WHAT WILL FOLLOW.

Having man a personal demand upon Senator Fulton for a particular man for collector of customs it is supposed the Oregonian will get its man appointed.

But what becomes of the interests of the public, of the interests of the party and of the claims of the other Republican workers IN FUTURE STATE CAMPAIGNS?

Of course, it goes without saying that the President will name the candidate for collector upon whom the Oregonian and Mr. Fulton have so harmoniously agreed.

What is it to the rest of the state or to the President himself if two gentlemen can reach such perfect agreement on who shall collect the fees ON OPIUM AND OTHER THINGS?

It further follows that the Oregonian will endorse and approve and sustain all the other appointments that Senator Fulton has made and may make in future.

When public patronage becomes a personal matter between gentlemen they really go into a political partnership, OFFENSIVE AND DEFENSIVE and extensive.

It is probably better for Senator Fulton to have appointed some one at the demand of a great newspaper than to have named some small country newspaper man himself.

With his own eloquence and the editorial and news columns of the Oregonian at his disposal Senator Fulton will have no trouble in succeeding himself.

WHY ROAST WATERS?

Why do the creeping, anonymous politicians roast Mayor Waters when he is not a candidate?

What has he done for the past years but sought TO THE BEST OF HIS ABILITY to push for the welfare of this city?

Has any mayor we have ever had done more or worked harder to secure improvements than has Mayor Waters?

He has stood up for permanent street improvements and permanent bridges, and accomplished something.

He has for the first time secured the correct numbering of houses and THE NAMING AND LOCATION OF STREETS.

He has had the support of the city council in these matters, and has kept his pledges to run the city within its means on a very low valuation.

The city has made moral progress under his administration. Gambling has been reduced to a minimum, saloons are no longer run on Sunday.

The card rooms are not thronged with hundreds of boys, as they were in the good old days, WHEN SALEM WAS A WIDE-OPEN TOWN.

Professional pimps were at least not his chief advisors and the controlling power of his police force.

Why not give even Mayor Waters his just dues, and why attack him with bulletins printed in some other town, and circulated by night? In whose interest is it done?

OUTRAGE ON THE MORAL SENSE

A number of young women students in the City Training School at Jamaica, N. Y., formerly the Jamaica State Normal School, are objecting to receiving co-instruction with young men in the gymnasium. There are about 200 in the school, most of them between the ages of 18 and 23 years. Attendance at the physical culture classes is a necessary and important part of their training, and compliance with the rules is vital to a successful result.

It appears, however, that one of the rules insisted upon by Miss Triple, the directress, is that the girls wear the customary athletic or gymnastic costume, including bloomers, while at their tasks and being taught co-ordinately with the few young men there are in the school, the latter wearing their ordinary street clothes. When some of the young women protested, Miss Triple is said to have insisted that they do as she does—wear the costume. Others in charge of the school say that the city does not recognize such a thing as sex in the class room.

It is hardly to be credited that the board of education ever made such a statement, either in letter or in spirit. A mistake is being committed that would seem to be more worthy of a teachers' training school in some remote section of the country. It is an outrage on the moral sense of both sexes and that any rule of the kind should be sanctioned by the board seems inexplicable. If the matter is not speedily corrected it will likely be by the young women themselves absents themselves from the classes. But this would interfere with their chances of passing their examinations for the profession they have chosen.

Smiles

Mrs. Kate Weber, of New York, has just celebrated her 90th birthday. She has 10 children, 52 grand children, 37 great grand children, and the end is not yet.

Salem has a carnation shop, a few dachshunds, and with a ladies hair-dressing parlor and manure would be quite up to date now.

Heritage can bring us anything in the way of classical music but we draw the line at dear old Queen Esther.

Wheat 776,000,000 bushels. Oats 960,827,000 bushels. Rye 30,785,000. We were in hopes there wouldn't be any rye beyond what is needed for rye bread. But it seems the Elks are not all dead yet.

Funds for an Italian church in Jersey City are being raised by means of a fencing bout. Of course, a man killed in a fencing bout for a church fund, there wouldn't be any question as to his future.

MORE ROLLING STOCK.

Purchase of Locomotives and Cars for Dallas and Fall City Road. Dallas, Ore., Oct. 29.—Mr. L. Gerlinger, Jr., general manager of the Dallas and Falls City railroad, has arrived home from a business visit to Nampa, Idaho. While in Nampa, Mr. Gerlinger purchased a 52-ton Mogul locomotive, for immediate delivery. The engine is more powerful than any in use on the west side lines, and will be placed on the run as soon as it arrives.

Two flat cars purchased by Mr. Gerlinger in St. Louis last summer have arrived in Dallas; four more are in Seattle, and the remaining 22 are expected soon. The Shay-gear locomotive, for use on the mountain division west of Falls City, will be sent out from the factory about November 1.

With all this new rolling stock and the engines and cars now in use, the company will be able to care for all the lumber and logging business offered.

Alaskan Gold Output.

New York, Oct. 30.—It is estimated, according to reports of the United States geological survey, that the output of gold from Alaska this year will amount to over $15,000,000 or more than 60 per cent over the previous year. In 1895 the amount was a little over $2,000,000. An important factor in the advancement of Alaskan mineral industries during the last decade, says the report, is the great reduction in mining costs which has taken place. The pioneer miners of the Yukon could not afford to handle gravel averaging less than $10 to $15 to the cubic yard. Now it can be worked for less than $5 a yard.

The Coffee Crop.

Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, Oct. 30.—The report of the minister of agriculture on the coffee crop, issued today, states that the growing crop in Santos, which produces a very large percentage of coffee raised in this country, is extremely small and a sensationally small output from Brazil must be expected this season. The new government tax of 60 cents per bag on coffee will be put into effect December 1.

Woman's Claim for $1,000,000.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 30.—Mrs. Monoria Gemmill, of 266 Seventeenth street, Milwaukee, has arrived here to fight for her portion of the fight for the possession of Sullivan's Mrs. Gemmill, through her attorneys Burkes and Burk, of Milwaukee, has filed her claim for her share of the estate as a first cousin of the deceased John Sullivan. The hearing of the various claims made to the estate come up in the circuit court for Kings county, Washington, November 26th. The three-cornered fight for the possession of Sullivan's estate began immediately upon the return of the carriages which conveyed Sullivan to his last resting place in September, 1900. Sullivan was one of the richest men in Washington, left absolutely no heirs as far as was known at the time of his death, and the fight for his estate promises to be one of the warmest ever made in the state. The participants in the three-cornered fight are two first cousins, a woman named Marie Carran, who claims to have been Sullivan's fiancée, and the county authorities who claim that the immense estate left by him should revert to the state and county for the benefit of the school fund.

CHARCOAL KILLS BAD BREATH

Bad Odor of Indigestion, Smoking, Drinking or Eating Can Be Instantly Stopped.

Sample Package Mailed Free.

Other people notice your bad breath where you would not notice it at all. It is nauseating to other people to stand before them and while you are talking, give them a whiff or two of your bad breath. It usually comes from food fermenting on your stomach. Sometimes you have it in the morning—that awful sour, bilious, bad breath. You can stop that at once by swallowing one or two Stuart's Lozenges, the most powerful gas and odor absorbers ever prepared.

Sometimes your meals will reveal themselves in your breath to those who talk with you. "You've had onions," or "You've been eating cabbage," and all of a sudden you belch in the face of your friend. Charcoal is a wonderful absorber of odors, as every one knows. That is why Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are so quick to stop all gases and odors of odorous foods, or gas from indigestion.

Don't use breath perfumes. They never conceal the odor, and never absorb the gas that causes the odor. Besides, the very fact of using them reveals the reason for their use. Stuart's Lozenges in the first place stop for good all sour brash and belching of gas, and make your breath pure, fresh and sweet, just after you've eaten. Then no one will turn his face away from you when you breathe or talk; your breath will be pure and fresh, and besides your food will taste so much better to you at your next meal. Just try it.

Charcoal does other wonderful things, too. It carries away from your stomach and intestines, all the impurities there massed together and which causes the bad breath. Charcoal is a purifier as well as an absorber.

Charcoal is now by far the best, most easy and mild laxative known. A whole boxful will do no harm; in fact, the more you take the better. Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges are made of pure willow charcoal and mixed with just a faint flavor of honey to make them palatable for you, but not too sweet. You just chew them like candy. They are absolutely harmless.

Get a new, pure, sweet breath, freshen your stomach for your next meal, and keep the intestines in good working order. These two things are the secret of good health and long life. You can get all the charcoal necessary to do these wonderful things by getting Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges. We want you to test these little wonder workers yourself before you buy them. So send us your full name and address for a free sample of Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges. Then after you have tried the sample, and been convinced, go to your druggist and get a 25c box of them. You'll feel better all over, more comfortable, and "cleaner" inside.

Send us your name and address today and we will at once send you by mail a sample package, free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 60 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

ARE YOU LIGHT WISE?

A store or place of business which is not lighted by Electricity has "let down the bars" to the inroads of competitors.

No matter how complete and fine your stock is, the improper lighting and worse ventilation of your store will turn away many probable purchasers—a great many more than you imagine or admit!

The Fall trade in the majority of cases is that part of the yearly business which is greatest in amount and profit. There is ample time between now and the first of November to wire for Electric Light or to erect an Electric Sign.

An electrically lighted interior and exterior are just as necessary for successful store trade as the right line of goods and clever salespeople. Our reduced rates for current on meter basis put the use of Electricity within the reach of every storekeeper. Learn the truth about costs; our representative with facts and figures is at your service.
