LANGDON OR THE SUPREME COURT THEY JUMPED ALL NORTHERN CALIFORNIA

THEY SAT DOWN ON JOHNSON

The Supreme Court of Ohio Stands In With Its Creators

Washington, Oct. 31.—Mayor Johnson was defeated, at least temporarily, in the street car fight today, Chief Justice Fuller ordering the city of Cleveland and the Forest City Electric Railway Company to show cause within ten days why a permanent injunction should not be granted to prevent them from interrupting the Cleveland Electric Railway Company in the use of its tracks. A temporary injunction, effective immediately, was granted. The Forest City Company is a Johnson company and a 3-cent road.

Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish Morris and Mr. Wootsey Rogers, son of Mr. Hoffman Rogers, took place at the home of the bride's parents, 16 East Thirtieth street, here today. The Rev. J. Lewis Park officiated. Mr. Rogers has secured a house in Philadelphia where he will take his bride after their wedding trip in Europe.

Convention of Negroes at Oklahoma.

El Reno, Oct. 31.—The annual convention of the delegates of the African M. E. church was held here today and was attended by representative colored people from all parts of the states. Addresses of welcome were delivered by Mayor Henry Lassen and the Rev. T. E. Carter, of the local church. Resolutions were adopted deploring the unhappy state of affairs in Georgia and calling on the race to uplift itself, to abide by the laws of the country and live in peace with the white citizens.

Closed the Schools.

Moscow, Russia, Oct. 31.—The University of Moscow was closed today because of political meetings held in the building, contrary to an imperial order.

RUEF JOLTS LANGDON

Supreme Court Puts District Attorney Langdon in Contempt

San Francisco, Oct. 31.—Langdon will be cited for contempt of court some time today, because of his refusal to answer questions put to him by a notary public before he was subpoenaed by Ruef to make a deposition in support of the statements made by Langdon in a petition for a restraining order against Ruef. Ruef's attorney asked him a number of questions as to his knowledge of the complaint, all of which he refused to answer, deserting the witness chair and leaving the room.

AFTER GANG OF SMUGGLERS

San Francisco, Oct. 31.—When the steamship Roanoke arrived last night, custom house officials went aboard and arrested G. O. Hart and W. Bird, members of the crew, who are suspected of being members of a gang of smugglers. Another member of the alleged gang was taken off the steamer when it reached Seattle from points further north. He is said to have made a complete confession.

Brooklyn, Oct. 31.—Mrs. Drueilla Morrell is receiving the congratulations of her friends in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Jennie Velzor, 122 Adelphi street, on reaching the venerable age of 102 years. She was born at Woburn, Mass., in 1804, her husband being Daniel Morrell, for many years the tollgate keeper at Coney Island and a veteran of the war of 1812. The aged lady who is in fairly good health entertained her friends by telling them about Coney Island in the early days.

HEARST MAKING VOTES

The Straus Letter and Supreme Court Decision Both Help Him

New York, Oct. 31.—Hearst campaigners today are making great capital out of the decision of the court of appeals yesterday, that multiple petitions for candidates are valid, and upon the letter of Nathan Straus favoring Hearst. Hearst managers say the establishment of the principle of the validity of multiple petitions is of so much value to the community that the publisher's action, at his own expense should not go unrewarded. Straus' letter is used as heavy artillery at all the speaking centers today.

Straus for years has been trying to have the poor women and children get plenty of fresh, pure milk. He says the action of the trust, in raising the price of milk, was criminal. He declares the governor could have prevented it. He knows if Hearst was governor the crime would be stopped and punished. He says, as a Democrat, he must support Hearst. The Republicans are gaining confidence. It appears the agricultural districts are falling in line for Hughes. Hearst's campaign of personal invective has apparently lost him much support. Hughes' dignified methods and ignoring of personal attacks is giving him great strength.

STATE WON ONCE

Lincoln, Neb., Oct. 31.—The state was victorious against the Lumbermen's Association this morning. The supreme court ordered the secretary to bring into court all the records of correspondence, which had been objected to on the grounds that the statute only applied to outside corporations. The objection was not sustained.

UTES WILL NOT FIGHT

Cheyenne, Wyo., Oct. 31.—Six troops of cavalry are moving toward the Utes on Powder river to round them up. There is no official information of any depredations whatever, and there are over 100 able-bodied Indians in the band. The Utes hate the Cheyennes, and say that there is no truth in the story that they are going to co-operate with the Cheyennes. It is expected that they will be taken without firing a shot.

Omaha, Oct. 31.—An unverified report says the troops of cavalry and a band of Cheyennes clashed on Powder river last night, and that three Indians were killed and others wounded.

The Nevada Reservation.

Dutchman's Creek, Nev., Oct. 31.—A town has been staked off here. Surveyors are working today, and a large camp is assured. Rich ore has been brought from all around. The reservation people are optimistic. Some claim jumping has occurred, and several shooting scrapes have been averted. A mass meeting has been called for tonight to elect a recorder and name the district. A vigilance committee will be formed at a mass meeting tonight.

LAND SWIPERS BUSY

Locate Three Countries While Henry Wrestles With City Graft

Redding, Cal., Oct. 31.—Thousands of acres of land in Shasta, Trinity and Siskiyou counties were entered this morning by entrymen, who had been in line for three days at the land office. Contrary to expectations, there was no trouble, other than confusion. Four hundred entries were made before night. New locators are coming in constantly, but the cream of the land is staked. Many good sales are being made. Some places in the line sold as high as $500.

THE GIRL IS JUST HYPNOTIZED

Bellingham, Wash., Oct. 31.—Ada Humphries, who was hypnotized several days ago by "Prof. DuPrie," cannot be restored to her right mind. She is lying in a hospital, indulging in childish prattle. The hypnotist left the city. The young woman was infatuated with him, and was following him around. The physicians can do nothing with the girl.

This Is All Right.

Washington, Oct. 31.—President Roosevelt and Mrs. Roosevelt went today to Pine Knot, Albemarle county, Virginia, to remain until Monday. The President will hunt turkeys. After leaving the train at North Camden, they will drive 17 miles to their cottage.

POOR LITTLE COUNTESS

All the Gould Millions Could Not Bring Her Any Happiness

Paris, Oct. 31.—The hearing of the Countess Castellane's divorce began today. Mitre Cruppy, representing the countess, declared that frequently the count struck and slapped his wife during the quarrels caused by his demands for money. Other startling revelations were made, and the trial promises to be sensational in the extreme. The plaintiff demands an absolute divorce and the custody of the children. It is said the troubles and cruel treatment by Count Boni commenced three months after marriage. Instances of infidelity are alleged. Cruppy stated it is the intention of the countess to remain in France after the divorce and raise her children here.

Cruppy alleges eleven cases of infidelity on the part of Boni. He said the count had five places for meeting women. Boni's attorneys demanded that the women be named. Cruppy objected, saying it was useless to involve others. The only name mentioned was that of Lucie de Lemmos, a notorious demi-monde. Cruppy showed a letter from this woman to Boni, which Anna found. He said the wife knew of Castellane's infidelity since 1898. Once before women had caused the countess to leave her husband. Neither of the parties to the suit were present.

Cruppy declared that Boni held the purse strings, and only permitted his wife for long periods $60 to $80 a month for her personal expenditures.
