The Recordings of the Social Set, for the Past Week

Now that the season of "Out of ors" and the formal affairs of the wing room are no longer upper- st in social importance, the wise tess is devising many unique out- r affairs. And from now on, until cool weather of fall it is likely number of these delightful affairs increase. At no other function so great a number of people be easily entertained as at an after- n tea or reception, and what is a den party, but a compromise be- een the two, with an el fresco set- g?

For a formal garden party the in- tations should be engraved and are ed in the name of the hostess or dependently, or together with the st. For a less elaborate entertain- nt, partaking more of an informal ction, a hostess may use her own iting cards, writing under name, Garden Party," Aug. 30th from four seven o'clock. When only a few ends are invited, a hostess may ite notes to each

This entertainment may be plan- d on a simple or elaborate scale, d one is quite as enjoyable as an- her. An unpretentious suburban country home with pretty grounds kes on a most attractive and fes- e air under these circumstances. deed, where there is not an air of rmality, many people find the occa- n more enjoyable.

The grounds should be made to k their best, and the grass and rubbery put in first class condition gs should be spread on the lawn h its furnishings consisting of irs, settes, tables, ets. Hammocks uld swing from under the trees. e verandas should be also be made attractive as possible, and where y are wide, it is very easy. Rugs uld be placed on the steps.

The hostess, and also the women sts, wear their most stunning ilettes, hats and parasols. The stess may suit her fancy whether e wears a hat, or simply uses a nshade.

Men wear the regulation afternoon ress, white flannel, silk shirts and straw hats. The latter style is usual- affected except for formal parties.

Small tables and chairs are group- d over the lawn where the guests ay sit in merry little groups and artake of refreshments. As the urs are from four till seven, noth- g substantial in the way of refresh- nts is offered.

At less formal functions, where the rty is gotten up without the servi- s of a professional caterer, it is a etty custom to invite several young ls to assist in pouring the tea, rving the punch, or ices, whatever may be.

A subtle charm lingers about an ening garden fete, however, that found lacking in one in the after- on. Possibly is it the sombreness the background in contrast to the very rays the moon casts on the ole picture, especially on the deli- te dresses of the women, the soft llow glow of the Japanese lan- rns, the sweet fragrance of the wers, that gives the scene its fairy- e beauty—the witchery of night.

Lewis-Shepard Wedding.

Prominent among the weddings of e summer season was that of Miss ss Elizabeth Shepard and Mr. hn H. Lewis of this city, which k place at the farm home of the de's parents in Zena, Polk county, ednesday, August 8th. Only the atives and a few intimate friends nessed the pretty ceremony.

The house was decorated with a fusion of summer blossoms sweet as and roses predominating. Ferns d vine maple also added to the ect. The ceremony was performed der a lover's knot of smilax and ite tulle. Promptly at the hour of o'clock Miss Edith Ketchum play- Lohengrin's wedding march, and e bridal party entered the front rior, where Rev. H. T. Babcock, stor of the First Presbyterian urch of Salem performed the ring remony. The bride was lovely in r wedding gown of white French n, embellished with shadow em- idery. She carried a shower bou- et of white carnations. The brides- aid, Miss Alice Shepard, sister of e bride was gowned in a pretty te organdie and carried pink car- tions. The groom was attended Mr. Paul Wallace of this city.

After the ceremony, a wedding uncheon was served. The Misses etta Phillips, Ruth Shepard and ma Woods, assisted in the serv- g.

The young couple were the recipi- ts of many handsome and costly sents.

Both are well known young people of this city. The bride has lived in and near this city all her life, at- tended the Willamette university, and has taught in the Salem public schools. About a year ago, she was elected to a position in the Pendle- ton high school, which position she held with great credit, winning many new friends.

The groom is a Portland man, but has made his home in this city for the past two years. He holds the re- sponsible postion as state engineer.

The young couple left Wednesday for Portland, where they will visit the grooms parents, after which they will spend their honeymoon in Cali- fornia.

They will be home to their friends after September 20th, at 415 North Capital street.

Schunke-Rich Wedding.

The wedding of Miss Lydie Rich and Mr. G. B. Schunke took place Tuesday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Rich, in North Salem.

The rooms were artistically decor- ated with festoons of crepe paper and garlands of ivy. Rev. F. Hermann, pastor of the German Baptist church, of this city, performed the ceremony in the presence of about 35 relatives and intimate friends.

The bride was attended by Miss Eliza Roy, of Stayton, as bridesmaid, and Mr. Silas Rich, brother of the bride, was the groom's best man. Miss Anna Pigler played the wedding march, and during the ceremony Miss Ida Stege and Mr. Chas. Roth sang the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin.

The bride wore a handsome cos- tume of silk organdy with trimmings of all-over lace, and carried white carnations. The bridesmaid was al- so gowned in white.

After the ceremony, a wedding dinner was served and the young couple left immediately afterwards on the overland train for California, en route to the East, where they will spend their honeymoon, visiting all the prominent cities of the Eastern states.

The bride is well-known in this city, and is a handsome and accom- plished young woman. She has been engaged in teaching French in this city for a number of years. The groom has been in Alaska for the past three years, where he has been teaching, but is now a resident of Seattle, where they will reside.

At Newport-by-the-Sea.

A greater part of Salem's social loving people have been transferred over to Newport, the popular summer recort of the northwest. It is in- deed a pleasant place over there, where clam bakes, moonlight picnics and strolls are the order of the day. Many of Salem's families own cot- tages at this place, and are entertain- ing extensively. It is indeed a pleas- ure to be invited to spend a week at one of them. Among some of them who are at home over there are Hon. C. B. Moores, Claud Gatch, E. Hofer, J. P. Frizzell, N. J. Damon, R. B. Fleming, George Gray, J. F. Cal- breath, George Collins, A. N. Moores, Mrs. J. A. Carson and many others.

Ex-Governor Lord and Squire Far- rar with their families are at Seal Rocks.

The Maples.

This continues to be the popular resort for Salem and surrounding country. The grounds are growing better all the time, and the condi- tions better in every way. The boys now have a mascot in the way of a cub bear, which is the delight of children and old folks alike. The launches are being constantly im- proved, and the "Coloma" has been chartered to go on the run this ev- ening at 6:30 and remaining over Sunday. The crowds are growing in numbers from day to day, and include many of the best people of Salem. Take your family or friends and visit Salem's only outing resort.

A VETERAN OF THE SPANISH WAR

Expresses His Great Faith In Pe-ru-na.

Pe-ru-na Is a Tonic Especially Adapted to the Prevention and Re- lief of All Catarrhal Ailments Due to the Vicissitudes of Climate and Exposure Experienced by the Soldier.

An Old Soldier's Praise.

Mr. F. R. Cox, Center Oak, Pa., writes: "I was taken with hemorrhages of the stomach and had from one to three a year.

"The doctors said my stomach could not be cured, and it was only a question of how soon one of these spells would kill me, and I was given up several times, as they had no hopes for me.

"I finally wrote to you, and you said if it was not a cancer or a tumor, Peruna would cure me.

"I commenced taking Peruna right away, and have never had one of those spells since.

"I am an old soldier, one of Phil Sheri- dan's Rough Riders, and pretty nearly played out now, but I have a pretty good stomach again."

Assistant War Correspondent Rec- ommends Pe-ru-na.

Mr. H. B. Manley, Assistant War Cor- respondent during the war in China, care "Black and White," 688 Craig St., Montreal, Canada, writes:

"When a man travels in extremely hot or cold climates, he realizes how valua- ble a friend he has if he carries a bottle of Peruna.

"I know of no article in my traveling outfit which I have learned to praise higher.

"If you are suffering with the ex- treme heat, Peruna restores you, or if you are afflicted with a cold, la grippe or bronchitis, Peruna restores you in a short time.

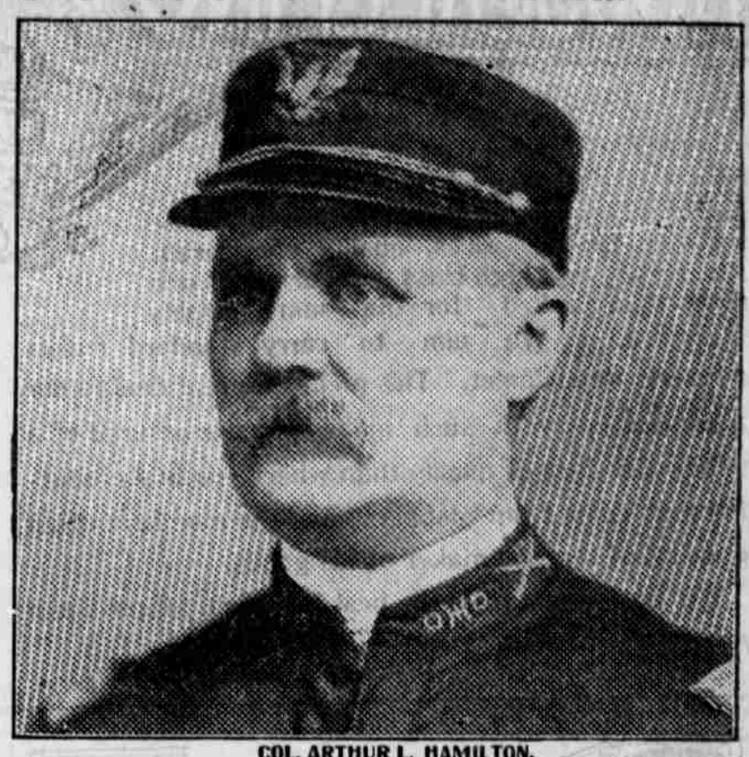
"Or if you suffer with sleeplessness or if your appetite is poor, again Peruna acts as a good, true friend and is the tonic needed.

"I have tried it for months and am only too glad to acknowledge it as a true, loyal standby in times of trouble. I do not hesitate to recommend it to all."

Able to Work At the Age of Seventy- Three Years.

I. T. Markland, a well-known busi- ness man of Cincinnati, O., address R. R. No. 1, Mt. Washington, Ohio, writes:

"I find that in my case Peruna is a flesh builder. I am now at work every day, and have gained ten pounds. I took your Peruna according to directions and the result was more than I expected. I took no other medicine but Peruna, and it accomplished all. You told me in your first letter that you thought Peruna would cure me and it has. I am seventy-three years old and can attend to my business as usual."



COL. ARTHUR L. HAMILTON.

Gallant Porto Rican Soldier Gives Praise to Pe-ru-na.

Col. Arthur L. Hamilton, of the Seventh Ohio Volunteers, writes from 259 Goodale St., Columbus, O., as follows:

"Besides having the merits of Peruna fully demonstrated in my fam- ily, I have a number of friends who have taken it for catarrh and stom- ach trouble and all unite in praising it. As a remedy for catarrh, I can fully recommend it."

In a later letter to Dr. Hartman, Col. Hamilton writes:

"My command used your Peruna during our service in the Spanish- American War and I will say this, that if the War Department records are consulted, it will be found that the casualities in my regiment were less than in any other regiment of the Army Corps while at Camps Alger, Meade and Bushnell. The total deaths in my regiment, during the seven months' service, were seven out of a total number of 1400. I, of course, cannot help but think that Peruna certainly was a great benefit to my command."

In a recent letter, Col. Hamilton says:

"I have used Peruna myself and in my family for the last seven years. I have already written you about the good results I experienced with your remedy during the Spanish-American War."

In old age the mucous membranes be- come thickened and partly lose their function.

This leads to partial loss of hearing, smell and taste, as well as digestive dis- turbances.

Peruna corrects all this by its efficient operation on all the mucous membranes of the body.

One bottle will convince anyone. Once used and Peruna becomes a life-long stand-by with old and young.

For free medical advice, address Dr. S. B. Hartman, President of The Hart- man Sanitarium, Columbus, O. All cor- respondence held strictly confidential.

Mr. Fred Derseweh, Ridgetop, Tenn., writes:

"We have been using Peruna for five years. I believe that it is the best med- icine that I know of.

"I and my wife and our thirteen chil- dren do not need any doctor, since we use Peruna."

Pe-ru-na Contains No Narcotics.

One reason why Peruna has found permanent use in so many homes is that it contains no narcotic of any kind.

Peruna has no bad effect upon the system, and gradually eliminates ca- tarrh by removing the cause of the catarrh.

Geo. F. Rodgers and family re- turned home to Salem Monday, after a pleasant outing at the beach.

R. R. Fleming of Salem returned home Monday, leaving his family here to enjoy the rest of the season.

Misses Emma Godfrey, Bertha Klinger and Margaret Hansit of Sa- lem came over Tuesday and are en- joying a season of camp life by the sounding sea.

State Senator Thos. Kay of Salem arrived at the beach Saturday even- ing. Mr. Kay returned home on the Sunday excursion train, leaving his family at the beach.—Yaquina Bay News.

Hold on to Prunes.

W. K. Newell, who is president of the state board of horticulture and also one of the best posted fruit growers, was in town yesterday and speaking of the prospective prune market said he hoped growers here would not contract their crops at present prices Some interested deal- ers have been estimating this years crop in Oregon, Washington and Ida- ho at 40,000,000 pounds, but he was sure it would not go more than about 25,000,000 pounds, which is 2,000,- 000 less than the big crop of two years ago. As the market is practi- cally clear of prunes as well as many canned fruits now and as there is an unusual demand for green prunes to ship east, Mr. Newell can see no reason why prices should be down this fall and he insists that if grow- ers will stand firm they will get something more nearly what the prunes are worth than if they accept the prices now offered. Last fall 2½ and 2¼ cents was the basis and he believes no grower should accept less than 2 cents now.—Forest Grove Times.

GETTING READY FOR FAIR

Oregon State Fair Will be the Largest Ever Held Here

"Yell for the State Fair," that is the slogan of the hour. Present indi- cations point to a record breaking state fair with the largest crowds that have ever been seen in Salem. The people are coming in large num- bers, too. The Oregon spirit is awakened and Oregonians are recog- nizing the value of patronizing state enterprises.

One of the most noticeable im- provements at the fair grounds are the changes made in the exhibit pa- vilion. An addition 55 by 155 feet has been built on the south wing of the main building and has been fitted with dressing rooms for the ladies, an innovation that will prove most convenient for the accomodation of the large numbers that will be in at- tendance at the fair.

The booths of the counties that have made application for space ex- hibit are beinb painted and put in shape. The counties that will ex- hibit are Jackson, Columbia, Marion, Benton, Linn and Lane The booths of these counties are being built from the materials that these same coun- ties had at the Lewis and Clark fair. To the "habitues" of the state fair the exhibit pavillion will prove a wonderland when compared with the appearance of the pavilion in former years. White paint and varnish have been used to a good advantage and the effect when the products of the different counties are displayed will be one of the prettiest ever seen at the state fair. The auditorium and reception room has been enlarged and fitted with more seats so as to accommodate the large crowds that come to listen to the daily evening programs.

The state fair board has also ar- ranged for the illumination of the grounds and in that respect, too, the fair will show many improvements. Additional lights will be put in the pavilion and strings of electric lights will be stretched throughout the camping grounds and the main ave- nue.

Special attention is given to the camping population and the camping privileges are free to all. The streets have been named, the lots numbered, and a plot of the tented city will be at the headquarters which will be in charge of Albert Tozier, mayor of the White City. Two hundred new stalls have been erected for the ac- commodation of the horses. A gro- cery store will be conducted on the grounds and city grocermen will call at the tents each day and take or- ders. It is the aim of the board to make camp life at the fair grounds as enjoyable as possible, and it is believed that the present plans if carried out will meet every emer- gency.

Will Race at the Fair.

E. B. Tongue has entered his horse Lord Lavelace in races at the state fair at Salem this fall, one for $1000 and the other $2000 both pacing events. The big stakes will bring out horses that can go some, but it be- liever that Lovelace will be right up in front with any of them—Forest Grove Times.

Huckleberries Light.

C. W. Meriels, a well known tim- ber locator, who has been exten- sively over the mountains in the up- per Santiam country, says that the crop of huckleberries and blackber- ries on the Quartsburg road this year is light; but that there are berries on Slate Mountain.

He says, however, that the fishing is good and that will help some.

Season for Deer.

The lawful season for killing of male deer opens August 15, and the season for female deer will open September. The season for both closes November 1st. It is against the law to hunt or kill deer at night between one hour after sunset and one hour before sunrise. No person may kill more than five deer during the season. Hunting deer with dogs is prohibited.
