TO BE CONGRATULATED.

The people of Eugene are to be congratulated on having secured an elegant Commercial Club building.

Not many know how much SACRIFICE OF TIME AND MONEY it takes to keep up a strong, active Commercial Club. Eugene has such an one.

To secure a permanent home for its Commercial Club and perpetuate the organization has been happily accomplished at Eugene.

Eugene business men are UNITED IN SUPPORT OF THIS CLUB, the functions of which are divided at Salem between the Illhe and Commercial Clubs.

Eugene has a plucky and snappy lot of citizens. In politics they TAKE A ROAST WITH A SMILE, and if one of them gets a knock-out he comes back with redoubled vigor. It explains many things in the phenomenal success of the town.

SCRIPTING LAW CHANGED.

Competent lawyers say there is a large-sized joker in the new forest reserve scripting act.

As we are informed holders of claims in forest reserves CAN NO LONGER RECEIVE INDEMNITY SCRIP, allowing them to take up public lands anywhere.

It is stated that the Santa Fe system was exempted from the provisions of this act, and will acquire millions of acres of timber lands "IN THE USUAL WAY."

Will the Oregonian and its Wash-

Good business judgment demands that one's capital should be so managed as to always be earning something.

Idle money is a dead asset and the interest it should earn is lost.

It can be converted into a live asset by being deposited in our Savings Department. There it will constantly earn three per cent interest without any risk or trouble on your part and yet be available when wanted.

ington bureau give the people of Oregon the facts about this?

Is the wholesale spoliation of public lands by the big corporations to go on unmolested?

What use in prosecuting a lot of petty larcenists, when grand larceny is made easy?

Why does not Governor Chamberlain investigate and expose WHOLESALE LAND GRABBING BY CORPORATIONS?

Of course, it is not presumable that Secretary Hitchcock knew anything of the act that grants a special immunity to the great Gould corporation.

NEED MORE MEN LIKE MOTT.

Western Oregon needs the friendship of irrigation commissioners like Mott, of the Northern Pacific.

He should have been given A MORE CORDIAL WELCOME than he got at the State Development League, held at Salem during the state fair.

But he was scarcely given a chance to speak, and left feeling that he had been treated with scant courtesy.

The Northern Pacific has one of the greatest irrigation and development systems in the world. ITS METHODS of filling a country with people ARE EFFECTIVE.

Irrigation Commissioner Mott is one of the big men of the United States, when it comes to filling up a new section with people. HE IS A MAN OF BROAD IDEAS and very large experience.

The Northern Pacific system is anxious to get a line through Western Oregon.

Commissioner Mott is very friendly to the Willamette valley. He is a man who CAN TURN THOUSANDS of people this way.

He knows more about development of countries and about securing suitable and permanent settlers than forty local men.

He was invited to the State Development Convention, and should have been accorded the most prominent place on the program.

Mr. Mott is too big a man to lay this up against the Willamette valley or Western Oregon. The State Development Convention was managed by its officials from Portland, and they WERE NOT ONTO THEIR JOB.

Secures R. A. Heritage.

Word was received yesterday by President J. H. Coleman that Dr. R. A. Heritage, who has charge of a music school in Spokane, had decided to accept the deanship of the university of music. In his letter to President Coleman, Dr. Heritage says: "It has been the fight of my life to get away from here." The First Methodist church, where he occupies the position of choir leader, decided to raise his salary and to pay it one year in advance if he would stay. The citizens of the city also made him some flattering offers if he decided to cancel his contract with the local university.

The inducements made him by the college here, however, looked good to him and he decided to come.

Among the instructors he has secured is Professor Arthur von Jessen, who is a pupil of Leschetitzky, the greatest living pianist, and who has recently studied under Gedowski of Berlin. Mrs. Jessen will have charge of some of the piano classes. "They will come up to the highest expectation and are better pianists than Mr. Winkler or Mr. Bleck, both of whom I brought to Willamette when I was there," says Dr. Heritage in his letter. Dr. Heritage expects to arrive next Sunday, but his family will not move to Salem for the present.

Beautiful Women.

Plump cheeks, flushed with the soft glow of health and a pure complexion, make all women beautiful. Take a small dose of Herbine after each meal; it will prevent constipation and help digest what you have eaten. Mrs. Wm. M. Stroud, Midlothian, Tex., writes, May 31, 1901: "We have used Herbine in our family for eight years, and found it the best medicine we ever used for constipation, bilious fever and malaria. Sold by D. J. Fry."

Placing the Responsibility.

"And what will become of the children, Elsie, when we get a divorce?"
"Why, you'll take them, of course. You're the guilty one."—Meggendorfer Blatter.

Well Worth Trying.

W. H. Brown, the popular pension attorney, of Pittsfield, Vt., says: "Next to a pension, the best thing to get is Dr. King's New Life Pills." He writes: "they keep my family in splendid health." Quick cure for Headache, Constipation and Biliousness. 25c. Guaranteed at J. C. Perry's drug store.

Wedderly—Yes; but she has a lot more won't power. Chicago News.

Abscess.

ABSCESES with few exceptions, are indicative of constipation or debility.

W. H. Harrison, Cleveland, Miss., writes, Aug. 15, 1902: "I want to say a word of praise for Ballard's Snow Liniment. I stepped on a nail, which caused the cords in my leg to contract and an abscess to rise in my knee, and the doctor told me that I would have a stiff leg, so one day I went to J. F. Lord's drug store (who is now in Denver Colo.). He recommended a bottle of Snow Liniment; I got a 50c size, and it cured my leg. It is the best liniment in the world." Sold by D. J. Fry.

"Now, dear," said the hero of the elopement, as they boarded the train, "we are safe from pursuit."

"And also," said the young girl, radiantly, "safe from starvation. Here's a check pa made out to your order."—Philadelphia Press.

The Breath of Life.

It's a significant fact that the strongest animal of its size, the gorilla, also has the largest lungs. Powerful lungs means powerful creatures. How to keep the breathing organs right should be man's chiefest study. Like thousands of others, Mrs. Ora A. Stephens of Port Williams, O., has learned how to do this. She writes: "Three bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery stopped my cough of two years and cured me of what my friends thought consumption. Oh, it's grand for throat and lung troubles." Guaranteed by J. C. Perry, druggist. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Wife—What makes you look so blue?
Trust Magnate—I want to give $10,000 to a campaign fund and they won't accept it.
