

Alcohol not needed

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is not a strong drink. As now made, there is not a drop of alcohol in it. It is a non-alcoholic tonic and alterative. Ask your own doctor about your taking this medicine for thin, impure blood. Follow his advice every time. He knows. Trust him.

We have no secrets! We publish the formulae of all our preparations.

CHRISTIE MAY BE CARDINAL

The Baker City Democrat of recent date says:

Baker City Catholics are much interested in the announcement in an interview given by Father Louis Verhaag that Archbishop Christie of Oregon may be made a cardinal.

Coming direct from Rome where he was given an audience by the pope, Rev. Father Louis Verhaag said yesterday that it will not surprise him if Archbishop Christie of the Oregon diocese is the next cardinal appointed in this country. The holy father will remember the archbishop from his recent visit there and was so profoundly impressed that he spoke of him in the highest terms of esteem. Father Verhaag admitted that rumor in Rome has it that Archbishop Christie is destined to wear the red hat.

The Oregon prelate is revered and esteemed by all his associates, who would be delighted to see this distinction bestowed upon one so worthy. He is honored throughout the state not only by those of his own faith, but the many business men who have come to know his sturdy qualities and his unfailing goodness of heart and kindness to all men. Father Verhaag was greatly pleased with the high respect and love that the archbishop inspired in Rome as in every other place in which he is known.

CONVICTS DAUGHTER TONIGHT

Although in its fourth season, the play that has been witnessed by larger audiences than any other melodrama written in previous years. It appeals to every class of theater goers, from the boy in the gallery to the mother of the family; to sweethearts and sisters, and the father who loves his home. Yet, even with all its powers of entertaining, the manager has not been satisfied to stop at that. He has furnished every detail in regard to scenes and situations, properties and mechanical devices to make a perfect performance.

The first act opens at Col. Gould's home, with its pretty, home-like cottage, beautiful flowers and shade trees, and the air of perfect contentment. One commences to feel its sunshine and warmth from the very beginning, and the interest never flags from the first to the fifth and final act. You are carried from one scene to another with keen excitement, and a great hope and desire that right shall succeed and wrong shall reap its just reward. A wonderful bond of sympathy spreads itself through the audience for the sweet innocent child of the convict and her down-trodden father. There is but one way to appreciate this truly great play—come and see it and be convinced that "The Convict's Daughter" will always be remembered with pleasure.

It is one of the solid melodramatic successes of last season and will be the attraction at the Grand opera house tonight. The secret of the success of "The Convict's Daughter" is that it touches the heart-strings of its auditors. It is also filled with comedy of the higher order and does not depend upon buffoonery or vul-

WEAK KIDNEYS MAKE WEAK BODIES

Kidney Diseases Cause Half the Common Aches and Pains of the People.

As one weak link weakens a chain, so weak kidneys weaken the whole body and hasten the final breaking down.

Overwork, strains, colds and other causes injure the kidneys, and when their activity is lessened the whole body suffers from the excess of uric poison circulated in the blood.

Aches and pains and languor and urinary ills come, and there is an ever-increasing tendency towards diabetes and fatal Bright's disease. There is no real help for the sufferer except kidney help.

Doan's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys and cure every kidney ill. Salem cures are the proof.

William Stansell, of 250 Cottage St., Salem, Ore., says: "For five or six years kidney complaint and backache bothered me. It was never bad enough to lay me up but there were few times when I did not feel it still there, and I suffered a lot from the persistent aching over and through the kidneys and from other symptoms of kidney trouble. I was never able to find anything to give me any permanent benefit until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Dr. Stone's drug store. The effects of this remedy were so gratifying that I am glad to let others know my satisfactory experience with your medicine."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's and take no other.
