SERVED HIS WIFE UP AT BANQUET LABORERS ARE MANGLED BY RUNAWAY CAR

MADE LAST DIVE

Sub-Marine Lies on Bottom of Sea With Crew of Fourteen

Paris, Oct. 17.—M. Thomson, minister of marine, has received an official dispatch from the naval commandant at Biserta confirming the sinking of the submarine boat Lutin. The message says:

"The submarine boat Lutin, while exercising off the jetties, disappeared from the view of the accompanying tug. Search and dragging operations were begun at once, and resistance was felt at a depth of 130 feet near the place where the Lutin sank."

Bizerta, Tunis, Oct. 17.—The submarine boat Lutin has been located at a depth of 115 feet. All aid available has been hastened to the scene to try to raise her.

Bizerta, Oct. 17.—Divers are working on the Lutin, but little progress is being made.

Davis contracted upon her return from the Adirondacks, where she spent the summer months. Although grave fears were felt from the first, Mrs. Davis' wonderful vitality, which brought her safely through a similar attack a year ago, gave hope of ultimate recovery until last night, when a decided change for the worse was evident and the attending physicians announced that the end was near. It was then announced that Mrs. Davis could not survive the night, but she rallied slightly during the early hours of yesterday.

Shortly after 7 o'clock yesterday morning she had a similar spell and Rev. Nathan A. Seagle, rector of St. Stephen's Protestant Episcopal church, was hurriedly summoned to give religious comfort to the patient in her last moments of consciousness. The clergyman remained some time, and an hour later it was announced that Mrs. Davis had lapsed into a state of coma. The period of unconsciousness continued to the end.

Washington, Oct. 17.—The President today sent to Mrs. Addison Hayes a message of condolence on the death of Mrs. Davis from himself and Mrs. Roosevelt, and ordered a floral tribute sent from the White House conservatory.

Shortage in Sub-Treasury.

St. Louis, Oct. 17.—Chief Wilkie, of the government secret service here, says he has nothing to do with the reported shortage in the sub-treasury, but says he would investigate it if a crime had been committed. D. P. Dyer, Jr., receiving teller of the sub-treasury says he made the report concerning the shortage, which was $61,200, but would not give an opinion as to how it occurred.

Taft Is Home.

Norfolk, Va., Oct. 17.—The battleship Louisiana, bearing Taft and Bacon, arrived in the roads at 10 o'clock this morning, in the teeth of a fierce gale. The transfer to the dispatch boat for their journey to Washington was made during a heavy rain and high wind.

Wants to Succeed.

Perth, Australia, Oct. 17.—The assembly voted today, 19 to 8, that the state of Western Australia secede from the commonwealth.

Explosion and Fire.

Port Recovery, O., Oct. 17.—An explosion of gasoline in a printing office and dynamite in a hardware store at noon today killed Miss Cleo Wise, cashier, and arry Lammers, clerk in the hardware store, and also Jos. Roesner and Charles Wagner. Two others are missing, and thought to be dead. The fire destroyed ten buildings, and is still unchecked. In the town of 2000 not a pane of glass was left wholesale.

No Chinese on Isthmus.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—Shonts, while here today said no Chinese were at work on the isthmus, and none would be employed there, and never had been. He said the invited bids received for Chinese labor were unsatisfactory, and he would not employ them.

DASHES DOWN GRADE

Car Loaded With Ties Carries
Men to Death In Its Mad Flight

San Bernardino, Cal., Oct. 17.—A carload of ties and men got away down a steep grade on the Barnwell branch of the Santa Fe this morning. Many jumped and were terribly injured, others were probably fatally crushed when the car left the track on a curve. The car started while the men were unloading ties.

ACT OF CRAZY KING

Killed His Wife and Then Compelled His Followers to Eat Her

Paris, Oct. 17.—Additional advices of the cruelties of King Annamando, in China, says he inflicted untold tortures upon the palace inmates, killed one wife, and served her up at a banquet, forcing his entourage, under pain of death, to eat her. The French authorities have imprisoned the king, released the inmates of the palace and declared the king insane, and deposed him permanently.

A Few Plain Naked Truths

It sometimes pays to talk plainly and bluntly, and the friend talking plainest and making you wince at every word, often proves to be the best friend.

You are endangering your health and future happiness by neglecting your teeth. Stop right where you are and have the matter looked after. An investment in dentistry will pay big dividends.

By our exclusive process teeth are extracted without pain. We do as we advertise, and do not advertise impossibilities. Our prices are half what private dentists charge, as we do many times as much work.

This is how our patients feel about it:

August 31, 1906.—Dr. Wright put in a seven-tooth bridge and a number of fillings and must say I experienced practically no discomfort whatever during the operation.
MRS. SMALL,
Turner, Co.

August 31, 1906.—Dr. Wright has just extracted a tooth for me absolutely without pain.
C. I. NEWERY.

June 9, 1906.—Dr. Wright made me a full lower plate to replace the one I had made by another dentist, and it is a perfect fit.
MRS. W. FENNEL,
803 Liberty Street, Salem.

June 24, 1906.—I had a tooth extracted by Dr. Wright's painless method, and can say that it didn't hurt a particle.
