Will Be a Success.

If hard work and good will have anything to do with making it a success, the cantata "The Pixies" will surely be one. The ladies who are on the committee were out all day yesterday, working with a will. The task is to secure 200 children, boys and girls. This is what the Y. M. C. A. is to do, and, after the 200 are secured W. A. Milne, the director, and his assistants will begin the work. Sixty names were enrolled yesterday. Mrs. W. Carlton Smith is one of the new committee workers.

All those who have promised to help with the work will have a chance to begin tomorrow. The children between 7 and 14 years of age are to meet at the Sunday school room of the First Congregational church at 4 o'clock, and the older ones at 7:30 in the evening.

Miss Nina Bushnell is to be accompanist, and will be present at all times. Those who have not already given their names in, and who wish to help, can telephone Miss Bushnell at Main 501, Jos. H. Albert, at the First National Bank, or can register at the public library.

It is hoped that all will be willing to help in this good cause, as the proceeds are to go toward the swimming pool fund.

Kings Valley People Wed.

Mr. John M. Graham and Miss Hattie Price, both of Kings Valley were married in Corvallis Sunday, and will live in Portland.

The wedding was quite a social event, and more than 50 guests were present.

Albany Couple Weds.

One of the most notable weddings of the season occurred Wednesday noon at 1 o'clock when Harvey E. Loveall was united in marriage to Miss Jessie B. Cox. The happy event occurred at the residence of W. A. Cox, the bride's father, on East Eighth street, in the presence of a number of friends and relatives of the contracting parties. Rev. S. A. Douglas, of the Baptist church, officiated. Concluding the ceremony an elaborate lunch was served. Mr. and Mrs. Loveall will reside in Albany at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Loveall is well-known here, having made Albany her home. The groom was born in Lebanon. The young couple have the congratulations of their many friends.—Albany Democrat.

Averill-Eppers.

A pretty home wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Howell, at 239 Cottage street, last evening. The contracting parties were Mr. Harvey B. Averill, of Portland, and Miss Minnie E. Eppers, of Gervais. Rev. Davis Errett, of the First Christian church, pronounced the words which made them husband and wife. Only a few friends and relatives were present to witness the ceremony. The bride wore a pretty traveling suit of gray. The young couple left this morning for Alberta, Canada, where they will reside.

Montgomery-Wickham.

Richard J. Montgomery and Miss Jennie F. Wickman were married Monday evening at 8:30 o'clock, at the Lutheran church, in Marshfield. In the absence of the rector the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. E. Burnham, the Presbyterian minister of North Bend. The church was elaborately decorated for the occasion, flowers and plants being tastefully arranged about the altar. The attendants were Victor Wickman, brother of the bride, of Marshfield, R. DuFay Montgomery, brother of the groom, of Decatur, Ill., and Misses Ida and Annie Wickham, cousins of the bride, of Empire. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. A. Lund. She has always lived in Marshfield, and is one of the handsomest young women of the place. The groom is a native of Illinois. He came here three years ago to make his home, and is engaged in the real estate business, and is well known and esteemed among the business men of Coos Bay. He was at first associated with I. S. Kaufman, but recently went into business for himself. He is the son of R. R. Montgomery, one of the wealthy business men of Decatur, Illinois.—Coos Bay Times.

FRIBBLES OF FASHION.

Embroidered Linen Belts Worn With Wool Suits—V Neck Effects.

Embroidered belts of heavy linen will be worn with woolen tailored suits. They usually match the suit in color and are embroidered in exactly the same tone as the linen. It is possible nowadays to get linen in all the fashionable tailored shades.

In Paris V neck effects are contrived in all sorts of unexpected ways. Some of the simplest are nothing more than a modified form of the surplised styles. In the majority of cases these V necks are unusually becoming.

There are echoes of a dozen different famous periods and nationalities in the wraps one sees. Mantles of the old fashioned type are struggling hard for supremacy this fall. One interesting mantle is shirred into curious folds, and if M. Worth was not the designer it would be thought an impossible style.

It is the color of a woman's gown that makes her look young or old; for instance, navy blue is a young color, but black plays havoc with most faces past their first youth.

The gown illustrated is a charming empire affair for a young girl carried out in yellow crape. The skirt is simply trimmed with ruffles of the material. Lace adorns the round neck and forms the tabbed ends that hang over the bodice. The girdle is of brown velvet drawn through a dull gold buckle.

MODES OF THE MOMENT.

Smart Lingerie Run With Black Ribbon—Hint For Foulard Gown.

The latest idea in lingerie is to run black ribbon through the beading. To avoid the possibility of a hint of mourning being conveyed by the somber hue a touch of color is introduced in the costume when a peekaboo waist is worn.

A stunning princess gown is of black foulard spotted with white coin dots. The skirt is trimmed with three rows of inch wide black velvet ribbon. The bodice, cut V shape back and front almost to the waist line, is finished with a tiny line of parrot green velvet under a line of black. Jet cabochons trim the opening at intervals. The sleeves are small elbow puffs slit up the center and filled with the finest kind of all over embroidery in a spring design. The tight cuffs are of lace adorned embroidery, which also makes the chemise fitting in the Y opening. The hat worn with the gown is a picture affair in black neapolitan trimmed with black ostrich plumes. Gloves and shoes are of tan suede.

The cutaway lines which marked some of last winter's suits is noticeable in the fall importations. These cutaway effects are usually attempted only with cloth suitings, broadcloths and cloths of firm texture being chosen for this style.

The blouse pictured is an effective design for silk. A deep plait supplies the fullness at the shoulders, and the front is blocked out to display a vest of broderie anglaise, which in turn is edged and inset with entre deux of elony.

THE NICE GIRL.

She has so much to do that she has no time for morbid thoughts.

She awakens cheerfully in the morning and closes her eyes thankfully at night.

She never thinks for a moment that she is not attractive or forgets to look as charming as possible.

She is considerate of the happiness of others, and it is reflected back to her as from a looking glass.

She is her own sweet, unaffected womanly self. Therein lies the secret of her popularity, of her success.

She is always willing to give suggestions that will help some less fortunate one over the bad place in life's journey.

She never permits herself to grow old, for by cultivating all the graces of heart, brain and body age does not come to her.

She believes that life has some serious work to do, that the serious work lies very close to the homely, everyday duties and that kind words cost nothing.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

Chicago's Five Maiden Aunts.

According to William Hard, in the American Magazine, the city of Chicago has five maiden aunts. Mr. Hard says that these women boss Chicago very much to Chicago's advantage. These aunts, who are bosses, are Margaret A. Haley, Mary McDowell, Julia C. Lathrop, Jane Addams and Dr. Cornelia De Bey. Miss Haley was of course the instigator of the franchise tax fight and is a leader in the municipal ownership movement. Miss McDowell is a trades union organizer among women. Miss Lathrop, single handed, reformed conditions in the charitable institutions of Illinois. Miss Addams, perhaps the best citizen of Chicago, is the head of Hull House. Dr. De Bey, a physician by profession, is a lively member of the board of education.

The Perfect Diner.

It is a long step from the absurd and vulgar dissipation of the table to the perfection of the delicate art of dining at it is now practiced by lovers of nice eating. Thus, what diner today would be guilty of studying how to prolong his menu rather than how to perfect it, and yet the ancient gourmands failed to realize that this is the first rudiment of the art of eating. To weary the palate with excessive feeding is as undesirable as it is to nauseate it with improperly cooked food. Both are responsible for indigestion.—Jean Marie Devaux in Delineator.

A Wonderful Record.

As made up by improved and exact processes Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a most efficient remedy for regulating all the womanly functions, correcting displacements, as prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion, overcoming painful periods, toning up the nerves and bringing about a perfect state of health. It cures the backache, periodical headaches, the dragging-down distress in the pelvic region, the pain and tenderness over lower abdominal region, drives up the pelvic catarrhal drain, so disagreeable and weakening, and overcomes every form of weakness incident to the organs distinctly feminine.

"Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for women, the makers of which are not afraid to print their formula on the bottle wrapper thus taking their patrons into their full confidence. It is the only medicine for women, every ingredient of which has the strongest possible endorsement of the most eminent medical practitioners and writers of our day, recommending it for the diseases for which "Favorite Prescription" is used. It is the only put-up medicine for women, sold through druggists, which does not contain a large percentage of alcohol, so harmful in the long run, especially to delicate women. It has more genuine cures to its credit than all other medicines for women combined, having saved thousands of sufferers from the operating table and the surgeon's knife. It has restored delicate, weak women to strong and vigorous health and virility, making motherhood possible, where there was barrenness before, thereby brightening and making happy many thousands of homes by the advent of little ones to strengthen the marital bonds and add sunshine where gloom and despondency had reigned before.
