As now made, Ayer's Sarsaparilla does not contain the least particle of alcohol in any form whatever. You get all the tonic and alterative effects, without stimulation. ### Weak, Nervous People.

We have received letters from all parts of the U. S. highly recommending Dr. Gunn's Blood & Nerve Tonic, until the faith we had in the remedy has been fully sustained. We had confidence from the very beginning that this medicine should make cures, but lacked that assurance that comes after many successful trials. Now that we have been upheld in our belief we want to impart to others our confidence. Nervous, and unsteady people, weak, fleshless people, pimply, pale, or sallow people are all victims of weak, watery blood. Make new, rich blood, to be forced through the system by the way of the arteries, and disease cannot remain. This Tonic cures disease by giving you strength to resist it. All druggists sell it for 75c per box, or 3 boxes for $2. The tablets are taken after each meal. They turn the food you eat into rich red blood. Persons who take this Tonic gain in good solid flesh from 1 to 3 pounds per week.

Mrs. Marke—Gracious! I never saw so many soiled faces in my life. Why don't you use some soap and water?

Tommy Tuff—We are waitin' fer de angel, mum.

Mrs. Marke—What angel?
Tommy Tuff—Why, de lady dat come fru here last week and give one of de kids a nickle to wash his face.—Chicago Daily News.

JOBBED JEFF MYERS.

Governor Chamberlain and Oswald West Gave Him Wrong Tips on Races.

Jefferson Myers, who went with the governor, State Land Agent West, Dr. W. B. Morse, Judge Lionel Webster and others to the Harney county fair, says the others of the party jobbed him at the races and that he had to borrow money to come home on. At the races the other Salem boys got a race track tout to give Jeff tips on the low horse every time and then they won all his money. This occurred at every race. The final event was a foot race between two Indian boys from Umatilla reservation. Through some mistake, the tout gave the great father of the Lewis and Clark exposition the tip on the fast Indian and Myers won. Then the judges declared that there was an error in the starting and gave the race over. They then substituted a new Indian and Myers lost again.

Danger from the Plague.

There's grave danger from the plague of Coughs and Colds that are so prevalent, unless you take Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Mrs. Walls of Forest City writes: "It's a God-send to people living in climates where coughs and colds prevail. I fine it quickly ends them. It prevents pneumonia, cures lagrippe, gives wonderful relief in asthma and hay fever, and makes weak lungs strong enough to ward off consumption, coughs and colds. 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed by J. C. Perry's drug store. Trial bottle free.

"Uncle Josh Perkins."

One of the most novel and natural representations on the stage today, "Uncle Josh Perkins" will be seen at the Grand opera house on Tuesday, October 16. The play is in four acts and in plot, construction and action shows the hand of one possessing the knowledge of what is natural, realistic and interesting in play building; throughout the play the interesting story depicted is never for a moment lost track of, while all the introduced features and specialties fit so naturally as to form a component part of the story. The press wherever this matchless company has appeared, unite in declaring "Uncle Josh Perkins" and his retinue of fun makers, one of the best on the road and a vast improvement even over the excellent one of last season. New scenery of places of interest in New York City and bucolic sights and places in the Green Mountain state, Vermont, which are said to be not only actual reproductions but gems of scenic art are shown. Several novel mechanical effects and novelty numbers depicting the amusements and simple pastimes of country life, including a genuine husking bee and a hilarious barn-yard dance. Taken all in all "Uncle Josh Perkins" is a standard play. It is ever kept up to date and is a stage representation that will live. It is interesting, laughable and teaches a moral. In short, a play that makes one feel all the better from having seen it. "Uncle Josh" is no stranger in Salem. Our people know him and will liberally patronize plays of the well known reputation of "Uncle Josh Perkins" and a good house awaits him. Seats will be on sale at box office on Tuesday morning, October 16.
