HEARST IS BEATEN IN NEW YORK LEBANON AND LINN COUNTY ARE LEADING

BOOSTING LEBANON INDUSTRIES

Making Up the Eastern End of Linn County

Mixing Up the Cause of Progressive Ag- riculture and Development

(Editorial Correspondence.)

A two-days convention at Lebanon has been an awakener for this pret-town, and starts an upward movement for Eastern Linn county. Two days a day with the outside world, instead of one, doubles the intercourse with this center of business in the Santiam, where they have recently established a high school. They have a large paper mill, have a sawmill under construction, and expect another one soon. Potatoes, apples, prunes, berries, hogs, sheep, and butter are shipped in large quantities. There is a country reaching east into the foothills of the Cascades for 30 miles which general in 1892; district attorney at Portland in 1902, and then governor. Some of his enthusiastic friends say he will next be elected Senator. As the governor fled down into town from the depot the sidewalks were lined with farmers, blacksmiths, butchers, laborers and idlers, all ready for a handshake, and none were disappointed.

A bodyguard, headed by Milt Miller, the Senator-elect, escorted the governor to Hotel Lebanon, where a fine dinner was served. The governor spoke Tuesday evening to an immense audience, amid great enthusiasm.

The Farmers' Institute.
The farmers' section of the great awakening was started off by a spirited address by C. D. Steen. He is a hard-headed, hard-fisted agriculturist who has learned wisdom in the hard school of experience. He introduced Dr. James Withycombe, who has been more or less connected with the tillers of the soil and the Labor Scarce on the Coast.

Seattle, Nov. 7.—Upwards of $4,000,000 are to be spent on the new Harriman lines in the north Pacific coast during the coming winter months and Chief Engineer Buschke, of the Oregon Navigation, is facing the problem of spending the money as there is a great scarcity of labor in this portion of the country. Notwithstanding the fact that the climate is one of the finest in the world, long service is promised, good pay given and transportation paid the coveted workmen do not appear. In no part of the world is the field for labor so promising as on the north Pacific coast.

Cheap Poultry in New York.
New York, Nov. 7.—Owing to the continued heavy shipment of both live and dressed chickens the market here is demoralized and for selling at remarkably low prices. Ordinarily at this time of the year farmers held back shipments in order to realize the usually high prices around Thanksgiving. The normal receipts up to the present were about fifty cars a week but the number has now risen to over 100 cars and chickens are selling at the ruinous price of 4 cents a pound in consequence. Dealers are advised to cease shipping so heavily.

Automobile Club of America.
New York, Nov. 7.—The Automobile Club of America commenced its four days motor wagon or commercial tests today. The contest is for all types of motor wagons or trucks whether driven by gas, electricity, or steam and the entries are very large. The first route will be 20 miles and the second will be a double trip of ten miles through the congested districts of the city, down to the Battery, and return. Prizes will be distributed tomorrow.

Sporting Princess in New York.
New York, Nov. 7.—The Princess De Montgion, of France, has arrived here from Montmartre, her seat in France. She came to this country to visit the horse show and the meeting of the Ladies' Kennel association. The princess is a great sportswoman, a fearless rider to hounds and possesses one of the fanciest dog kennels in Europe.

Petschnikoff the Peasant Violinist.
Pittsburg, Nov. 7.—Alexander Petschnikoff, the Russian violinist, performed at a concert here tonight. He is the son of a serf and was introduced into European society by Princess Oursoloff. Madam Petschnikoff, who was an American girl, assisted her husband in several pieces for two violins. She is also an accomplished musician.

Tippecanoe Battlefield.
Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 7.—Today being the anniversary of the battle of Tippecanoe which was fought on November 7, 1811, a large number of people visited the battlefield. An electric railroad now runs to the historic battlefield.

REPUBLICANS STILL CONTROL THE COUNTRY

Democrats Make Gains in Many Congressional Delegations

Washington, Nov. 7.—Latest corrected returns from New York show Hughes is elected by a plurality of 60,284 over Hearst. Hearst is far behind his ticket in Greater New York and in many up-state counties. At noon today the indications were that Chanler, the Democratic nominee for lieutenant-governor and the rest of the ticket may have been elected. Chanler has a plurality in Greater New York of 135,000, which breaks all records in this city for lieutenant-governor. Other Democratic nominees ran ahead of Chanler in this city. The late incoming returns from up-state on the remainder of the ticket show fluctuations.

Washington, Nov. 7.—With a majority in the house of between 60 and 80, when they expected only 50, with the legislatures elected that assure the control of the senate, with Republican tickets chosen in 18 states, and opposition candidates beaten in New York, the mass of the "grand old party" is jubilant. Taken all around it can be construed only as an emphatic endorsement of Roosevelt's policy. The people complied with his wishes for a Republican congress.

Croker cabled today and expressed his satisfaction in the defeat of Hearst. He hinted he believed the Democratic party needs a new leader. He thinks McCarren the proper man, but says such a suggestion from him would be resented. Croker is surprised at the big vote of New York City. He explained: "I suppose it was due to the fact that most Tammany men wanted to be 'regular.' The fault is not theirs; the mischief was done when Hearst was nominated. I don't care to indicate what the New York Democrats should do. I'm only a private individual, and nothing under heaven could induce me to resume the Tammany leadership." Croker said he hoped Bryan would be nominated in 1908.

While Hearst admits Hughes is elected, he insists the next lieutenant-governor, next comptroller, next attorney-general and possibly the secretary of state will be Democrats. The administration circles, commenting upon the various features of the result, discuss the failure of the Gompers movement. Every candidate fought by Gompers was elected, except Wadsworth, of New York, and Babcock, of Wisconsin. In both cases local issues were responsible. LaFollette has been after Babcock's scalp for years. The fight on Longworth failed, and the President's son-in-law returns. The fly in the Republican ointment is that the new constitution of Oklahoma will be drafted by the Democrats. Sears is sure of the re-election of Cullom, Dryden, Elkins, Allee, Crane and others less prominent.

The President this morning wired congratulations to Hughes. Johnson was re-elected governor in Minnesota by 60,900, the greatest majority ever given a gubernatorial candidate. The State is normally 60,000 Republican. All the rest of the ticket is Republican.

In Colorado Chief Justice Gabbert was re-elected with the Republicans, though greatly scratched. Elmon Guggenheim will probably succeed Patterson in the senate. The Democrats are crying fraud. A probable investigation will be held. In Ohio it was authoritatively stated that Foraker, after the election which assured him Dick and control of the State, decided in his own mind to be a candidate for President in 1908, and will go to the convention with the Ohio delegation behind him.

In Iowa the election is still in doubt. The Capital, the anti-Cummings organ, says Porter is elected by 12,000. The News, independent, says the election is doubtful, but Cummings is probably elected by 3000. The Republican committee claims the ticket will pull through by 20,000. The Democrats claim Porter will carry the state by 25,000. The result will not be known before night.

Gillett Elected.
San Francisco, Nov. 7.—Although the full returns from the state will not be in for a week, sufficient figures are on hand to confirm last night's estimate that Gillett and other candidates on the Republican state ticket will be elected by majorities ranging from 8,000 to 15,000. The vote in San Francisco county will not be retabulated until this afternoon. But when that task is finished there will be little change in the figures. Gillett carried the county by 10,000 but ran slightly behind the ticket. Practically complete figures for the congressmen are in this morning, and show the election of eight republican candidates. Two of Reuf's judiciary candidates pulled through by a narrow margin; Judge Carrol Cook for district court of appeals and Judge Moran for superior court. The Democratic managers are still inclined this morning to claim Bell's election but the figures are against them.

Washington Republican.
Seattle, Nov. 7.—Incomplete returns from all portions of the State point to the election of three Republican congressmen, and the entire State Republican ticket.

One of the surprises in the Wisconsin election is the victory of Lucian F. Palmer, a negro, over Thos. Ramsey for assemblyman in the richest district in the city. Palmer is a caterer. He is the first negro to hold public office in the state.

Nevada Democrats.
Reno, Nev., Nov. 7.—Almost complete returns from the larger precincts of the state shows a sweeping Democratic victory. Bartlett, Democrat, for congress, defeats Smith, Republican, by 1000. Sparks, Democrat, incumbent governor, defeats Mitchell by about the same. The legislature is close.

Idaho Still Doubtful.
Boise, Idaho, Nov. 7.—The result of the election for governor will not be definitely known before night. It may require an official count to determine whether Gooding, Republican, or Stockslager, Democrat, carried the state.

Huddleson Elected.
A. B. Huddleson, formerly of Jefferson, and a prominent citizen of Marion county, has been elected a member of the legislature from Washington county, Idaho.

California in Doubt.
San Francisco, Nov. 7.—The Democratic managers this morning issued a statement in which they claim Bell's election by not less than 9000. They declare Gillett carried 15 counties with a total plurality of 8700, which gives Bell 44 with a total plurality of 19,525. The Bell figures in a number of counties are undoubtedly exaggerated, particularly in Sacramento county, where the Democrats claim 3500 plurality, but which really amounts to about 1500.

Iron Coming from Abroad.
New York, Nov. 7.—Predictions of the importation of foreign iron have been realized and in addition of 5000 tons of No. 3 Middlesborough which arrived here recently five cargoes are being discharged today. Iron from Durham, Newcastle-on-Tyne and the northeastern English ports is finding a ready sale, at remunerative prices here.

Arizona Defeats Statehood.
Phoenix, Ariz., Nov. 7.—It is estimated on nearly complete returns that jointure received but 12 1/2 per cent of the votes cast in the territory. Mark Smith, Democrat, is elected to congress, and a small majority of the legislature is Democratic.

One Lone Democrat.
Chicago, Nov. 7.—The only Democrat elected in Cook county is Charles M. Callahan, candidate for judge of the new municipal court. His opponent, Ferdinand Barnett, a negro, got over 82,000 votes.

A Hearst Triumph.
Lincoln, Neb., Nov. 7.—W. J. Bryan is unwilling to comment until the final returns are in, but said: "The reduction of the Republican majority in New York is as much of a triumph for Hearst as if he were elected."

Hammond Defeated.
San Francisco, Nov. 7.—Charles Hammond, the Republican candidate for state senator of Lake county, California, the brother-in-law of President Roosevelt, is apparently defeated.

Standard Oil Suits.
Washington, Nov. 7.—Secretary Moody announced today he would take up the Standard Oil suits at once. The matter is likely to come to a head in the courts within two weeks.

May Not Occur.
Chicago, Nov. 7.—The switchman's strike, scheduled to begin tonight, may not occur. The leaders of the Brotherhood announced that negotiations still continue.

Taking Depositions.
St. Louis, Nov. 7.—The attorney-general of Texas today began taking depositions here in the state's ouster suit against the Waters-Pierce Oil Company.

Sunk Russian Transport.
St. Petersburg, Nov. 7.—Trouble between the Russians and Japanese, it is claimed, on the island of Saghalien. It is reported that the Russian transport Kelyma is sunk.

Cummins Wins.
Des Moines, Ia., Nov. 7.—The latest estimate indicates that Cummins wins. The Capital this afternoon concedes Cummins' election by 5000.

President of I. C.
New York, Nov. 7.—The Illinois Central directors elected Karahan president.

Chicago Markets.
Chicago, Nov. 7.—Wheat 73 1/2, corn, 42 1/2 @ 42 1/2, oats 34 1/2.
