HORSES BURNED IN STABLE

Woman and 150 Horses Burned to Death at Tacoma Today

Tacoma, Sept. 21.—Fire, which burned with terrific rapidity, destroyed property approximately $150,000. As a result one woman believed to have lost her life.

The property laid waste by the railroad depot and freight warehouse and four freight cars; the Payette avenue bridge, a large livery stable saloon, restaurant and vacant store building and three dwelling houses.

In the livery stable were over 150 horses, many of them of blooded stock. Less than half a dozen escaped.

The woman believed to have lost her life is Mrs. Peterson, wife of the restaurant proprietor.

Will Go to Asylum.

Seattle, Sept. 21.—The commission named by Judge Frater, of the superior court, to inquire into the alleged insanity of Esther Mitchell and Mrs. Creffield, charged with the murder of George Mitchell, today reported through Dr. Kenneth Turner, chairman of the board.

As a result of its labor, the commission is unanimously of the opinion that subjects of this investigation at the time of the commission of the crime charged against them, and are now, suffering from a form of insanity commonly classified as paranoia, which has its origin in structural defects of the nervous system.

Further, that because of this disease, they were at the time of the commission of the crime charged possessed of such deranged mentality as to make them unable to distinguish between right and wrong, and therefore irresponsible criminally.

Further, that these individuals belong to a class of lunatics dangerous to be at large, who persistently follow their morbid inclinations, regardless of law or ethics, and should be placed under restraint in an institution for the proper treatment of such cases.

A Tight Squeeze.

Chicago, Sept. 21.—Charging that Fred Kann was so ardent in his wooing that she had to go to the hospital to recover from its effects, Miss Florence Dugan commenced suit against the former today for $20,000. Miss Dugan says she met Kann at the home of mutual friends, and that immediately after the introduction, and despite her protests, he insisted on embracing her and making protestations of undying love. His conduct shocked Miss Dugan so much that she says she was ill for weeks. She asserts that Kann is worth $50,000.
