START YOUR BOY TO SCHOOL In a Complete New Suit
He's a right to look as well as any other boy; he should feel he is the equal of any boy in his class. It is not necessary to be extravagant in order to get the best clothes. We know from actual experience that there is no other clothing for boys which in any way approaches that which we are offering. We were fortunate to secure from the makers the privilege of handling their line for this vicinity; of all the other lines we have at different times had in our store there has never been one to compare with what we now offer. Clothes for service; clothes the boy can't spill in a day.

The summary of the assessment roll for Sherman county, filed today, shows the gross valuation of taxable property to be $3,251,785. There are 259,808 acres of tillable lands, valued at $1,890,700, and 125,897 acres of grazing land, valued at $194,287.

Rain Checks Hop Shipments.
The showery weather of the past few days has somewhat slackened business on the water front, as far as the hop business is concerned.
Most of the bales have to be loaded from the river bank, opposite the yards, and without shelter, and for that reason the hop consignments have not been as large as they would have been had the weather been more propitious. The largest consignment that has arrived this season was 101 bales.

The street sprinkler is now in the drydock.

Help is Scarce—
In all the lines of work there is a demand for workmen. Especially in this true of builders. Carpenters and contractors have more than they can do and those wishing work

A POINT ABOUT CUT GLASS

To be beautiful cut glass should be absolutely white as well as perfectly cut and polished. However, nearly all cut glass looks white when seen by itself, but a great deal of it looks dark when seen alongside a real white piece.

We sell the white kind and ask you to compare it with any bought elsewhere.
White, brilliant, perfectly cut, and a lasting polish are points in favor of our cut glass.

done in this line must wait their turn which has caused them much delay and expense.

Improving the Switch—
Excavations are being made to widen the switch near Giles' packing house.

Cannery Busy—
The Salem cannery has about the same number of hands that it had at the beginning of the season. The apples which are being sent in are of fine quality and the fruit is plentiful.

Up Court Street—
The store that turned the grocery trade up Court street is the new grocery store of H. H. Ragan. It is enjoying a good and growing trade, and giving the best of satisfaction. All goods new and up-to-date. Phone Main 256.

Farrington's—
Market is the place to order your meats. You always get the best, as well as prompt delivery.

Making More Improvements—
The local telephone company has a force of men engaged in putting down some new underground cables. Two hundred pairs of new wires are being put in to accommodate increased business, and in order to better the existing service. This work has, for the time being, cut off a few phones at a time until the new connections are made, but all subscribers will be glad to bear with a temporary inconvenience for the good of the cause in general.

New Rooming House—
Mrs. J. C. Brown, who has resided at 486 South Commercial street for many years, has moved to the J. Q. Wilson residence, corner of Liberty and Chesapeake streets, where she will open a rooming house. She will also serve breakfast. The place is within easy walking distance of the business district, and will be a good place to secure rooms at reasonable prices.

Prof. McCall Returns—
