the United States. The singing will be under the leadership of Prof. W. A. and Mrs. Catharine Ginn, of Sioux City, Ia.

 the secretary of state. The incorporators are C. C. Woodford, W. H. Mc-last, I used Ballard's Snow Liniment to my greatest satisfaction. Therefore, I highly recommend Snow Liniment to all who are troubled with sprains, bruises or rheumatism." 35c,
