

POKANE MAN IS MURDERED BY HIS SON

The Boy Wanted Money Which His Father Refused to Give Him, and He Beat the Old Man's Head to Pulp With an Ax

Pokane, Wash., Aug. 28.—James Soane, aged 65, and one of the known business men in this city, was murdered at 5 o'clock this morning by his 17-year-old son Sidney. The boy used an ax and battered his father's head to a pulp. They quarreled over money the boy wanted for the murder the boy wheeled the body through the yard in a wheelbarrow and dumped it in the alley, where it was found by the police. He then went back to the house to wash up the stains of blood. Under arrest, the boy confessed, but refused to explain the motive. He was unaffected by the sight of his father's mangled body. His mother is absent from the city.

Georgia Populist Convention.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 28.—The state convention of the Populist party of Georgia will meet here this afternoon for the purpose of nominating a complete state ticket to be voted at the coming fall election. The convention originally met at the beginning of July, but adjourned after five minutes to meet again today, five days after the Democratic primaries. It was stated at the time that the condition of the Populist party in Georgia was such that it would be unwise to name a ticket before the Democratic primaries, as a majority of the white voters were opposed to the democratic machine.

Anarchy in Russia.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 28.—Soldiers at Warsaw threaten to exterminate the Jews on account of the assassination of Wodkowski. The Jews are fleeing. It is rumored Trepoff will be sent to Warsaw to control the disorder. Extraordinary measures will be taken to maintain order in this city, and rumors of a dictatorship have been revived.

Loeb Spells by Ear.

Oyster Bay, Aug. 28.—Secretary Loeb is using simplified spelling in all communications from the president's office.

NEGROES GOING TO RULE

Will Find They Have Taken a Big Contract Before They Are Through

Birmingham, Ala., Aug. 28.—The negroes have addressed a letter to the leading newspapers saying they intended to rule the town. Recently punishment was inflicted by the authorities when a hundred negroes were charged with vagrancy and ordered to leave the town.

HONOR HEAD OFFICER

Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 28.—W. M. Kirkpatrick, supervising deputy and head camp officer of the Modern Woodmen of America is in this city at present on a tour through the state and the local camps have made elaborate preparations for his entertainment. This evening there will be a parade and it is expected that several thousand members of the western New York camps will be in line. After the parade a class of nearly 1000 will be passed through the adoption degree. Tomorrow there will be a grand picnic at O'cott beach. Many prominent officers of the state lodge are here and will take part in the celebrations.

Funeral Directors' Silver Jubilee.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 28.—The annual convention of the Wisconsin Funeral Directors' and Embalmers' association which will open at the Sheridan Guard armory in the Palace theatre this afternoon, marks the anniversary of the founding of the organization twenty-five years ago. The convention will last three days. This evening the Commercial club will entertain the delegates and members at Wonderland, while tomorrow night the manufacturers of bedding and mattresses will give a banquet to the delegates. The annual banquet of the organization, followed by a dance, will be held on the night of the closing day.

AFTER TWO CENT FARES

Los Angeles, Aug. 28.—An organized movement has been started here to bring before the state conventions of both Republicans and Democrats a demand for a two cent railroad fare. The leaders propose to make it an issue in the state campaign, similar to the successful effort in Ohio. It is believed it will be the leading issue in the legislative, as well as the governorship contest.

A "Jack the Ripper."

New York, Aug. 28.—A "Jack the Ripper" murder was discovered in the tenement district this morning. Annie Moore was found dead, her body badly slashed. The only clue is the bloody thumb print of a man on the pillow. Her brother-in-law and paramour, James Moore, has been arrested, charged with the crime.

That Piratical Seattle Look.

Berlin, Aug. 28.—August Rosenberg, of Seattle, has filed a claim for damages for false imprisonment. He was arrested upon his arrival here charged with being in a conspiracy to kill the kaiser. He was proven a harmless citizen.

CAR LINES ARE ALL TIED UP

Neither Side Disposed to Yield -- Strike Breakers Coming From East

San Francisco, Aug. 28.—The city still takes the tie-up of the car lines as a matter of course, and taking advantage of the poor transportation facilities afforded by every manner of vehicles pressed into commission. A large majority, however, walk. Strikers continue to gather about the car barns, but no violence is attempted. The company has made no effort to put out cars. President Calhoun this morning practically admitted that Strike Breaker Farley was on the way from New York with several hundred men, and on their arrival the company will make an effort to start traffic. There is no evidence of weakening on the part of the union, but it is evident the determination of the company is not to yield. The report of strike breakers coming has dampened the ardor of the carmen.

Trouble Among Colored Elks.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Aug. 28.—There is trouble brewing among the officers of the colored fraternal organization known as the Improved Benevolent Protective Order of Elks of the World, which will open its grand lodge session here this afternoon and there is a rumor among the members that B. F. Howard, the supreme exalted ruler of the order will be ousted. However that may be, there will be an interesting time for somebody, when the grand lodge meets this afternoon. The delegates will be welcomed by Congressman George E. Waldo and several responses will be made. The trouble in the order arose over a conflict between the supreme exalted ruler and the Brooklyn lodge and which resulted in the suspension of the lodges by the supreme exalted ruler. Howard, who lives in Covington, Ky., had fixed the meeting of the grand lodge for today, but had selected Columbus, O., as the place. The Brooklyn lodges, however, decided to hold the convention in Brooklyn, selecting Summer hall for the place of meeting and today for the opening of the convention. Notwithstanding the threats of Howard they carried their point and now they propose to oust Howard.

Want to Amend Constitution.

Janesville, Wis., Aug. 28.—The grand lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen of Wisconsin opened its special session here this morning at Odd Fellows' hall. Grand Master J. M. Thayer, of Janesville, presided. The special session will last two days and is of considerable importance, as amendments to the beneficiary articles of the constitution of the order are to be discussed. It is believed that the Wisconsin jurisdiction will not approve of the recent raising of the assessment rates by the supreme lodge.

Hibernians Meet at Fall River.

Fall River, Mass., Aug. 28.—The annual state convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians of Massachusetts and the annual convention of the ladies state auxiliary of the order open here today. Most of the delegates to the two conventions arrived yesterday and attended the grand informal reception which was held yesterday evening. This evening there will be the grand ball and tomorrow evening the banquet in the new William J. Dunn building.

Eastern Maine State Fair.

Bangor, Me., Aug. 28.—The great Eastern Maine state fair opened today at Maplewood park with an unusually large attendance. This year's exhibition is larger than ever before and the number and total aggregate of premiums also surpass all previous records. The entertainment features of the fair include airship flights, balloon ascensions, fireworks and vandeville features.

Cathedral Burned.

Lincoln, Neb., Aug. 28.—The First Church of Christ, recently bought by Catholics, and which was being remodeled for a cathedral, burned this morning; loss, $50,000. The bishop's secretary says the fire was incendiary and was started by some fanatic.

DARK BROWN TASTE

Citizens of Catesville Object to Negroes Being Dipped in City Drinking Water

Catesville, Pa., Aug. 28.—The unregenerate health commissioner and his unscrupulous deputies have locked the progress of the paper "Disciples of Christ" who are bound for salvation via the Branfwine river. After services Rev. Geo. Washington dipped the congregation every Sunday. The authorities today told him that hereafter if water was efficacious to drink them in a barrel of it. The Branfwine is the source of the city water supply, and the citizens do not like the dark brown taste, after the negroes wash in it.

CUBAN REBELS YIELD

Havana, Aug. 28.—The statement that the insurgent leaders, except Gueyres were going to surrender, is overdrawn. However, it is thought that practically all will come in. Recruiting is stopped, and the pay of all the troops in the service has been increased. Ex-Congressman Mendivea, and Colonel Aranda have arrived, leading the insurgents Sunday, were brought into this city today. Gueyres' failure to keep his promise to capture Pinar del Rio and march upon Havana, has caused him to lose prestige. His followers are expecting him to make a spectacular rush against the government forces. Business is picking up and merchants are gaining confidence in Palma's government.

DIED TO SAVE WIFE

San Francisco, Aug. 28.—Surrounded by flames, Joe Shea, a sign painter, early this morning successfully lowered his invalid wife by a pulley from the third story at 572 Dolores street, and was himself precipitated to the street by the burning of the rope, receiving fatal injuries. The other occupants of the six-story building escaped. The building was destroyed.

AIDING CUBAN REBELS

New York, Aug. 28.—A vessel is known to have sailed from this country for Cuba with arms and ammunition for the insurgents. It is supposed to be the auxiliary schooner Andra, of Philadelphia, with officers formerly of the American navy in command. Another ship is preparing to sail with tents and supplies. The government is watching to intercept it.

DEAD IN THE STREET

San Francisco, Aug. 28.—Andon Andrews and Henry Wolfe dropped dead in the streets this morning as the indirect result of the street car strike. Both had heart disease and were compelled to walk long distances.

GANGS WANT BRYAN

Many Organizations Want to Take Him From Quarantine in a Tug

Washington, Aug. 28.—Five different organizations have asked the customs officials to permit them to take Bryan from the steamship at quarantine in a tug. The quarrelling organizations will probably be told by Assistant Secretary Reynolds to determine the fight among themselves.

RATE LAW IN FORCE

Washington, Aug. 28.—The rate law is effective today, and there was a conference of about 10 railroad men with the commissioners. The railroad men asked an extension of time for filing schedules, and asked permission to continue the present method of posting schedules. They assured the commissioners they had no intention of ignoring the law.

STEAMER BURNED ON LAKES

Detroit, Aug. 28.—The steamer Eddy caught fire at sea off Port Sandusky this morning. The steamer Mack line answered her signals and rescued 20, including the captain, his wife and two daughters.

THIS ONE KILLED HIS WIFE

Los Angeles, Aug. 28.—The police have learned that Fred Cook, husband of Jennie Cook, who was murdered on a Santa Monica car last night, was on the same car. They are positive he did the shooting. No trace of him has been found.

Cincinnati's Fall Festival.

Cincinnati, O., Aug. 28.—This year's fall festival will open this afternoon with an enormous civic and industrial parade, the like of which has never been seen in this city. The city is handsomely and profusely decorated and everywhere flags are displayed in honor of the opening of the fair. Thousands of visitors from Ohio and the neighboring states are already in town and thousands more are streaming to this city, crowding the hotels and filling the streets in the business part of the city and in the neighborhood of the exposition, which will occupy part of Music hall and of the Technical school. It will be the greatest exhibition of the products of the middle west and of the southeastern states ever held here. The exhibition will last until September 22 and will undoubtedly prove a great drawing card for the city.

The principal amusement feature of the fall festival will be the daily production at Music hall of "The Blue Moon," a musical production which has played in London for two years solid with enormous success. More than 250 people will be seen on the stage at one time in that production, which is given under the management of a New York theatrical firm. There will also be daily vaudeville shows, a hippodrome, a circus and other attractions.
