RAUROAD GROWTH.

The Tacoma Ledger remarks ed!torially that American railways earning more than $40,000,000 each in 1905 numbered sixteen, ten of which earned over $50,000,000, and one, the Pennslyvania railroad almost $135,000,000. Five years ago, according to the Railway Age, only nine of the sixteen companies earned as much as $40,000,000, and three reached $50,000,000.

An enormous growth in earning power in half a decade is shown by track, but gained 88 per cent in his opinion. earnings. The Great Northern pushed its track total from 5,417 miles sixteen companies the increased mileage was from 76,239 miles to 92,334 miles, a gain of 21 per cent, than the mileage was that of the Rock Island, where the lines operated increased 89 per cent, while the earnings gained only 73 per cent.

This statement by the Ledger is timely considering that growth in street railway is now a live question in Scattle. Steam and trolley lines differ in many respects, but in growth they are much alike. Both gain by expansion.

It is noteworthy that four of the great earners in the above table are connected directly with the Pacific coast.

"CASEY" ON THE LINKS. (Denver Republican.)

The links were bright and bonny, wi' the tartan and the plaid. When the pride o' Skibo village met the best St. Andrew had; The play was fast and furious, and sair the ball was thwacked. And in the final test o' skill, one point McLain lacked.

The caddles stood wi' bater breath and every face was set, For not a man was in the crowd but had his hair siler bet: And one lad cried, as wi' his stick,

Maclaren loomed up tall; Hoot, mon! now show 'em hoo Old Skibo kills the ball!"

The gowfer lookit at the sky, and then down at the dirt. And cannily he weighed his stick and loosed his plaid and shirt; He slowly planted both his feet, and then replanted each. And dinna doot he swung his arms as high as he could reach.

Grim death at just that moment would have been Maclaren's wish For the atmosphere resounded t that mighty, empty swish; His stick flew like a rocket, but-alas, the woe decreed-The ball rolled two feet, sickly, when It just lay doon and deed.

Oh, somewhere in our bonny land the pipes skirl all the day. And somewhere lads and lassies shout, and men are passing gay; But we are dour in Skibo, and no joy is hereaboot,

Since the day, when, like one Casey, our Maclaren foozled oot.
