WHAT A FINEST EDITOR NEW.

(From Journal.) We understand that quite a number of Portland ladies have been taken to working weeks without making any fuss about it, and find them so good and comfortable that the lady is rapidly growing.

TEN CENTS DAMAGE.

Broken Engagement Justified Because It Was Discovered False Hair.

Berlin, Aug. 7.—Francis Nisi estimator has won her suit for breach of promise, but the damages have only been assessed at 10 cents. This isn't because her sweetheart, Gustave Weichmann, is or was a 10-cent sweetheart, but because the judge thought Gustave was justified, all but 10 cents' worth, in breaking his engagement to marry the fair Nisi.

Several boatmen were seen on the scene and Gustave allowed them to do the rowing. He went home, and, refusing to have anything more to do with Nisi's of the golden locks, she sued him. The judge agreed that he need not carry out his promise, but he must pay 10 cents, also the costs, and the presents need not be returned.

A DEAD BEAT.

Cross of The Legion of Honor Refused the Famous Actress.

Chicago, Aug. 7.—The Daily News Paris correspondent, giving the inside history of the refusal of the Cross of the Legion of Honor to Miss Sarah Bernhardt, says: Her financial carelessness, which constitutes the greatest possible stain on a person's character, turns out to be the reason why the chancellery of the Legion of Honor has again refused the cross to Sarah Bernhardt. The decision is permanent. A member of the council of the order told just correspondent today that the monance of M. Brand, minister of public worship and instruction, will result in a dispute that may end in the abandonment of the order, since both sides are in an official position and it is an undemocratic institution was never stronger than now.

Given City of Paris. Bernhardt has never paid the slightest attention to her obligations to the city of Paris, from which she receives her theatre. It used to pay into the treasury several thousand francs annually.

When pains or irritation exist on any part of the body, the application of Ballard's Snow Lotion gives prompt relief. E. W. Sullivan, Prop. Sullivan House, El Paso, Tex., writes, June 8, 1916: "I take pleasure in recommending Ballard's Snow Lotion to all who are afflicted with rheumatism. It is the only remedy I have found that gives immediate relief." 15c, 50c, and $1.00. For sale by D. J. Fry, Salem, Or.

International Gloveworkers' Convention. Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 7.—Twenty-five delegates representing the various organizations of the glove workers of the United States and Canada are in attendance at the annual convention of the International Glove Workers' Union, which opened here today.

Ohio Falls Business Meeting. New Albany, Ind., Aug. 7.—The nineteenth annual meeting of the Ohio Falls Business association opened today on the camp-meeting grounds on the Silver Hills west of here, at the terminus of the Highland division and Southern Indiana Traction company.

CRAZE FOR SNEEZEETS. Frivolous Choosing of Airy Trifles Mark Present Day Bargain Hunt.

London, Aug. 7.—The sales this year are like a monster lumpy bag. Wherever one dips in an eager hand one draws out a prize. Choosing blindfold, one may decide where to begin; otherwise, never.

Seabonnets' Real, old-fashioned seabonnets in pale green, pink and blue and white, crested and tied in country style, will catch the eye of the river maiden a-bout for notions in Knickerbocker. Free and let prices could not be more picturesque.

Life drifts of driven snow the Bazar's line of dress gowns; French models, hand embroidered, lace inset, backed in fairy patterns and fresh as though no finger worked a stitch. "Half price" pervades the atmosphere of this display.

One of the thickest charms of the noble sport of bargain hunting is the varied spirit in which it may be pursued. It may be a frivolous shopping of airy trifles, belts, neck chains, combs and what not, or a solemn re-arranging of wardrobe necessities, or again a haphazard collection of things which may and must come in for some use or other ere seven years be out.

A vigorous beating of Grand street brings game, both large and small, to light. Foxes are the mark of the predator. Fox-lined cloth or tweed coats at $4 and $6 guineas seem acquisitions of the white elephant order, but in three months' time, who knows? The fender of the latest fad is boreside Anglian lace gowns may wish to skin the had down half so well. Martin wraps and marmot stoles slide down the scale from 4 or 6 guineas to 17 shillings; so, to high pitch when north winds blow and November grows chilly. Shoes may be classed with the purchases of the look-before-you-leapers. They have an engaging way of combining such generally unobtainable properties as smartness, 10 and 5 pence, and long wear-resisting life.

No, doubt, possibly in the hold of some puffing steamer came over to London town the oriental hangings, the brass and lacquer ware, the eastern potteries, and bric-a-brac. Yet one thinks of white-sailed argosies and private captains of fearful men, and everything else that is romantic and unlikely, as one wanders through the sandal-wood scented bazars.

Iowa Democratic Convention. Waterloo, Ia., Aug. 7.—The Democratic state convention of Iowa met this forenoon in the large auditorium at Chautauqua park, on the Waterloo-Cedar Falls interurban line, two miles from here. The new auditorium, which seats 4000 people and accommodates 6000 persons, was crowded to its full capacity when the convention was called to order. The reason is that many of the counties sent double delegations, each delegate voted with the right of casting one-half of one vote. No since has been made so in advance, but it is believed that George Ball, of Iowa, City will be nominated for governor. He is a prominent lawyer and has represented the Democracy of Johnson county in the state senate four or five terms.

Cures Sciatica. Rev. W. L. Riley, M.D., Cuba, New York, writes: "After fifteen days of excruciating pain from sciatic rheumatism, under various treatments, I was induced to try Ballard's Snow Lotion; the first application giving my first relief and the second entire relief. I can give it unqualified recommendation. 15c, 50c, and $1.00. For sale by D. J. Fry.

Virginia Lawyers Enjoy Outing. Hot Springs, Va., Aug. 7.—The Virginia State Bar association met here today for a three days session, which is also to be the nature of an outing. The attendance is quite large and among those present are many distinguished members of the bench and the bar among them Justice Brewer of the United States supreme court, Judge A. A. Proctor, president of the association, Michael Woods of Charlottesville, five years attorney for the commonwealth; E. M. Jackson of Washington, D. C.; W. T. Shields of Lexington and others. Many of them will deliver addresses before the meetings.

It Costs Nothing

To find out for a certainty whether or not your heart is affected. One person in four has a weak heart. It may be you. If so, you should know it now, and save serious consequences. If you have short breath, fluttering, palpitation, hungry spells, hot flashes; if you cannot lie on left side; if you have fainting or smothering spells, pain around heart, in side and arms, your heart is weak, and perhaps diseased. Dr. Miles' Heart Cure will relieve you. Try a bottle, and see how quickly your condition will improve.

"About a year ago I wrote to the Miles Medical Co. asking advice, as I was suffering with heart trouble, and had been for two years. I had pain in my heart, back and left side, and had not been able to draw a deep breath for two years. Any little exertion would cause palpitation, and I could not lie on my left side without suffering. They advised me to try Dr. Miles' Heart Cure and Nervine, which I did with the result that I am in better health than I ever was before, having gained 14 pounds since I commenced taking it. I took about thirteen bottles of the two medicines, and have been benefited with my heart since." MRS. LILLIE THOMAS, Upper Sandusky, Ohio.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails he will refund your money. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.
