$5,000 Reward

will be paid to any person who can find one atom of opium, chloral, morphine, cocaine, ether or chloroform or their derivatives in any of Dr. Miles' Remedies.

This reward is offered because certain unscrupulous persons make false statements about these remedies. It is understood that this reward applies only to goods purchased in the open market, which have not been tampered with.

Dr. Miles' remedies cure by their strengthening and invigorating effect upon the nervous system, and not by weakening the nerves.

going to elope to Alaska. Stork met the woman on a train coming from Great Falls, Montana, several weeks ago. They stopped in Spokane, went to the same boarding-house and began a courtship.

Stork came here and conducted his establishment, corresponded with her less than two weeks and then proposed by mail. He sent her $250 to buy a wedding trousseau. When he went to Spokane she told him the trunk containing her gowns had been stolen. He gave her $200 more for goods.

Yesterday when she asked him what he would do if he should find her living with another man, Stork said he would kill them both. She told him of her plans, then packed her trunks and deserted.

She told him she had broken three hearts and when she broke his it would complete a quartet. She had received since her engagement and marriage $500 from him.

The woman was divorced 19 weeks ago from James Werrell at Boise. She resumed her maiden name of Nellie Ellvedge. Stork was divorced at Great Falls two months ago.

Smiles

Keystone will erect two public buildings. Contracts let in August.

The principal business street of Baker City is to be paved.

No complaint about wheat crop, hop crop, or hay crop. bumper crops all around.

The Eugene Bon Marche will August 5th will pay railroad fare of all customers who buy goods there.

Aurorians ought to be happy. They have Sunday band concerts and are now to have ice works.

The next Washington legislature will be asked to appropriate $200,000 in exploiting the resources of that state.

"Pass the butter" may mean two very different things. That a great deal of so-called butter deserves to be passed is a sad fact.

Astorian: Anyone who is able to dig up a good, healthy thought or spread a smile once in a while will never lack pleasant occupation.

Larger crop of paper railroads than usual last week in Oregon. Never mind, some of them will heat up and be ready for harvest after awhile.

The Oregonian suggests that Salem ministers get in and roist the Sunday band concerts across the river. Salem ministers have more sense than that.

Er-President of Ecuador offers to sell Galapagos Islands to the United States. We need a lot more islands to make places for a lot of our unemployed politicians.

There are no orphanages in Australia. Every child not supported by parents becomes a ward of the state, is placed in a private family and provided with board and clothes until the 14th birthday.

Pendleton Tribune: The strike in the necktie factory in New York may deprive us of our usual Christmas gift. But if the slipper makers continue at work we will not be entirely forgotten.

To appreciate others requires intelligence, and there is only one reason why there is not more appreciation of the good in others. We are not looking for good so much as defects.

One way to make money is to get all your neighbors to trade with you and then when you have any trading to do, go to Portland, Chicago, New York, or wherever you can save ten cents. Too many Salemites are guilty.

A few days ago it seemed certain that a railroad across country from Salem to Dallas would be built this fall and winter, but late advice is to the effect that the project has gone blanketing.—Western Oregon. Another transportation chimera.

Judge Stewart, formerly of Stewart & Co., says business has increased wonderfully at Albany the first month that the city is dry. He may reckon and go into business. Now would be a good time to get in. He would undoubtedly be successful.

Albany Democrat: The Oregonian gives an interesting account of politicians after the war of Senator Fulton, occasionally besieged. Recently one day there were J. M. Shelley and G. A. Westgate, who want to be collector of customs, W. L. Tomlinson, G. S. Wright, Senator B. P. Jones, J. S. Cooper, Alex Lafollette and in fact all wanting something for themselves or friends.

At a meeting in Tillamook last week some improvements were discussed. Some attention was given to the ladies' committee reported. Mrs. Harrison said there were a lot of back yards and vacant lots which had not been cleaned up and she thought it was the duty of the city council, and the ladies, to compel people to do that. For several years there had been a nuisance from the Tillamook creamery, she said, which ought to be put a stop to, that of near when kicking up a small when Coroner Reynolds said was no use what. Mrs. Harrison thought that the ladies had enough to do to look after their own husbands without having to see that the back yard and vacant lots were cleaned up.

A Hard Lot of trouble to contend with, spring from a rascal bear and blackhead boys, whom you advise them to their proper roles with Dr. King's New Life Pills; the pleasant and most effective cure for Constipation. They prevent Appendicitis and ease up the system. See at J. C. Perry's, Druggist.

Woman's Trials.

The bitter trail in a woman's life is to be childless. Who can tell how hard the struggle may have been she learnt to resign herself to her lonely lot? The absence of this link to kind marital life is a common affliction of this age. Many unfortunate couples, separated by death, find themselves together, the absence of this one pledge to mutual affection is a common affliction of this age. Many unfortunate couples, separated by death, find themselves together, the absence of this one pledge to mutual affection is a common affliction of this age.
