REFUSE TO PAY POLL TAX

Three Prominent Salem Citizens Will Make Test Case on Validity of Law

City council last night instructed the city attorney A. O. Condit to proceed against B. O. Shuckling, W. T. Perkins and W. F. Skiff and compel them to pay $3 each, being the amount of their road poll tax. It was reported to the council that these three citizens had refused to pay the amount.

Mr. Condit will at once take steps to compel the collection of the amount.

The courts have already held that the city cannot make the payment of this tax prerequisite to voting but it is said there has been no court decision affecting the validity of the law imposing the tax.

The courts have already held that the city cannot make the payment of this tax a prerequisite to voting, but it is said there has been no court decision affecting the validity of the law imposing the tax.

Each of the three defendants in this action is a prominent citizen of the city. Mr. Perkins is chief clerk in the State Treasurer's office; Mr. Shuckling is a well-known hop broker, and Mr. Skiff is a dentist.

The grounds that will be advanced for the non-payment of the tax have not been given out.

CURRENT TOPICS TODAY

Prepared for the Public Schools and the Family Circle.

Fierce storms are raging on the North Atlantic coast and the shore line of Canada is fairly lined with the wrecks of good ships. Many sailors have perished in the waves.

A strike of railroad switchmen is imminent in Chicago and railroad traffic in the middle west may be tied up as a consequence.

An order of an officer to British soldiers to kneel in order that an officer might see the manoeuvre of the men, caused a riot at Portsmouth, England.

A logging train at Rainier, Washington, ran away on a street grade and the men had to jump for their lives. Several were badly injured. A coal famine is threatened throughout all the northwest.

Threaten to Strike.

Sacramento, Nov. 6.—Three hundred blacksmiths from the Southern Pacific shops submitted an ultimatum to the superintendent, demanding 40 cents an hour flat, with extra pay for overtime. Unless a favorable answer is returned by 6 o'clock tomorrow, the entire force will walk out.

Thaw Trial Delayed.

New York, Nov. 6.—There is no foundation in fact for the statement that Thaw will likely be tried this week. Assistant District Attorney Smith says Thaw is unlikely to be tried before December, pending motion of Thaw's attorneys to prevent the district attorney from further examining the witnesses, which is yet undecided. Therefore the trial could not come up in the immediate future.

The prisoner today sent a message to the newspaper men at the Tombs in answer to their questions saying: "The trial cannot come too quickly for me; I expect a quick vindication."

MRS. F. A. WIGGINS

ELECTION IS STILL IN DOUBT

the smaller counties in the north have sent out strong Bell reports. Sacramento and San Joaquin, the larger of the northern counties, appeared at noon to be going for Bell, while in the south Los Angeles and San Diego counties are not showing the usual heavy Republican vote. The statement of the Los Angeles Times, the anti-Bell organ, conceding Bell's election is considered significant. The general opinion is that San Francisco county will go for Bell, but whatever majority he may get here will, it is expected, be offset or overcome by the majority Gillette will take out of Oakland and the other county cities. The election reports from all over the state indicate fair weather. The Democrats are apprehensive about the Socialist vote, which will be heavy in the mining districts. They are confident nevertheless, that they will elect the governor, congressmen and a majority of the state ticket.

Going Hearst's Way.

Washington, Nov. 6.—Griggs W. Sherman, of the Democratic congressional committee, got a message from Murphy over the telephone this afternoon. The Tammany leader said: "Hearst will have a bigger majority than Bird Coler had." Griggs said: "Charlie, you are lying." Murphy said: "I wouldn't lie on election day." The returns from all over the state show an enormous vote, and everything going Hearst's way.

Fraud in Denver.

Denver, Colo., Nov. 6.—Sensational charges are made against Mayor Speer and the city administration. It is alleged the police are keeping the regular Democratic voters from the polls in the tenderloin. It is claimed the administration is using its forces in the aid of Buechel and the Republicans. Much scratching done on the ticket is reported. A Republican victory is apparent.

Hearst Makes Gains.

New York, Nov. 6.—The Journal this afternoon prints a dispatch from Elmira, N. Y., saying: "The mechanism of a voting machine broke that required the opening early today. Three years ago the district was even between Higgins and Herrick. When the machine was opened today the vote read Democrats for Hearst 25, Republicans for Hughes 26, independents for Hearst 32. Hearst's plurality in the district. It was evenly divided last year.

Election Bulletins.

Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 6.—Weather clear, warm. Indications favor heavy vote; party managers claim election for both parties.

Tulsa, I. T., Nov. 6.—Clear weather, intense interest and large vote. Many Indians voting, though the Indian vote was smaller than was anticipated.

Topeka, Kans., Nov. 6.—Hoeh's chances are brighter this afternoon. He claims re-election. The voting started early in the state. No excitement.

San Francisco, Nov. 6.—It is estimated that 40,000 votes will be polled in this city. The election is remarkably quiet. The main interest outside of the governorship appears to be the judicial ticket. The indications are that Ruef's candidates for the judgeship will be defeated: Republican Chairman Strickland in a statement this afternoon declared Gillette will carry San Francisco by a good majority, and the state by fully 20,000.

Salt Lake, Nov. 6.—It is reported from Fremont county, Idaho, that the Mormons have arrested the American party challengers, and have thrown them into jail.

Boise, Idaho, Nov. 6.—Stock slager, Democrat candidate for governor, is running ahead of his ticket.

Springfield, Ohio, Nov. 6.—Weather throughout Central Illinois perfect. The roads are hard as floors, and the farmers voted to a man. The nature of the election is the heavy south for Allen, the Prohibition candidate for treasurer. He may carry a number of the corn counties.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 6.—The election in Virginia is quiet, except in the fifth and ninth congressional districts, where bitter contests are on. The state will elect nine Democrats to congress.

Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 6.—A heavy vote. Fight on to a finish in the effort to down Cummins. The roads are busy. The Republicans concede the election of George Tracy to congress in the first district, Dan Hamilton succeeding Lacey in sixth.

Sioux Falls, S. D., Nov. 6.—Warm, balmy weather, southern breeze. The fine weather is bringing out the early farmer vote, which was polled early.

Harrisburg, Pa., Nov. 6.—The ballots cast this morning indicate the vote near the registration, which was heavy.
