MAKE WATER LAWS

Meeting of Oregon Irrigators Will be Held in Salem in September

A meeting of the irrigation and water users of Oregon will be held at this city September 10 and 11 for purpose of formulating a code water right laws, which will be presented to the legislature next winter, with recommendations for passage.
The call for the meeting will be issued in a few days, formally, by Portland Board of Trade, and matter is now in the hands of legislative committee of that body. State Engineer Lewis has been recommending something along this line ever since he has been in office, and the proposed meeting is the outcome of his labors.
H. H. Newell, chief engineer of the reclamation service of the United States government, Morris Bein, adviser to the department, D.
Henney, supervising engineer for Oregon and California, A. P. Stover, government expert who is now working experimenting in the Wilson valley, State Engineer Lewis and other well known experts, will be present at the meeting.
At the present time there is no law on the Oregon statute books to prevent a criminal way persons from wrongfully use water. And there is no way in which the owner of the water right can protect himself against trespassers without taking civil proceedings in the courts.
This usually entails such expense that small farmers cannot afford to protect themselves from encroachments of any one who helps himself to the water. In most such cases the cost of the suit is more than the value of the farm. It is to frame laws that will make a person safe in securing his water rights as in other property, that this meeting is called and that recommendations will be made to the next legislature.

FOREST FIRES DYING

Santiam District No Longer Endangered by Mountain Fires

Forest fires in Marion and Linn counties along the Santiam river are dying out, and the latest reports from that section indicate that there is no longer any danger of the flames spreading.

The fire south of the Santiam is still burning in a number of places, but is not spreading to any appreciable extent and no very valuable timber is being destroyed.

Fire is burning southward toward the Quartzville district, but is doing little damage.

It was thought Tuesday night at Hoover's mill that the flames would prove destructive and the men at work there moved their belongings to Detroit, but the last reports say the mill is in no danger.

All the campers in the mountains have been heard from and many who were supposed to have been in the path of the flames say that at no time were they in danger.

Unless high winds spring up, it is believed that in a few days the flames will have burned themselves out.

State News

The planing mills at Myrtle Point were burned with several thousand feet of lumber Monday.

The Lebanon Baptist church will have a woman pastor this year. She is Mrs. Addie Short, of the Waldo Hills.

A threshing machine belonging to I. D. Driver at Wamic, Wasco county, was burned Tuesday, the loss amounting to more than $1,000.

C. N. McArthur, who recently went to Baker City to open a law office, has decided to return to Portland and take up the practice there.

George McCune, a well known young man of Jacksonville, was killed at that place Sunday night. He was riding on a truck along the road, when it struck a chuck hole, and threw him out. Both wheels passed over his body.

The forest fires are driving the wild animals out of the mountains, down into the foothills. Sunday a Lebanon man shot and killed a large black bear three miles east of that place, and the same day, a bear was captured at Waterloo, the dogs driving it into the river, where the men roped it.

Rheumatism.

When pains or irritation exist on any part of the body, the application of Ballard's Snow Liniment gives prompt relief. E. W. Sullivan, Prop. Sullivan House, El Reno, O.
T., writes, June 6, 1902: "I take pleasure in recommending Ballard's Snow Liniment to all who are afflicted with rheumatism. It is the only remedy I have found that gives immediate relief." 25c, 50c, and $1.00.
For sale by D. J. Fry, Salem, Or.

Former Salem Lady Dead.

Mrs. John Beak and her infant child died at the home at Creswell, Lane county Sunday, and the funeral was held there Monday. The Eugene Guard, speaking of the funeral, says it was the saddest sight that was ever witnessed, the mother and the infant babe a few hours old, as they lay in the casket together. The services were largely attended, as Mrs. Beak was well known and had many friends.

Mrs. Beak was formerly Miss Lydia Gilliam, of this city. She leaves no near relatives. Her husband survives her and is now quite alone in the United States, all his people living in England. She was a member of the First Baptist church of this city, and also a member of the Women of Woodcraft of the Creswell Circle.

LOSES HIS HOME BY FIRE.

But Threshing Crew by Heroic Efforts Save the Barn, Machinery and Much Grain

The home of Matthew Gibson, which is situated about 14 miles east of Salem and 8 miles south of Silverton, in the Waldo Hills, was entirely destroyed by fire about 5 p. m. last Friday. The origin of the fire is not known, but it is supposed to have started from a defective flue, and was well under way when first discovered. The first to arrive on the scene was Mr. Arnott King and his sister, Miss Jennie, and after helping Mrs. Gibson, an aged and feeble lady to a place of safety, they turned their attention to the saving of furniture from the burning building, but, as the fire was gaining rapid headway, Mr. King thought it best to call for help and hastened to the farm of Wm. Humphreys, about two miles distance where the Fischer and Kren, threshing crew were at work.

The machine was stopped and the entire crew quickly responded and hastened to the scene of the conflagration, but too late to save the building or contents, they soon formed a bucket brigade and turned their attention to the barn which contained about 10 tons of hay and nearly 1000 bushels of oats and which was afire in several places, and after a long and heroic fight succeeded in saving it and its contents. Two machinery sheds that contained machinery and which had also caught fire were likewise saved by the boys after a hard and hot fight.

The loss to dwelling and contents is estimated between $1000 and $1200.

No insurance.

MATTHEW GIBSON.

ALSO STOLE JEWELRY.

Rings Found on Bicycle Thief Identified as Stolen Property.

Another charge of burglary will be filed against Charles E. Sims, who was arrested Tuesday, charged with stealing a bicycle from Fuller & Douglas' store. When arrested on a farm for the theft of the bicycle, five or six gold rings and a few rare coins were found in Sims' possession. It was believed that these were stolen articles. Rev. W. W.
Edmonson, of Spring Valley, Polk county, came to Salem yesterday afternoon and identified the articles as having been stolen from his home recently.

It has been ascertained that Sims' mother is a resident of Salem.

Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption the past five years, and it keeps me well and safe. Before that time I had a cough which for years had been growing worse. Now it's Doe last night for asking for a meal.

HOME FROM CAMP

Members of Company "M" Have Returned from American Lake

The members of Company "M," Oregon National Guard, returned home last night from the maneuvers at American Lake, tired and dusty, but well pleased with their trip and especially gratified with the showing the company made at the encampment.

Two of the members, Sergeant White and Private Frazier, did not return with the other boys, as they have gone to Seagirt, N. J., to participate in the national rifle shoot.

Company "M" made an excellent record at American Lake. Lieutenant Richard W. Holman was aide to the commander in the battle Tuesday; and Lieutenant Carl Abrams was adjutant of the first battalion, while Sergeant Aufranc was sergeant major of the battalion. Private McConnell was the chief stenographer in the field and was an orderly to the colonel.

The company left the camp yesterday morning and arrived at home on the overland that night, with no delay or mishap.
