

Bronchitis

The next time you meet your doctor, ask him his opinion of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in cases of bronchitis. Then when you have a hard cold in the chest you will be ready to follow his advice. Doctors very generally endorse this old, standard, family cough medicine. They know all about it. They prescribe it in just these cases.

The next time you meet your doctor, ask him his opinion of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in cases of bronchitis. Then when you have a hard cold in the chest you will be ready to follow his advice. Doctors very generally endorse this old, standard, family cough medicine. They know all about it. They prescribe it in just these cases.

SAGE HAS GONE OVER

After Ninety Years He Left All He Had, Because--- He Had to

While there are other men who have been of late years more prominent as world financiers than Russell Sage, there is no disputing the fact that he was entitled to the credit of being the greatest financier of his day.

His history is brief: He started in as a poor boy. At 40 years of age he had accumulated a fortune of half a million dollars in a purely mercantile business and determined to retire from business.

After ten years of ordinary investments and at the age of 50 he went into Wall Street, and before his death he had spent forty years of a very active life in that busy mart of commerce. He died with interests in twenty-five of the greatest corporations in the country and a fortune which no man can safely estimate.

Mr. Sage was a very rich man for years. He was practically the father of the great Wall Street, and he has seen thousands of other men crushed by the great commercial machine he helped to build, but it was never big enough to topple on him.

Once he lost $8,000,000 and it was believed that the demand for immediate money with which to tide over would engulf him; but the old man—then sixty-eight years of age—breasted the storm and came out smiling.

He was a financier who saw both the good and the bad in business, and who frequently held up the head of a dying comrade in the commercial battles. He had the money-getting sense, but he was above the robbing of widows and orphans. His investments were legitimate and his speculative efforts confined to the stock exchange.—Seattle Times.

Cheerfully Recommended for Rheumatism.

O. G. Higbee, Danville, Ill., writes, Dec. 2, 1901: "About two years ago I was laid up for four months, with rheumatism. I tried Ballard's Snow Liniment; one bottle cured me. I can cheerfully recommend it to all suffering from like affection. 25c, 50c and $1. For sale by D. J. Fry."

SCANDALS IN BACKGROUND.

Man Involved in Jewel "Robbery" a Prominent Millionaire.

The New York Journal says. The identity of "Colonel Jack," the New York millionaire mysteriously concerned in the story of the $50,000 jewel robbery of Mrs. Halsey Corwin was revealed today. "Colonel Jack" is the diminutive by which the millionaire is known to his friends. He is a member of one of the first families of Manhattan to achieve millions. He is prominent socially and in business. He is identified with military circles, in which he is well known. He is now abroad.

According to Bookmaker King, who was arrested with Mrs. McVittie in connection with the robbery, the "Colonel" was about to be named in a suit in which Halsey Corwin contemplated bringing for divorce. A suit for the alienation of Mrs. Corwin's affections also was threatened. To avert a scandal "Colonel Jack" offered $25,000 in settlement. The sum of $50,000 was demanded, and "Colonel Jack" balked. Then the jewels were "stolen."

King says he doesn't think the jewels were stolen at all. He says the same jewels disappeared in London once before, and a certain New York millionaire paid $25,000 to redeem them.

WHEN HUNDREDS OF WOMEN

Voluntarily endorse Hostetter's Stomach Bitters there can be no reason for doubting its ability to cure them. We therefore urge every woman who needs a strengthening and toning medicine to try

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS

At once. "You'll receive immediate and lasting benefits. It cures Cramps, Backache, Dizziness, Headache, Constipation, Diarrhoea, Dyspepsia and Indigestion."

FOREST FIRES RAGING

Flames Destroying Valuable Timber on Santiam in Marion and Linn Counties

An enormous fire is raging along the line of the Corvallis & Eastern railroad on the North Santiam river, in Linn and Marion counties. The fire started Wednesday at a water tank on the C. & E., in Marion county and has been rapidly spreading since.

Several hundred men are fighting the fires today and back fires are being resorted to.

A fire train, with a large number of woodsmen, went to the scene of the fire yesterday morning and the men fought the raging flames all day but made little or no progress in checking the march of the fire. This train returned to Albany at midnight last night and left again early this morning. The fighters were recruited at Mill City by the addition of a force of 75 men from the employes of the Curtis Lumber Company.

The land on which most of the burning timber is located belongs to the C. Sullivan estate and to John Daly, Detroit. The timber is considered among the most valuable on the Santiam river.

The fire is near the tracks of the C. & E., but the property of the railroad is not considered in any danger. The property of the Curtis Lumber Company, however, is in great danger and will soon be destroyed if the flames are not checked.

The burning of the big fir trees at night on the high hills is described as being a grand spectacle.

Only 82 Years Old.

"I am only 82 years old and don't expect even when I get to be real old to feel that way as long as I can get Electric Bitters," says Mrs. E. H. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. Surely there's nothing else keeps the old as young and makes the weak as strong as this grand tonic medicine. Dyspepsia, torpid liver, inflamed kidneys or chronic constipation are unknown after taking Electric Bitters a reasonable time. Guaranteed by J. C. Perry, Druggist. Price 50c.

Will Bring Students With Him.

Professor Coghill returned last Thursday evening from Salem, where he had been for several days looking after the position that had been offered him as professor in Willamette University. He was pleased with the conditions there, and accepted the place. While there he rented a house, and is now packing up and preparing to move at once. Several of his students here will go with him.—Forest Grove Times.

Making Surveys.

R. L. Allen, of the state engineering department, passed through the city today on his way to Sandy river, where he goes to make hydrographic surveys. He will then proceed to the Nehalem river. He was on his return from the Siletz country, where he has been gathering data for the state.

"Pat" Goes to Baker.

C. N. McArthur, politician, lawyer, hopgrower and journalist, left yesterday afternoon for Baker City to devote himself exclusively to the practice of law. He will go into partnership with Senator Rand. "Pat's" friends here, at Rickreall and in Portland will wish him success in the mining town.

Raise Pears Only.

G. A. Hoover, of Medford, is in the city today. He is a prominent fruit grower, and is of the opinion that this section of Oregon will eventually raise pears only.

Optician

Bifocal lenses near-sighted and far-sighted lenses made to order.

Gold and Gold Filled Frames

Also made to order. Our prices you will find reasonable.

Chas. H. Hinges

Jewelers and Optician
123 Commercial St.

STATE NEWS

Ashland's city park is to be beautified and made the prettiest in Oregon, says the Ashland Tidings.

Hay laborers in Benton county are scarce, and in a number of instances the women of the family are joining in the work.

The Free Methodists are holding a camp meeting at Woodburn.

The school population of Wasco county is 5473.

Roseburg will hold a district fair, beginning September 4th. They will also hold a street carnival in connection with it.

A party of boys from The Dalles have just finished a walk of 61 miles up in the vicinity of Mount Hood. The boys carried their provisions on their backs.

Mrs. Georgia Pierce, wife of T. J. Pierce, of Pendleton, committed suicide Wednesday evening at her home by shooting herself through the heart with a 22-calibre revolver.

The Lebanon public schools have decided to raise the grade of the high school and establish two more grades making a twelve-grade school. The Lebanon Academy building has been leased and the 11th and 12th grades will be maintained there.

Sol Dill, an old prospector of Timber canyon, near Baker City, was found dead in the doorway of his cabin by two men Monday evening. The body was so badly decomposed that for several days it was uncertain as to the identity of the man. He owned several good claims.

Hop Contracts.

More hop contracts were filed yesterday with the county recorder. The prices ranged from 10 1/2 cents to 12 cents per pound, and the buyers were Klaber, Wolf and Netter, of Portland.

Collinson Bros., of Woodburn, 10,000 pounds at 12 cents.

S. W. Jones and Chas. Grosblain, of Gervais, 10,000 pounds at 10 1/2 cents.

Henry Seaton, of Buena Vista, 6,000 pounds at 10 1/2 cents.

Patrick Mullen, of St. Paul, 20,000 pounds at 11 cents.

George B. McClellan, of St. Louis, 10,000 pounds at 12 cents.

S. W. Jones and John LaChapelle, of Gervais, 10,000 pounds at 10 1/2 cents.

T. J. Kerr, of St. Paul, 6,000 pounds at 11 cents.

Will Build Residence.

Antone Cline is making preparations to move and remodel his cottage on Oak street, near 12th in Yew Park. He also will build another neat residence on his property there.

It is not MEET for you to buy MEAT of inferior quality when you can get GOOD MEAT that you will relish when you MEET for your meal, just by ordering your MEAT of Doe & Kurtz
177 Commercial Phone 285

SAFE AND BETTER

Never send money by mail. A bank draft is always safer; it is also better in other ways. We sell the drafts; they are good throughout the United States and Canada.

Salem State Bank

L. K. PAGE, President
E. W. HAZARD, Cashier

X-RAYS

This seems to fit conditions. "His ancestors achieved millions."

Mrs. Cassie Chadwick, if she only had the opportunity, might "achieve" Gas Addicks.

FOR THE SUMMER THIRST.

Fortune for Inventor of Nonalcoholic Satisfying Drink.

(L. J. W. in New York Sun.)

Why doesn't some shrewd American with an eye to the profits and a tongue to refreshing taste, produce a satisfactory nonintoxicating drink? None of the hundreds we have answers the purpose, because, all of them contain more sugar than a refreshing summer drink should have. To offset the sugar some of the nonintoxicants are dosed with acid. Lemonade, for example, which is supposed to be a great thirst satisfier, doesn't do much more than cool off the drinker for a few moments, and the sugar that is in it excites him to greater thirst. This is noticeable of all sweet drinks.

On the other hand, the intoxicants, as a rule, are served without sugar, and even when whisky has sugar in it the wise old drinker looks upon it with suspicion. What is needed in the line of a satisfactory nonintoxicant is a palatable bitter. Most of us remember a home-brewed beer which our mothers used to make that was good to the taste, but one never finds that on sale, though it is still made in many parts of the country for home use. That, however, lacks the proper bitter, which is, or should be, an excitant of the salivary glands, so that when taken into the mouth it would take away that gummy feeling and make the mouth fresh and keep it moist.

There are various vegetable bitters, such as hops, cinchona, gentian, quassa, and others, which might be utilized in the preparation of a good nonintoxicant which would do the work of ordinary beer or ale—than which there are few better thirst quenchers, although the alcohol in them sets up a degree of heat which about offsets the good effect. For years I have tried to interest druggists with soda fountains to invent the right nonintoxicant on the bitter principle, and while they have admitted its need they have done nothing to supply it, at least as far I have known. So far nearly every nonintoxicant has a sarsaparilla base, and just why is not apparent to me, unless sarsaparilla's reputation as a blood purifier is a good thing to advertise with.

There are dozens of other flavoring extracts quite as good in every way and some much better, but the inventor of new drinks sticks to the old things. Why don't the temperance workers, instead of wearing themselves out trying to stop the sale of intoxicants, direct their energies to the production of a nonintoxicant which, though not stimulating, will quench the thirst?

The long felt want to be filled is a bitter at 5 cents a glass, which is beer without the alcohol. The man or woman who invents it will get a fortune, not to mention a wide reputation as a public benefactor.

Baseball Players and Foot Racers!

Louis J. Kruger, ex-champion long distance foot racer of Germany and Holland, writes, October 27, 1901:

"During my training of eight weeks' foot races at Salt Lake City, in April last, I used Ballard's Snow Liniment to my greatest satisfaction. Therefore, I highly recommend Snow Liniment to all who are troubled with sprains, bruises or rheumatism." 25c, 50c and $1. Sold by D. J. Fry.

A traveling man, who has sold goods up and down the Willamette valley for the past 15 years, was in the city yesterday, and reports it as his opinion that this fall will mark the biggest trade ever known in this region. He corroborates what is generally known, that every kind of a crop is a bumper. The farmers have never seen such results for their labors, and prices promise to be good in every line. There never was so much hay, and the prices are not as low as in some years when there was much less. Fruit of all kinds is abundant, and a ready market for all has been evidenced. The hop crop is superb, and the present prospect is for a 20-cent price, or even better. So it is right down the catalog of products—plenty of it and good prices. This means prosperity for the farmer and for the towns alike.

The Side Delivery Clover Windrower and Buncher

Attaches to the cutter bar of any mower, and delivers the hay in continuous windrow at the rear of the machine, or in bunches, as desired. They thus get the hay out of the way for the horses for the next round, and do not gather up a lot of dead trash, as does the common rake. The clover is saved that would otherwise be lost and the seed is not scattered in raking or tramped out by the horses on the next round. With the outer end shoe will also handle vetch to perfection. Call and inspect.

Plymouth Binder Twine

The most popular twine on the market on account of its even texture and good quality. We have sold an unusual quantity this season, and have won over any number of new customers.

F. A. Wiggins

IMPLEMENT HOUSE

Farm Machinery of all sorts, Vehicles, Bicycles and Sewing Machines, Salem, Oregon.

W. E. Wann, of Salem, who recently bought a fine place near Newport, went over yesterday noon to spend a couple of weeks at the farm. His family is now at the Lincoln county home.... Rev. R. M. Mesick, of Salem, was in the city for a couple of hours yesterday, and left on the Lebanon train for Berlin to conduct meetings there. Rev. Mesick is a minister of the Christian church.... Mr. and Mrs. H. Graves, of Salem, came up on yesterday's noon train for a visit in this city.... Grant Holt, of Salem, came up last night for a brief stay in this city on business.... T. J. Gardner, of Salem, came up yesterday for a short visit in Albany on business.—Albany Herald.

Funeral of Emanuel Wolfe.

The funeral of the late Emanuel Wolfe, who died at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Armstrong, on Liberty street, Wednesday afternoon, will be held at 4 o'clock today from the Armstrong residence. Rev. Duane Errett, of the Christian church, will officiate, and the interment will be in the I. O. F. cemetery. Mr. Wolfe resided near Falls City, where he had a large farm. He recently suffered a severe paralytic stroke and, after two weeks' illness succumbed. He leaves a wife, a son, of this city, and two daughters, Mrs. Rosa McCornick, of Klamath Falls, and Miss Belle Wolfe, of Falls City. Mr. Wolfe was about 63 years of age.

CAMPER'S OUTFITS AND Hop Picking Supplies

When in need of camp stools, tables, bed springs or furniture of any kind, we can please you and save you money. Hop baskets, tents, stoves and ranges, ice chests, hardware, etc., both new and second-hand. The articles will please you and you will buy at our prices.

J. N. SHANTZ, 373 COURT STREET

FREE

New Book on Walnut Culture

Describes OUR SPECIAL STRAIN OF FRANQUETTES

The HARDEST AND BEST WALNUT For the Northwest.

Book by mail on application

OREGON NURSERY CO.

SALEM, OREGON