

Hurry andorry

like a cyclone, whirls along at a rate that exhausts your energy, leaves you a nerveless, broken-down wreck. Accomplishes the results in another way. Passes you through the dark, tunnel of forbodings, breaks your nerves and breaks the constitution.

Don't hurry; don't But you will; and nerveless, exhausted, brings headaches, heart, stomach, liver troubles. The thing is: Strengthen the nerves with Dr. Miles' Nerveine.

Months I was bedfast with prostration. I had sinking, cold, clammy feeling, couldn't get up. At times I almost dy to pieces; stomach sick. My husband insisted on Dr. Miles' Nerveine, and I improved before I had finished the bottle, and to-day I am enjoying life.

JOSEPH SNYDER, 234 Hudson St., Tiffin, O.

Miles' Nerveine is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money.

Herald First Gave the News of the Custer Massacre

Postmaster A. J. Flisk, of Helena, for years a veteran newspaperman, having, with his published Montana's first newspaper, the Helena Herald, the time of its inception until two years ago, or more than was in a reminiscent mood one evening and related the how the first news of the massacre was given the world through the medium of the press. Said he to a St. Louis Democrat reporter:

"There was little rest for me the night of July 4. Every 15 minutes or so there would be a ring at my door bell, announcing a telegram from some paper demanding further details of the awful affair. I remember one New York paper having authorized me to send out scouts to secure additional news. I informed the papers that our complete story had been given the press association, and that further details would come from Bismarck, when the scouts reached that city, which they did on the following day, and it was through these couriers that, on July 6, the government at Washington received its official dispatches.

"These detailed facts, I believe have never been published. I disclaim any desire for notoriety in the premises, but in his story Helena and Montana scouts and frontiersmen should have the credit for furnishing the world the first news of Custer's fate and not the couriers who reached Bismarck July 5. In my long experience as a reporter and newspaper man, this was my greatest 'scoop.'"

Of Interest to Sick People.

We have all the sympathy in the world for sick people, and want to treat them in a serious way. There is no humor in pain and affliction, but hard earnest fact. It is impossible for the patient to impress on others the extent of suffering they endure, and their anxiety for relief. To get well or be relieved is their one thought. Any remedy that will bring this about has their everlasting gratitude. We have thousands of letters from people who have had dyspepsia, sick headache and bilious attacks, who tell us how thankful they were for having used Dr. Gunn's Improved Liver Pills. They are sold at all drug stores for 25c per box. Only one for a dose. These pills remove the cause of disease and make the skin clear and healthy looking.

Prisoner Has Heart Disease.

Charles E. Sims, the 16-year-old boy, who is serving a sentence in the county jail for wheel stealing, has been quite sick with heart disease. Tuesday afternoon he was taken ill and Dr. O. B. Miller, who attended him stated yesterday that the young prisoner was subject to attacks of heart trouble and although he had been a very sick boy the chances were that he would rally.

"I sprang to the counter, grasped him by the hand, exclaiming, 'Countryman, what in God's name is the matter?'"

"Jack," he replied, 'Custer and all with him are dead—were massacred on the Little Big Horn by the Sioux, Muggins Taylor, the scout, brought the news to Stillwater. He being exhausted I volunteered to bring the news to Bozeman. Arriving at Bozeman, I found the government wire down, so I got a fresh horse and came on to Helena.'

"The news seemed incredible, and I inquired if he could give me the particulars. He said he could. I told him to come in and sit down and wait for a moment until I could send out and locate some printers in order that we might get out an extra.

"Our foreman, the late William Mc Clatchey, was located, but it was perhaps an hour before we had a force distributing type and getting ready for the extra. Then Countryman gave me the particulars of the dreadful affair, as conveyed to him by Muggins Taylor. He spoke rapidly, fluently, and it was a difficult matter to keep within firing distance, as in those days the typewriter and stenographer were unknown in this section. To this day, I remember one of his sentences:

"Curley, the Indian scout, and the only person who escaped to bring the news, said the firing was very rapid—it sounded like the snapping of the threads in the tearing of a blanket."

"At 4 o'clock in the afternoon the Herald extra was on the streets of Helena. It was the first news of the awful event to be given to the public. The excitement was so great and our force so limited that I did not find time to send the news out of the city until after the extra was out. Then I grabbed a copy of the extra and made fast time to the Western Union telegraph office. There was only one wire, but Manager Operator Fredericks laid all else aside and gave the massacre preference, with the result that on the morning of July 5 all the newspapers of the country contained the news of the massacre.

"There was little rest for me the night of July 4. Every 15 minutes or so there would be a ring at my door bell, announcing a telegram from some paper demanding further details of the awful affair. I remember one New York paper having authorized me to send out scouts to secure additional news. Woman's Trials.

The bitter trail in a woman's life is to be childless. Who can tell how hard the struggle may have been ere she learnt to resign herself to her lonely lot? The absence of this link to bind marital life together, the absence of this one pledge to mutual affection is a common disappointment. Many unfortunate couples become estranged thereby. Even if they do not drift apart, one may read the whole extent of their disappointment in the eyes of such a childless couple when they rest on the children of others. To them the largest family does not seem too numerous.

In many cases of barrenness or childlessness the obstacle to child-bearing is easily removed by the cure of weakness on the part of the woman. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has been the means of restoring health and fruitfulness to many a barren woman, to the great joy of the household. In other, but rare cases, the obstruction to the bearing of children has been found to be of a surgical character, but easily removable by painless operative treatment at the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., over which Dr. Pierce of the "Favorite Prescription" fame presides. In all cases where children are desired and are absent, an effort should be made to find out the real cause, since it is generally so easily removed by proper treatment.

In all the various weaknesses, displacements, proapsus, inflammation and debilitating, catarrhal drains and in all cases of nervousness and debility, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the most efficient remedy that can possibly be used. It has to its credit hundreds of thousands of cures—more in fact than any other remedy put up for sale through druggists, especially for woman's use. The ingredients of which the "Favorite Prescription" is composed have received the most positive endorsement from the leading medical writers on Materia Medica of all the several schools of practice. All the ingredients are printed in plain English on the wrapper enclosing the bottle, so that any woman making use of this famous medicine may know exactly what she is taking. Dr. Pierce takes his patients into his full confidence, which he can afford to do as the formula after which the "Favorite Prescription" is made will bear the most careful examination.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the best and safest laxative for women.

STALE EGGS MADE NEW.

Factory Supplied With System of Trap Doors and Passwords.

Chicago, Aug. 29.—The health officials yesterday uncovered a big factory here devoted to "reprocessing" of maldorous eggs. The establishment was closely guarded and difficult to locate. Eggs that are beyond all hope of sale in the markets are mixed in great vats, run over huge wooden rollers, deodorized, dried shifted and finally shipped to bakers all over the country for cooking purposes. Owing to the nature of the business only initials of the firms buying the stuff were put upon the packages. Several tons of "reprocessed" eggs will probably be given a kerosene bath tomorrow and business orders stopped.

The health officials have other plants in view. Among the customers of the one raided today is the great Trans-Atlantic Steamship company. The factory was supplied with a system of trapdoors and passwords and handled thousands of dozen of eggs, all of which were notoriously bad.

A Pleasant Way to Travel.

The above is the usual verdict of the traveler using the Missouri Pacific railway between the Pacific coast and the East, and we believe that the service and accommodations given merit this statement. From Denver, Colorado Springs and Denver there are two through trains daily to Kansas City and St. Louis, carrying Pullman's latest standard electric-lighted sleeping cars, chair cars and up-to-date dining cars. The same excellent service is operated from Kansas City and St. Louis to Memphis, Little Rock and Hot Springs. If you are going East or South, write for particulars and full information.
