Welcome New Students.

The Young Men's Christian Association of the Willamette University gave a stag party Saturday evening for the new students. The evening was enjoyably spent, one of the features being some athletic stunts by Roy Heater, George Lounsbury and others. A "feed" concluded the entertainment.

Will Be Married.

On Wednesday, October 3d, at the residence of the bride's parents, at Salem, Oregon, will occur the wedding of Mr. Thomas H. Hurlburt, of Shaniko, and Miss Pearl Rhodes, of that city. After a short honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Hurlburt will return to Shaniko, where they will make their future home. The groom is a nephew of F. T. Hurlburt, the Shaniko banker, and is the bookkeeper in the Eastern Oregon Banking Company. He is a very popular and enterprising young man. Miss Rhodes will be remembered as the popular young lady who was employed in the Shaniko public school last winter, where she made many warm friends who will be ready to welcome her back to Shaniko.—Shaniko Republican.

inch or so above the edge with a mixture, smoothing the top neatly with a knife; decorate with hard boiled egg and chopped water cress or chervil; set on ice till serving time, then carefully remove the papers and use.

Veal cake is a useful dish for picnics. There are various ways of making it, according to whether a rich, substantial dish is required for some special occasion or whether the purpose is merely to utilize a few slices of veal. One of the simplest modes is to cut the roast veal into slices, lay these in a mold alternately with a few slices of ham or tongue and between the layers, which should be well seasoned with pepper, intersperse thin slices of hard boiled egg. When the mold is full, pour in a little rich stock or good gravy. Bake for half an hour and turn out when cold. Another way is to mince a pound of lean veal and half a pound of streaky bacon; add to them a tablespoonful of mushroom Entertained by Friends.

Miss Nita Chamberlain, of Klamath Falls, formerly of Albany, who is to be married to Mr. Clarence Underwood tomorrow at Klamath Falls, has been the honor guest at several parties given by her Albany friends. Miss Chamberlain was a member of the "Florodoras" of Albany, and was given a kitchen shower last week while she was there on a short visit, en route home from Olympia, Washington, where she had been visiting her sister.

Jewels and Character.

As an old legend has it, there is a gem especially set aside to symbolize the character of persons born in January, another for those born in February, and so on throughout the rest of the 12 months. The gems themselves are symbolical of qualities. Here is what each gem stands for, and what month it belongs to: January, garnet; constancy, fidelity.

February, amethyst; sincerity.
March, bloodstone, hyacinth, courage.
April, diamond, innocence.
May, emerald; success in love.
June, agate, pearl; wealth long life.
July, ruby; confidence.
August, sardonyx, moonstone; conjugal felicity.
September, sapphire; virtue.
October, opal; hope.
November, topaz; love.
December, turquoise; success, prosperity.

WHAT TO EAT.

A Melon Salad the Latest Gastronomic Novelty.
A melon salad is not often seen, though regarded by those who have tried it as a highly satisfactory way of serving this delicious fruit, especially when, as sometimes happens, it is not as full flavored as one could wish. Cut the fruit in cubes, being careful to exclude all hard rind. Make a dressing of olive oil, which for this purpose should be specially good, and white wine or not too strong vinegar, in the proportion of at least three tablespoonfuls of oil to one of vinegar, a quarter of a teaspoonful of pepper and half a teaspoonful of salt. Mix these well together and pour over the melon. Serve very cold in a salad bowl, or, for a novelty, it may be served from the shell of the melon from which the soft part of the fruit has been cut. Sprinkle this salad with a little chopped green tarragon, the delicate flavor of which blends particularly well with that of the melon. Garnish with lettuce hearts or any greenery at hand.

Salmon souffles are wonderfully good. Take one-half pound of cooked salmon, two hard boiled eggs, anchovy essence, a gill of fish stock, one-quarter ounce of gelatin, half a pint of whipped
