Attended Club Meeting.

Miss Cornelia Marvin came down from Salem Wednesday morning and is a guest at the home of Mrs. M. M. Charman. Miss Marvin, who is secretary of the state library commission, came down to attend the meeting of the women's club this afternoon, and she gave an interesting talk on establishing a public library in Oregon City.—Oregon City Star.

HINTLETS OF FASHION.

Braiding to Be Much Used Next Winter—Navy Blue Again Popular.

It is predicted that braiding will have a great vogue this fall. Many of the new skirts show narrow silk and military braids applied so as to convey the effect of paneling. A wide kind with a cross plait forming a checked surface is being used a good deal on the new boleros.

Navy blue, the real dark blue that used to be considered so fashionable and attractive, has again come into favor. And black costumes for winter wear are to be chic in the extreme, with never a hint of color to relieve their somberness. When made of handsome material, perfectly tailored and cut, nothing is smarter than one of these suits.

In dressy wraps and house gowns empire effects will still hold good, but it is in the back of a costume that the "period" influence is most seen.

Elbow sleeves for street wear have become unfashionable. They will appear on dressy indoor costumes, but for all other purposes they have had their day.

The sleeves seen in the illustration are among the newest styles of the coming season. The puffed effect at the top predominates, with pretty introductions of trimming farther down the sleeve.

SARTORIAL NEWS.

White Shoes No Longer Fashionable. New Fall Hats—Delightful Neatness.

Exclusive Frenchwomen are returning to black patent leather shoes with silver buckles and black silk stockings since the fad for white shoes and stockings has become so general.

White felt hats, nothing more than outing shapes, are to be worn early in the fall for every day. A chic model has a large, flat crown and rolling brim. A band of white felt lifts the hat well from the hair over the left eye. White chiffon is wound about the crown and finished at the side with large pompons of white and light blue feathers.

One of the smartest new hats for wear with tailored suits is a dove colored combination of the softest French felt faced with Java straw.

A lovely color for a fall gown is turquoise blue, which has a distinct greenish tinge. This shade of greenish blue is most artistic and attractive.

and is a relief from the many ruddier shades of which the eye is wearied.

A smart black hat seen recently was trimmed with a great wreath of beautiful spiky black barley. Some of the barley where it fell over the hat at the back turned into silver.

White swiss makes charming negligees. It does not muss like organdie and is easily tubbed.

The hat pictured is of tan felt, trimmed with chestnut brown velvet and a tan ostrich feather.

FALL STYLES.

Costumes to Enhance the American Woman's Charms—New Fabrics.

In the new afternoon and street frocks there are to be seen diametrically opposite styles, but in all there is a hint of the empire and princess modes.

Some of the dressy frocks sent over for the first fall openings have ruffled skirts. In one handsome confection there are no less than fourteen flounces.

A smart, new material, called coleon poplin, is to be much used this winter.

GRAY POPLIN GOWN.

It combines the weave of the old Irish poplin with the suppleness and grace of the present day fabrics. In gray it is particularly pretty.

Velvet ribbon trims many of the daintest autumn costumes. It appears in very wide widths or in groupings of narrow ribbons, three to nine rows in each group.

A novelty seen in an importation of fall costumes was a bronze green cloth suit with mandolin shaped jacket. The skirt was modeled in overskirt effect obtained by four well cut gored flounces arranged to give a plaited effect in front. A tan crepe de chine blouse of the washable variety was covered by mandolin shaped crossed fronts held in place by jet buttons set upon insets of white broadcloth. Three little curved sections of cloth barely covering the top of the arm passed for sleeves.

The gown in the cut is a chic costume made from gray coleon poplin. The skirt is trimmed at the bottom with two deep tucks above which are crescents of the material. The fichu bodice adornment is edged with frills of white Brussels net run with very narrow black velvet ribbon.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

Weak, Nervous People.

We have received letters from all parts of the U. S. highly recommending Dr. Gunn's Blood & Nerve Tonic, until the faith we had in the remedy has been fully sustained. We had confidence from the very beginning that this medicine should make cures, but lacked that assurance that comes after many successful trials. Now that we have been upheld in our belief we want to impart to others our confidence. Nervous, and unsteady people, weak, fleshless people, pimply, pale, or sallow people are all victims of weak, watery blood. Make new, rich blood, to be forced through the system by the way of the arteries, and disease cannot remain. This Tonic cures disease by giving you strength to resist it. All druggists sell it for 75c per box, or 3 boxes for $2. The tablets are taken after each meal. They turn the food you eat into rich red blood. Persons who take this Tonic gain in good solid flesh from 1 to 3 pounds per week.

Today is the 53d anniversary of the United Presbyterian church of Albany.

A GREAT PLAY IS CHECKERS

That Is the Kind of Play You Will See Tonight

"Checkers" is coming to town. In all of the big cities in which this play has been seen, since its initial production three seasons ago, it has received practically the unanimous commendation of the press, and the immense audiences which have attended every performance are pretty satisfying proof that it has found equal favor with the public. "Checkers" is a tale of love and luck, dra-

THE MAID AND THE MUMMY

Archie Gunn, the famous poster artist, designed the costumes worn by the principals, and the chorus, in "The Maid and the Mummy," which is to be the attraction at the Grand opera house Friday night. He was told to design his costumes without bearing in mind how much the fabrics would cost, and the result is a series of stunning beautiful stage pictures. The handsomest gowns are worn by the Poster, the Polly and the Julia girls, the complete outfit of one Julia girl costing $325. It was necessary to import the stockmatized from Henry M. Blossom, Jr.'s, book of the same name. Hans Roberts plays the title role and has scored a hit. The rest of the company numbering nearly 100 people, substantially the original organization, so far as the chief members are concerned. Chief among his supporters are Isabelle Parker, Clare Armstrong, Pauline Eberhard, Robert Craig, Thos. Hunter, Dave Braham, Jr., Wallace Wesley, W. H. Clark and Jas. Shannon. The sensational and much-talked-of race track scene, representing the better ring of Washington Park club in Chicago on Derby day, will be produced on the stage of the Grand opera house, Thursday night, with all the completeness which prompted the late Hon. W. C. Whitney to say: "Checkers" is the finest racing play I have ever seen." Seats on sale Thursday morning at 9 o'clock.

SURVEYORS ARE AT WORK.

Indications Are That Hammond Intends to Do Some Building.

R. N. Hoover, proprietor of the Hoover mills, at the present eastern terminus of the C. & E. railroad, above Detroit, is in the city. Mr. Hoover says that a band of railroad engineers struck his place last night coming down from the summit of the Cascades doing the kind of engineering work preparatory to grading a road bed. Mr. Hoover says that the engineers are non-committal, but they have evidently surveyed a grade from the top of the mountain to the present terminus.

The Hammond people who own the C. & E. have for some time been giving out information that the system would extend the line through Central Oregon and the Deschutes country to the Snake river and the Idaho line. The proposed terminus is to be at either Ontario or Huntington.

The present activity looks as if Mr. Hammond intends to saw wood.

ings worn by these girls from Paris, at a cost of from $2.50 to $24. a pair. There is everything about "The Maid and the Mummy" to make it the great success it has been. Its story is good, its music catchy, its lyrics skillful, its comedy clean and wholesome, its jokes such as produce spontaneous laughter, its scenery magnificent, its electrical effects stunning, its costumes the richest money can buy, its principals all artists and its chorus the handi-est, shapeliest and liveliest on the road. In every city visited by "The Maid and the Mummy" last season the piece made a great hit, and the whole season could be filled with return dates. The engagement of this merry musical melange in this city is for one night only. This merry musical melange comes with a record of three months in New York, three months in Philadelphia and three months in Chicago—the best possible proof of its popularity. The sale of seats for the performance in this city opens at 9 o'clock Thursday morning.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J.
