HENEY STEALS A MARCH ON RUEF

SALEM PRUNE GROWERS WILL ORGANIZE

SAN FRANCISCO ROTTENNESS TO BE PROBED

Francis J. Heney Gets Order of Court to Proceed

Grafting in City and County Will Be Laid Bare and Abe Ruef Machine Smashed

Preceding Action.
Acting Mayor Gallagher, of San Francisco, suspended District Attorney Langdon from office, and appointed Abe Ruef to that office.

Langdon had named Francis J. Heney his assistant to prosecute grafts under the Ruef machine in city and county affairs.

Later Developments.
San Francisco, Oct. 6.—With a full determination to fight to the death if necessary any attempt to oust him from office, District Attorney Langdon, who was suspended last night for alleged dereliction of duty on the eve of placing before the grand jury evidence of alleged grafting on the part of men who deposed him, appeared at the usual hour this morning, and took possession of his office without interference. Neither Abe Ruef, who was selected to succeed him, or any of his followers, appeared at the district attorney's office, thus dispelling a fear that their might be bloodshed over a possible fight for possession of the office. Immediately upon his appearing in his office Langdon produced an order signed by Superior Judge Sewell restraining Ruef from acting and Mayor Gallagher or the board of supervisors from in any manner interfering with the office of district attorney. The order was made returnable November 2d. By this action it is believed Ruef's coup was put to naught, and the

ROBBERIES GALORE REPORTED

Bank Dynamiters Hold Up a Hundred Brave Citizens

Salem Prune Raisers Will Hereafter Act As a Unit

Chillicothe, O., Oct. 26.—Robbers dynamited the postoffice safe this morning and got $200. They escaped. Just before this, and probably the same gang, got about $300 cash from the ticket office of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad.

Odin, Ill., Oct. 26.—By a bold safe robbery of the bank thieves got $5000 and escaped. They held at bay 100 citizens. The first blast of dynamite awakened the citizens, who ran to the bank in their night clothes. Guards threatened the people with death, and forced the townsmen to stand while their confederates completed the robbery.

Goshen, Ind., Oct. 26.—Mrs. Lou Fuller, aged 40, the wife of a farmer and horse trader, near this city, was shot in bed this morning. Her husband says the robbers got over $300 from his trousers. He says the shots awakened him.

Jamestown, Mo., Oct. 26.—Robbers blew open the safe of the Bank of Jamestown, secured $2700 in cash and escaped.

ANTI- JAPANESE FEELING

Compels a Consideration at Cabinet Meeting

They Claim Right to Send Children to Public Schools

Washington, Oct. 26.—Serious consideration was given the Japanese situation today at a cabinet meeting. Although matters have not reached the "strained relation" stage there is no concealing the fact that the administration is worried. Each nation has practically accused the other of violating treaty rights, and plans were considered today for working out the problem in San Francisco. Authorities there declare that only a lack of facilities caused the exclusion of Japanese children from the schools? The question is now in court as to whether the federal government has jurisdiction. A suit was filed yesterday in the federal court of San Francisco to enjoin the school board from removing certain Japanese students. If the supreme court upholds the injunction, the authority of the government in the premises will be assured. It is thought the government is already in communication with California officials, urging co-operation. It is even suggested that $6,000,000 of the Red Cross funds will be used for Japanese schools.

UNITED RAILWAYS NOT DEAD

Loss Says Line to Salem Is Opposed by Big Interests

Still Has Plenty of Time in Which to Complete His Contract

What has become of the United Railways project, that was to construct an electric line from Portland to Salem? Has it gone the way of paper railroads?

All will recall how the city of Portland was buncoed out of a franchise by sharpers, who were operating for graft only.

There are so many paper propositions—and even thinner than paper—diaphanous gas projects, thinner than hot air that the public is troubled to even keep them in mind.

Thursday evening's Portland Telegram revived the memory of the great United Railways project in the following stuff:

DO NOT KNOW HOW TO KISS.

Fair Plaintiff in Lawsuit Says Married Men Are Better at Oscu- latory Exercise.

Chicago, Oct. 26.—Does a married man know how to kiss better than a single man? Can you tell a married man by the way he kisses?

These two questions were answered the other day by Mrs. Kathryn Doelle, the pretty 3 year old widow of 340 North Central avenue, who is suing Frank E. Dooling, a Spring- field politician for $800, which she claims she lent him and for kisses, which she confesses blushing, she gave him outright.

"Few single men know how to kiss," declared the pretty widow, "I should have known Mr. Dooling was married by the way he kissed me. Married men know how to kiss better than single men. Their kisses are longer and more heartfelt."

A Great Dog Fight.

New York, Oct. 26.—A dog fight to the finish took place on Broad- way yesterday before a large audi- ence. At the conclusion of the first and only round a bull terrier owned by Joseph McGoul lay dead in the street, and the decision was given to a Boston bull owned by W. D. Pyott, of Los Angeles. The round lasted three minutes.

The two dogs and their owners met on Broadway, the terrier in leash and the Boston bull loose. Both dogs issued challenges simultaneously and McGoul unleashed his animal. The fight started without delay and a crowd started to gather. A policeman rushed up when there were about 300 persons gathered, but he became merely a spectator. The crowd of 300 got to be 600, and the 600 got to be so many that all of them could not see at once and they filled the street.

The dogs continued their snapping and bone-crushing contest until the bull terrier stiffened out, dead. Then his owner went to the police station and tried to have Pyott arrested, but got no satisfaction. The Broad- way crowd scattered, avowing never before had there been such a dog fight on Broadway, with or without gate receipts.

COBBLER CAPTAIN GOT BUSY

Berlin, Oct. 26.—There are more developments in the case of the pretended captain of grenadiers, who, on the 16th, upon a forged order took command of a detachment of the royal grenadiers and arrested officials of the village of Coepnick, stole $1000 in cash. He was a cob- bler of Tilsit, with a long record of crime, and was arrested today.

White Ribbon Women.

Hartford, Conn., Oct. 26.—The national convention of the W. C. T. U. began here today. National President Mrs. Stevens, of Maine, in her annual address, urged them to stand by the anti-canteen law, and declared it had been disproved that malleous dives would spring up around military posts without canteens. She favored national constitutional amendment against polygamy. The convention voted for an exhibit at Jamestown.

Plain Clothes Go-Betweens.

New York, Oct. 26.—General Bingham today ordered every plain clothes officer on the police force to patrol duty after 6 o'clock tomorrow evening. All plain clothes men hereafter will be appointed by the inspector of the district in which he is assigned. It is expected to do away with the go-between service generally credited to the plain clothes policemen.

Bank Cashier's Trial.

Chicago, Oct. 26.—Henry L. Herring, cashier of the defunct Milwaukee Avenue Bank, will go to trial next week. Today three additional indictments, charging forgery, were returned against him. It is expected Stensland will be returned from the penitentiary to testify.

The pope at Rome today received Monsieur Tschirsky and wife. Plus talked with them for half an hour, and appeared strong. They were representatives of the German Kaiser.

The director of the U. S. mint this afternoon bought 100,000 ounces of silver at 76.76 per ounce, delivered at Denver.

Disturb Wedding Party and Destroy Building.

Fourche, Ark., Oct. 26.—Friends of Bernard Clisely and bride last night were celebrating the wedding at a hotel here. A fire was started, it is alleged, by a jealous woman. J. B. Calvert, president of a lumber company at Ada, I. T., was burned to death, and the building was destroyed. Loss, $10,000.

Preparing Plan of Attack.

Washington, Oct. 26.—Secretary Moody and assistants are preparing recommendations to place before the President of the plan of attack on the Standard and Morrison, of Chicago, and Kellogg, of St. Paul, special attorneys are now going over the report Sullivan, of Cleveland, made of the Findlay trial. Morrison and Kellogg have already submitted theirs. It is said the evidence the government needs to strengthen its case is now in hand. It is likely a suit will be started about the middle of November.

Floods in Washington.

Bellingham, Wash., Oct. 26.—Recent rains have caused the worst floods in the history of this section. Railroads are washed out and thousands of acres are inundated. The Nooksack river has changed its course.

Iowa Grain Dealers' Association Are in the Lime Light.

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 26.—Before an audience of over 300 farmers, the commissioners and Clerk Lane today began an investigation of the alleged grain trust operating in Iowa under the name of the Iowa Grain Dealers' Association. A dozen witnesses were summoned to tell how they had suffered through the association.

Bogus Trust Concern.

Washington, Oct. 26.—On a charge of conspiracy in connection with the wrecking of the Aetna Bank & Trust Company, E. W. McCormick, its promoter, was arrested this afternoon and locked up in default of $200 bonds. It is alleged he conspired with John Hoag, cashier, and others to defraud creditors, through the issuance to him of false certificates of deposit. Warrants are out for others.

Double Iron Plant.

Milwaukee, Wis., Oct. 26.—Judge Gary, Cornelius Vanderbilt, W. H. Read and James Eckles visited the plant of Allis & Chalmers today. It is rumored closer relations between the iron and steel trusts are contemplated. It is announced that the Allis & Chalmers Company's capacity will be doubled this winter.

Heritage Tonight.

Prof. Heritage will get a warm welcome tonight on his return to Salem. He is not a bad fellow, and he can sing, having a heritage of a voice like a steam dredger. The other gentleman will play mostly music that people go and listen to because they don't understand, but want their friends to think they do.

At Des Moines, Iowa, C. G. Men- eroie testified that the Iowa Grain Dealers' Association had pooled prices and boycotted commission men and farmers who refused to join.

J. N. Ferrell returned from Reno, Nevada, last night, where he had been visiting his brother, C. P. Fer- rell, sheriff of Washo count, for two months.
