

SHANNA CUMMINGS COMING

Prima Donna Soprano With Six Leaders of Boston Symphony Orchestra

Shanna Cummings, America's greatest oratorio singer with the Boston sextette, the leaders of the Boston Symphony orchestra, will visit the west this year and will appear in seven coast cities. This organization is said to be the best thing in music that visits the west and on account of an open date going south from Portland, Salem is being given an opportunity to secure them.

On account of the open date, the management offers to play them in Salem for one-half of their playing price and Dr. Heritage, of the school of music, is attempting to secure this amount by advance subscription for seats.

This amount must be secured by Scene from the Holy City, at Grand Opera House, October 30th.

Wednesday and any one desiring to help bring these people here, are requested to phone Main 237 and give the number of seats they can use.

THE HOLY CITY.

This Splendid Production Will Appear at Grand Opera House Tonight.

Conspicuous for sagacious management and for the success of their companies presenting Luella Morey, Le Comte and Plesher have with this season's production excelled in theatrical endeavor. In this great Biblical drama, "The Holy City" there is combined such wealth of acting, allegory, music and spectacle, as has rarely if ever been seen. The possibilities for dramatic effect with which the thrilling narrative of John the Baptist abounds, have been utilized with great skill and apparently unlimited cost. The acting company is noted for its integral brilliancy; the scenes present history in radiant splendor; the stage paraphernalia, all of which is carried by the company, being of impressive beauty. The integrity of its management first called public attention to the play; its matchless performances are carrying those endorsements which honesty of purpose and skillful design command. The presentation of "The Holy City" here will be eagerly anticipated, in as much as the well known and intensely artistic Luella Morey heads the company and will be seen as "Salome" the beautiful daughter of King Herod.

IN THE BISHOP'S CARRIAGE.

Jessie Busley Will Be Seen in Salem Next Thursday Evening.

Miss Jessie Busley, who comes to the Grand opera house, Thursday, November 1, in the play, "In the Bishop's Carriage," was for many years a member of the various organizations controlled by Charles Frohman, and now that she has been taken under the managerial wing of Liebler & Co., she is said to have found at last her true vocation in the dramatic world. Miss Busley has long been considered one of the most promising of the younger generation of actresses, and it is said that in this play she has found a character that is eminently suited to her undoubted talents.

Cures Chills and Fever.

G. W. Wirt, Nacogdoches, Texas, says: "His daughter has chills and fever for three years; he could not find anything that would help her till he used Herbine. His wife will not keep house without it, and cannot say too much for it." 50c. Sold by D. J. Fry's drug store.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Elks' Blowout.

The Elks of this city have issued unique invitations to their members to a "Blow Out" which is to be held at the old quarters Thursday evening. The card is bordered with black and a tomb stone, grave yard and skull and cross bones are the illustrations. The invitation reads as follows:

"A dead cold invitation is extended to the members of Salem B. P. O. E. and all visiting brothers to attend in a body, a wake over the death of the old lodge rooms, Thursday evening November 8th. All are requested to bring crape and ice and join in the dead march, executed by our full orchestra. The live ones will leave for their new vault on Liberty street, November 15, 1906.

Special-Special-Special.

"The refreshment committee announces that a large amount of Embalming Fluid has been ordered for the occasion, also other delicacies of the season and smokes for those who obey the old maxim, 'Tis better to smoke here than hereafter. 'Be a Sad Weeper. Sympathy Free.'

Married Tomorrow.

The wedding of Miss Jennie Goode and Mr. John F. Steelhammer takes place tomorrow at noon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Goode, in North Salem.

Choral Society.

Prof. Heritage, who has conducted choral societies for 29 years, would like to test the musical capacity of Salem by attempting something on that line here. He advocates a Salem musical club of women, with the purpose of bringing music to a higher and better plane. In choosing soloists he favors selecting them from Salem, instead of having them from abroad. He proposes to organize the surrounding towns and have choral societies all over the valley, and then hold a June jubilee at the fair grounds. The name of the Salem society is proposed—Philharmonic.

The officers nominated are to be elected at the next meeting and are as follows: President—J. T. Turner, C. D. Minton and Chas. Roth; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. W. A. Moores, Elizabeth Barry, Miss Knight, Miss Bushnell; these were also nominated for corresponding secretary.

Popular Albany Girl Weds.

Miss Pearl Savage and Mr. S. Vere MacDuffee were married at Albany Tuesday afternoon, at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Charles Keiffer, Rev. S. A. Douglas officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ward were the attendants. The wedding was quite a happy event, and was attended by a large number of people.

Mr. MacDuffee is a Portland man, and the bride is a graduate of the Albany college, and has many friends in Salem as well as in Albany.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.
