SALEM'S GROWING STORE

A Cheerful Merchant Who is Happy in His Vast Business

It is always refreshing to find an optimistic business man, and it would do any one good these days to walk into the Chicago Store, where everybody is busy and consequently happy. Mr. James McEvoy, the manager of this store, says that, notwithstanding the dull season, their July trade far exceeded that of any previous month in their career, even in the busy spring months. He considers this one of the best signs that we are to experience the heaviest year's business in Salem's history after the present crops are harvested.

"Last year," says Mr. McEvoy, "some of our most staple crops were light, and the bottom dropped out of the hop market, while prices for the other products were not high. This year the crops are abundant in every line, and the promise of prices is above the average, consequently there will be good times this fall, and plenty of money. Last year all the spare cash was carried to Portland by the Lewis and Clark fair, while this fall the people can spend it at home."

Mr. McEvoy's row of clerks on either side of his large store, as well as those in the balconies, are busy as bees, and he is constantly commanding a better class of trade.
 The stocks are selected by expert buyers from the large Eastern wholesale houses, and contain everything that can be desired by the great middle class, as well as by the ladies of wealth and fashion. Mr. McEvoy employs only the most competent of help, and prides himself on paying the best of salaries to all his people.
 Inspection of stock is invited, and patronage solicited.

Two cases of spotted fever have appeared in Baker county, the victims being a young lady school teacher and rancher. It is commonly believed that spotted fever comes from the bite of the sage tick, and is incurable, unless checked in the very first stage. The victim wastes slowly away, and the skin becomes a blotch of red spots, until the flesh dries up. It is feared both the man and the woman will die.

EUROPEAN SENSATIONS.

Are With the Great Forepaugh-Sells Circus Coming Soon.

The great Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers Circus with the newly added fire show spectacle "Fighting the Flames," will exhibit here Wednesday, August 22.

This circus has always enjoyed the confidence of the public, because everything new, sensational and exclusive that circus invention produced the world over was always to be found in the enormous program offered. This year the enormous circus has been added to in size of the tents, number of people employed, horses used, animals collected and in many other ways until it looks as if the limit of human endeavor had been achieved. The hippodrome tent is the largest ever made, and will comfortably accommodate 12,000 people. The menagerie annex is almost as big, and shelters more than 100 cages, dens and lairs of the rarest wild animals. This department of the big shows is singularly impressive, because it exhibits not only more rarely seen wild creatures, but many of these specimens are to be found nowhere else in captivity. A fierce bi-horned rhinoceros, the rarest and most expensive of all wild beasts, is in this collection, as are two great fanlike eared elephants of African origin, a blood-exuding hippopotamus, three herds of elephants, full-grown and symmetrical types, and a nursery of baby wild animals, like kitten tigers, cub-lions, quaintly hopping kangaroos, floundering seals, light-eyed leop-ards, homely hyenas and so on. All of the artists, or nearly so, in the big arena program are fresh faces to the circus patron of this country, and make their first appearance to woo American laurels under the auspices of the great Adam Forepaugh and Sells Brothers' management.

One thousand people are employed, one way and another, and 100 acts most of them new features, are in the huge program.

Reserved seat tickets and admission tickets will be sold at the downtown ticket office of Forepaugh-Sells Brothers' show day.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube.
 When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, fee.
